

SOCIETY and CLUBS

By ALINE THOMPSON

FROM all parts of the city came the vast throng to attend the opening of "Riverside Dip," the new public bathing beach Tuesday evening. It was a gala inauguration and was thoroughly enjoyed by the huge crowd, which sat about the beach overlooking the river, where a aquatic sports took place during the banal concert.

Pastons of gay colored Japanese lanterns lighted the beach for the occasion and lent a carnival atmosphere to the event.

The beach presages a gay season, as society has announced its particular diversion during the warm weather will be swimming. It is an enchanting sport for a dip and already dozens of devotees have been daily making their way to the beach for a swim in the cool refreshing waters.

Aside from the charming tea given by Mrs. William C. Knighton, Friday, for her house guest, Miss Roselle Crump of Buffalo, and a few small informal affairs to honor other visitors, the al fresco and impromptu gatherings were the order of the week. Society has forsaken the bridge and tea tables for picnics, golf, tennis, swimming and various other out-door sports.

The nearby beach resorts are opening up broad vistas for meriment now that the warm weather is here again and each week end is crowded with jolly house parties.

Newport and Agate Beach have become the mecca for many Salem society folks, in the past few seasons and most every day a number motor over to relax and enjoy their leisure in the fresh sea air.

Judge and Mrs. Henry J. Bean and daughter, Miss Grace Bean, are at their summer cottage, near Newport, where they will spend the month of August. They motored to the shore Thursday and were accompanied by Miss Florence Cleveland, who returned Friday.

Margaret Mason Writes of Gotham Fads and Fashions

By Margaret Mason.
Lecelia travels all the while,
She's never seen at home;
Her travel togs become her
She simply has to roam.

New York, Aug. 4.—Traveling made becoming! That's what the stunning new travel togs for the busy little globe trotter. Hats, coats, veils, bags and boxes, they are all smart as smart can be.

The newest travel coats come in striking shades of tobacco brown, mustard, peacock blue and emerald green and hang voluminously full from narrow shoulders or narrow gorges. High patch pockets are much in evidence and buttons big as silver dollars or even doughnuts. Of a certainty, if your coat is peacock blue your toilette case too must be that hue. These fascinating receptacles, when of the colored leather, are built like small suitcases, but the regular traveling bag shaped ones are all of either dark leather or pig skin and then lined to match your color scheme.

It were easier to enumerate what these Pandora treasure boxes do not contain than what they do. Everything appertaining to a fastidious feminine toilette is there. The complete beauty parlor to be toted at ease by a red cap and be at your service by land or sea as first aids in your capture of all nationalities of male.

There are of course hair brush, comb and mirror; clothes brush, hat brush and nail brush; a complete manicure outfit, an electric curling iron, soap box, tooth brush, case and innum-

A smart event of yesterday and one of the most delightful of the week was the tea for which Mrs. William C. Knighton was hostess in honor of her charming house guest, Miss Roselle Crump of Buffalo, New York. More than 50 attractively gowned matrons and maids called to meet the honored guest, whose visit in the city will be made delightful by numerous little attractions. An artistic arrangement of brilliant-hued garden flowers adorned the drawing room, where Mrs. Knighton, the honor guest and the hostess' mother, Mrs. E. E. Walters received the guests.

In the dining room a huge bowl of fragrant sweet peas and lace ferns surrounded by small silver vases of the same soft colored flowers adorned the prettily-appointed tea table. Mrs. Henry W. Meyers and Mrs. John H. McNary served the ices and Mr. Robert Chauncey Bishop, Mrs. Fred S. Stewart, Mrs. Rollin K. Page, Mrs. George E. Waters, Mrs. Charles L. McNary and Mrs. Fred B. Waters assisted.

Calling during the tea hours were: Mrs. Alice H. Dodd, Mrs. John H. Albert, Mrs. Thomas B. Kay, Mrs. George P. Rodgers, Mrs. Curtis B. Cross, Mrs. Russell Catlin, Mrs. Frank Spears, Mrs. William Lytle, Mrs. Harry E. Clay, Mrs. Jacob Kamm of Portland, Mrs. E. Cooke Patton, Mrs. Henry B. Thibault, Mrs. Joseph Baumgartner, Mrs. Robert J. Hendricks, Mrs. J. A. Wilson, Mrs. Lenta Westcott, Mrs. Gideon Stoltz, Mrs. Fred Wiggins of Toppenish Wash., Mrs. Eugenia Gillingham, Mrs. Frank Davis of California, Mrs. F. A. Elliott, Mrs. William H. Daney, Mrs. John W. Minto, Mrs. Milton L. Meyers, Mrs. Isaac Lee Patterson, Mrs. George G. Brown, Mrs. D. F. Wagner, Mrs. Perry H. Raymond, Mrs. Ada Strong, Mrs. Charles D. Gabrielson, Mrs. Richard Cartwright, Mrs. J. H. Lauterman, Mrs. William H. Burghardt, Mrs. Louis Lachmund, Mrs. Edgar Hartley, Mrs. Herbert Hatch, Miss Margaret Cosper.

Button hook, shoe horn and hairpin erable boxes and jars for coldcream, box also lurk in ambush.

These articles are most adequate in ivory monogrammed or striped in black or gold, but an edition de luxe is exquisite in crystal, gilt and enamel.

There are the complete sewing kits too in either leather or cretonne covered boxes so that you may darn or tat on route and take the famous little stitch in time that saves nine.

For the thrifty travelers who loves to put out a wash in the privacy of her stateroom or hold domicile there is a three pronged electric iron that will turn upside down and let you heat water on it. It is made with a hole in one end where you may heat your curling iron and it all packs up in a small laundress come in either little silk or velvet bag of nine by seven inches.

For further aid to the traveling leather covered envelope cases one half dozen tiny cloths pins, a stout cord wound on a flat card and two glass headed thumb tacks whereon to hang your line.

The wardrobe trunks have reached a pinnacle of excellence which makes them, with their hangers and drawers, as complete as your own closet and dresser at home; and the hat boxes of leather with handles so that they may be carried on your way, or the larger hat trunks fitted with padded head rests for six and eight hats and a tray for your hatpins, gloves and veils, make going away quite as convenient and comfortable as staying at home, and twice as fascinating.

Mrs. Benton Killin, a prominent matron of Portland, who will be the house guest of Mrs. John H. Minto for several days, returned to her home Friday. While in Salem Mrs. Killin was entertained by Mrs. James Withycombe who is also a friend of hers. Although Mrs. Killin's stay in Salem was too brief for any social affairs, her visit here was made delightful by numerous little attentions.

Mrs. Jacob Kamm of Portland, who has been the house guest of Mrs. Harry E. Clay for a few days, will leave tomorrow with Mr. Kamm for a motor trip to Medford.

Mr. Kamm will motor to Salem tonight.

Miss Elizabeth Cox of Pella, Iowa, who has been the house guest of Miss Laura Grant, left Wednesday night for Los Angeles, California. During her visit in Salem Miss Cox was the inspiration for several informal luncheons and gatherings.

One of the affairs in honor of the visitor was the informal afternoon for which the Misses Jennie and Maudie Hollister were hostesses Monday. About a dozen guests were asked to meet Miss Cox.

Tuesday Mrs. Cloyd Raseh gave an attractive luncheon in honor of the visitor and on Wednesday a similar affair was presided over by Mrs. Gordon McGilchrist.

The guests for both of these, including a few of Miss Grant's friends, most of whom entertained Miss Cox during her brief visit in Salem.

Mr. and Mrs. James Chinook have returned from a delightful motor trip to California. En route home Mr. and Mrs. Chinook visited Klamath Falls and Crater Lake. They were away for about three weeks.

Mrs. George G. Bingham will leave Monday with Mr. and Mrs. Keith Powell (Alice Bingham) of Lafayette and their guest, Mrs. Catherine Powell, for a motor trip to Tillamook.

They will visit the various beach resorts and will be away for about ten days.

Dr. and Mrs. Harry Olinger entertained very informally Wednesday evening with an al fresco supper.

The affair was planned as a little attention to Mrs. Olinger's mother, Mrs. D. W. Mathews, and Miss Gertrude Cunningham, who have just returned from a sojourn in California and Ralph Mathews of Martinez, Calif., who accompanied his mother home for a visit.

The guests who were the members of the family and a few intimate friends numbered fourteen. Supper was served on the lawn under the trees.

Mrs. Frank G. Myers and small daughter, Maxine, left today for Newport, where they will be the guests of Mrs. David Eyre, who has taken a cottage at the beach for the season.

Mrs. Thomas B. Kay and daughter, Miss Marjorie Kay, will leave Tuesday for Newport, where they will remain the rest of the season.

Mr. and Mrs. Asahel Bush are enjoying a few days sojourn at Agate Beach. They motored to the shore Wednesday and were accompanied by Melvin Plimpton.

Miss Alice Lupton, head of the ready to wear department of Meyers department store, will leave tonight for San Francisco, Cal., where she will meet representatives of some of the largest manufacturers of women's wearing apparel and will complete purchases of these lines for the fall and winter trade. While in the south Miss Lupton will visit her parents, Mr. and Mrs. Edward Lupton, formerly of this city.

One of the delightful affairs of the week was the garden party for which Mrs. Floyd Utter Mrs. Grover Bellinger and Miss Margaret Graham were hostesses at the residence of the latter on Friday evening to honor Miss Theodosia Bennett, bride-elect.

It was a miscellaneous shower and the guests were mostly the close friends of the honor guest.

The Graham gardens aglow with vivid-hued flowers, were lighted with festoons of electric lamps encased in not colored oriental lanterns.

A pretty artificial lake was arranged on the lawn and during the evening the guests fished for their fortunes. Miss Bennett, who was asked to try her luck last, not only drew out her fortune but an array of attractive and useful gifts.

Miss Bennett has been honored with several charming affairs since the announcement of her engagement and will probably be the motif for other little pre-nuptial attentions.

The wedding will take place on August the 11th.

The guest list included: Mrs. E. A. Bennett, Mrs. George William Gray, Mrs. Roy Shields, Mrs. William Kirk, Mrs. Charles Bates, Mrs. Ray Smith, Mrs. Blanche Liston, Mrs. Roy Abbie, Mrs. Otto Wilson, Mrs. Frederick Thompson, Mrs. Guy Woods, Miss Grace Smith, Miss Mary Pigler, Miss Eugenia Belle, the Misses Lulu, Lina and Laura Heist, Miss Cox, Miss Margaret Gill, Miss Helen Litchfield, the Misses Nellie and Ethel Caschere, Miss Edith Kaneby, the Misses Helen and Dorothy Penrose, Miss Joy Turner, Miss Ethel Swab, the Misses Nellie and Marie Jane Swab, Miss Flora Case, Miss Olive Beckley, Miss Lucile Kuntz, Miss Alice Lupton, Miss Mary Reynolds, Miss Mary Wahn, Miss Magdelaine Kuntz, and Miss Ethel Merriman.

The out of town guests were: Mrs. Carl Hollingsworth of Seattle, Wash.; Mrs. Neal Zimmerman of Portland, Mrs. Edger Martin (Alta Altman) of Berkeley, Cal.; Mrs. Hollister Chamberlin (Olive Metcalf) of Seattle, Mrs. Alfred Beckley of Hood River, and Miss May Hopkins of Portland.

Mr. and Mrs. George Lewis left the middle of the week in their car for a motor trip through California.

Messages of felicitation are being showered upon Mr. and Mrs. Paul Schmidt (Effie Neelham) upon the advent of a daughter, born Friday morning, August 4.

A pretty birthday party was given Villada Ohmart recently at the home of her parents, Mr. and Mrs. Roy V. Ohmart, of Pringle. Games, music and contests made merry the young guests, and later a collation was served.

The tables were prettily adorned with garden flowers, a color scheme of pink and white being carried out in the appointments and decorations. A huge birthday cake surrounded by nine tandles centered the table.

The young folks participating in the gayeties were the Misses Kathleen and Koolind Rogers, Cleo and Ruby Barr, Lillian Lawrence, Pearl Scott, Martha Prothero, Alice and Kathleen Lowmes, Marie and Dorothy Schoffer, Phyllis and Virginia Best, Elsie Tompkins, Lu Ohmart, Elaine Stringrabe, and Howard Stringrabe and Grover Robertson.

The mothers and other guests presided were: Mrs. E. H. Prothero, Mrs. L. J. Lofns, Miss Robertson, Mrs. A. C. Steingrabe, and Mrs. Ohmart.

Mrs. Gerald Volk and her house guests, Mrs. Marjorie McCabe, Mrs. H. R. Allen and Mrs. Ruth Perkins of Wichita, Kansas, are enjoying a weeks sojourn at Newport.

The home of Mr. and Mrs. E. C. Derriek was the scene of an enjoyable party Friday afternoon, when a number of friends gathered to celebrate the anniversary of Mrs. Derriek's birthday. The refreshment table was centered with colorful flowers.

Those present were: Mrs. D. W. Wicklander, Mrs. R. H. Callahan, Mrs. N. V. VanBibber, Mrs. Bert Thompson, Mrs. J. H. Derriek, Mrs. H. Parrish and the Misses Pearl Browne and Detonia Barnes.

Miss Ida Simmons went to Portland today and will be the week end guest of Mrs. Norman Courtney (Emmaline Kline).

A group of Salem folks who made up a party and motored to Cascadia mineral springs for a little outing were: Mr. and Mrs. Philip Fisher, Mr. and Mrs. Jacob Doerfler, Mr. and Mrs. Ben Hofstetter, Mr. and Mrs. James Darby, Mr. and Mrs. Joseph Doerfler.

Motoring is more popular than ever this season and scarcely a day passes by that trips are not being planned or taken to the various beaches and outing places.

Today a party including Mr. and Mrs. W. G. Allen and children and Mr. Allen's mother of Eugene, who is spending the summer in Salem, Mr. and Mrs. F. A. Elliott and their guest, Miss Ethel of Newberg, left for a motor trip to Tillamook.

Mrs. Paul Hauser and small son, Paul Jr., who have been sojourning for the past two weeks at Newport returned yesterday.

Mrs. S. C. Dyer has gone to Agate Beach, where she will linger for several days as the guest of her daughter-in-law, Mrs. W. Connell Dyer, who, with her small son "Billy", is sum-mering there.

Mrs. W. Melvin Plimpton and children, Sherman and Janet, are now at West Lake visiting Mrs. Plimpton's parents, Mr. and Mrs. H. G. Campbell. They left the middle of the week and will pass the remainder of the summer at the beach.

Mr. Plimpton will join his family later in the season.

Going Calling.
Wisteria taffeta, one of the new fall shades, gives this smart trotteur for between seasons. The skirt is side plaited and rather long, while the plain bodice has white organza collar and vestee. What gives the costume distinction is the velvet girdle trimmed with cube buttons to match those on the cuffs.

Informal yet charming was the Kensington for which Mrs. Curtis B. Cross was hostess Wednesday afternoon to honor three attractive Portland visitors, Mrs. Harbour, Miss Lois Fear and Miss Helen Whitney. About a dozen of the younger matrons and maids were guests, a few of which called at the tea hour.

An array of bright yellow garden flowers were used about the rooms and also to adorn the tea table.

Miss Hazel Downing has gone to Neskovin, where she will be the guest of Mrs. Ralph Jackson (Mande Durbin) who is passing the summer with her parents, Mr. and Mrs. Frank Durbin.

An informal and delightful affair of last week was a surprise al fresco shower for which Miss Adelta Nye and Miss Helen Parrar were hostesses, honoring Miss Isobelle McGilchrist, bride-elect.

The guests who were mostly the close friends of the honor guest gathered at the home of Miss Farrar, from where they were taken by the hostesses to "Camp Rest-a-While" in a beautiful woods south of the city. Indian robes were arranged about the grounds and comfortable hammocks were stretched under the trees. The afternoon was devoted to fancy work. Later the party closed with a picnic supper.

The honor guest was showered with charming gifts, which were received at the close of the supper, when she was presented with a huge basket labeled desert.

Those enjoying the afternoon besides the honor guest were: Miss Irma Botsford, Miss Olive Beckley, Mrs. James Elton (Florence Churchill), Miss Bernice Clark, Miss Marie Schwab, Miss Hazel Keeler, Miss Lyla Miles, Mrs. Herschel Powers (Lucile Staley), Miss Marie Churchill, Miss Lucile Kuntz, Miss Bertha Clark, Miss Nellie Schwab, Miss Constance Cartwright, Miss Beryl Holt, Miss Mae Stoussoff, Mrs. D. RILEY, POET OF PEOPLE, MOURNED BY "COMMON FOLK" FOR WHOM HE WROTE

THE LATE POET AND TWO OF HIS YOUNG FRIENDS

"James Whitcomb Riley was loved by the people of Indiana as no other man," wrote Governor Bristow, of Indiana, after the sudden death of the well beloved poet. "In an exceptionally tender sense the people of his native state believed that he belonged to them, and they mourn—bitterly mourn—his passing. As governor of Indiana I am anxious that the people be afforded an opportunity to show the high respect in which they held 'this man who sang of common things,' and I am moved therefore to suggest that his remains be allowed to lie in state in the rotunda of the capitol." Arrangements were made for the burial of Riley's body in Crown Hill cemetery, near Indianapolis, relatives feeling that Mr. Riley should be buried where the public might easily visit his grave. Thousands of persons silently passed the Riley home in Indianapolis, while many closer friends of the poet entered the home to view the body.

The Raggedy Man

By James Whitcomb Riley.

O the Raggedy Man! He works for Pa;
An' he's the goodest man ever you saw!
He comes to our house every day;
An' waters the horses, an' feeds 'em hay;
An' he opens the shed—an' we all let laugh
When he drives out our little old wobbly calf;
An' nen—of our hired girl says he can—
He milks the cow fer 'Lizabuth Ann—
Ain't he a' awful good Raggedy Man!
Raggedy! Raggedy! Raggedy Man!

W'y, The Raggedy Man—he's ist so good
He splits the kindlin' an' chops the wood;
An' nen he spades in our garden, too,
An' does most things 'at boys can't do—
He climbed clean up in our big tree
An' shooked a' apple down fer me—
An' nother'n, too, fer 'Lizabuth Ann—
An' nother'n, too, fer The Raggedy Man—
Ain't he a' awful kind Raggedy Man!
Raggedy! Raggedy! Raggedy Man!

An' The Raggedy Man, he knows most rymes
An' tells 'em of I be good, sometimes;
Knows 'bout Guints, an' Griffuns, an' Elves,
An' the Squidgicun-Squeezes 'at swallers themselves!
An' wite by the pump in our pasture-lot,
He showed me the hole 'at the Wunn's is got,
'At lives 'way deep in the ground, an' can
Tara into me, fer 'Lizabuth Ann—
Ain't he a' funny old Raggedy Man?
Raggedy! Raggedy! Raggedy Man!

The Raggedy Man—one time when he
Was makin' a little bow-'n-'orry fer me,
Says, "When you're big like your Pa is,
Ain't you go' to keep a fine store like his—
An' be rich merchant—an' wear fine clothes!—
Er what air you go' to be, goodness knows!"
An' nen he laughed at 'Lizabuth Ann—
An' I says, "I'm go' to be a Raggedy Man!
I'm ist go' to be a nice Raggedy Man!"
Raggedy! Raggedy! Raggedy Man!
