SALMON FISHING AND OTHER SPORTS GIVE PLEASURE TO VISITORS

(By Lamar Toozee) Newport, Ore., July 26.—(Special to the Capital Journal)—The chautauqua over, Newport has settled down for the rest of the season to the joys of the beach.

The week's weather has been ideal and conducive to out of door pastimes. Trolling for salmon has lured many to the deep sea. Even the possibility—or probability—of mal demer has not detained the many Isaac Waltons from taking a trip out across the bar to the briny blue. Salmon trolling is the angler's greatest pastime. A Chinook salmon will put up a fight that would shame even a Mexican army. They fight until the finish and in many cases release themselves before they can be drawn aboard. Several sea-going boats make regular trips to the open sea every day.

The sunshine has stimulated surf bathing likewise. Newport's beach is famed all up and down the coast for the excellence of its bathing. There are no strong undertows or currents, characteristic of most Pacific coast beaches. The Natorium at Nye Beach with warm salt water, offers an opportunity for bathing and swimming to those who dislike the rigors of the surf.

Mr. and Mrs. Fred Day of Portland, are located in one of the cottages at Cherry City for a week's sojourn. Hobart Mitchell, who has been passing a vacation at Agate Beach, returned during the week to his home in Portland. Mr. Mitchell is a son of McKinley Mitchell, formerly a resident of Salem, and is a sophomore at Stanford University.
