LOJU-MONTAVILLA GAME TOMORROW

Great Weather and Fine Leonard Also Showed Cham-Game Assured the Lovers of Baseball

Off course there's many a slip between the pennant and the pole, but nevertheless the Salem section of the Intercity league is feeling pretty cheerful at present over the prospects for landing in place one at the close of the season.

New York, July 29.—Freddie Welsh showed several thumping good reasons why he is champion lightweight of the world when he licked Benny Leonard at Washington Park, Brooklyn last
for landing in place one at the close
of the season.

The game tomorrow between Montavilla and the Lojus promises good things for the spectators. Ed Kennedy comedian and first baseman, who was a big feature in the battle last Sunday, is again slated to appear in his celebrated character of gloom-dispeller and lightning in-fielder, Kennedy has written to Manager Klett that he has secured Tom O'Brien, who has been in Portland this week, and has secured Tom O'Brien, who has been in gloom of Security.

PROBABLE BRANDEIS WILL HEAD COMMISSION

Expect Carranza to Accept Plan - Justice Brandeis Only Name So Far

Washington, July 29.—Convinced Carranza will accept the United States suggestion, made in Acting Secretary of State Polk's note of yesterday afternoon that the scope of the proposed joint commission inquiry into United States-Mexican relations be broadened so the commission can get to the bottom of the whole trouble, the administration today began in earnest the task of picking the United States members of the commission.

Intimations that Supreme Court Justice Louis D. Brandeis would head the list of the Americans, became stronger. It was even said the matter rested with Brandeis himself to say whether he should take up the work. Brandeis himself to say whether he should take up the work. Germans Execute British Sea Captain

Berlin, via Sayville Wireless, July 27 (delayed)—Captain Charles Fryatt of the British merchant steamer Brussels was executed for a "Franctiers crime" against armed Gorman sea forces on order of a field court of the navy corps, according to official dispatches from Brugge today.

The death sentence was imposed because, although Fryatt did not belong to the British naval forces, on March 28, 1915, near the Maas fireship, he endeavored to ram the German submarine U-33. Fryatt, his first officer, and his first engineer later received
