—J. F. Walters and family.

During the month of August 1 year ago not a drop of rain fell on Salem, according to the weather report at the O. C. T. dock and so far this month the same has happened again. What we intended to say was that the river fell just one inch yesterday and that it is .8 of a foot above the low water mark. The climate continues satisfactory as the maximum yesterday was 78 and the lowest during the night, 57 degrees above.

INJUNCTION NEARLY PERMANENT
The suit of Frank Ward against the city came up for hearing this morning before Judge Galloway. This is the injunction suit brought to enjoin the city from purchasing a paving plant. The records of the case show that it has "hung fire" pretty badly. The complaint was filed and temporary injunction issued May 19. Demurrer filed May 31. This was argued and overruled June 13, and defendant given seven days to answer and plaintiff five days to reply. The answer was filed June 22. Motion to set case for hearing made by city July 22. No action. Motion for judgment in pleadings filed August 3; overruled without argument, August 5. Reply filed over strenuous objections by defendant. Case set for hearing August 29. Three months have elapsed since injunction was issued and this important case to the city still drags. This morning City Attorney Macey and Judge McNary who appears for the plaintiff had a war of words that came near ending in blows.

There is still a sign in the window of a bakery in Salem to the effect that three loaves of bread may be had for 10 cents notwithstanding the fact that yesterday Chicago bakeries announced that a fair sized loaf of bread in that city would sell for 10 cents on account of the radical advance in the price of flour.

Dr. Stone makes no charge for consultation, examination or prescription.
The business men of Independence are so much interested in the special excursion to Marshfield Aug. 25 that the soliciting committee were informed yesterday that Independence would possibly need a special car. The soliciting committee composed of E. L. Billingsley, chairman, Fred S. Ryan, Wm. Gahlsdorf and Wm. McElchrist, Jr., after a visit at Independence yesterday, went to Dallas where they found members of the Commercial club greatly interested in the Coos bay celebration. Next week the soliciting committee will visit Silverton, Woodburn, Gervais and Mt. Angel to secure the names of those who will go with the Salem special and arrange for their reservations. In going to Marshfield, the trip will be made by way of Independence, Dallas and Corvallis to Eugene, with the return trip Sunday morning, August 27 over the main line.

CHIROPRACTIC IS THE MASTER SYSTEM
If your spine is right, you are right. Those who have tried every old method and found no relief should try Chiropractic and get well. Many hundreds of grateful patients in Salem and elsewhere can substantiate my statements. Six adjustments will be given for the small fee of $5.00. Difficult cases, which require X-ray examinations and Spynographs can obtain them at a nominal fee. Only expert Spynograph work. A talk with the old Chiropractor may lead you to health and happiness; act now.
