CHINESE AND JAPS IN PLACE OF STRIKERS

Tells How Restaurant Men Meet Strike

Sau Francisco, Aug. 4. - With a shange in the color schemes of cooks and waiters at some places and the employment of non-union waiters in others, nearly all of the larger restaurants and cafes of the city remained open today in spite of the strike and lockout of union members of culinary crafts. Owners of the enting palaces claimed to have surmounted the difficulties pre-sented by the trouble and to be feeding the thousands of diners out with only slight inconvenience to patrons.

This is strennously denied by the un-ion officials who declare that the ef-fect of their walkout is gradually hav-feet of their walkout is gradually having its effect. Four thousand union cutinary workers are on strike, they declare, and they add that a rapidly increasing number of small cafes and restaurants are signing the union agreement, granting an eight hour day.

Picketing on a large scale continued today. The excitement and merrymaking which attended this work during the first two days of the strike is dying and the third day saw red badged pickets taking up in real earnest the task of tramping the sidewalks in front of boycotted places with their cries of "unfair house."
