Candidate Hughes will receive the police protection usually accorded a president when he arrives here tomorrow. A squad of plain clothes men were ordered today to mingle with the crowds in the line of parade and arrest suspicious characters. A cleanup was begun today of the big crowd that will be drawn to the loop by Hughes. A special detail of detectives will meet the candidate's party and remain with it all the time it is here. With the arrival of Wilcox, the advance guard of the democrats made his entry into Chicago almost simultaneously. Senator Thomas Walsh of Montana, arrived here today and put up at the Blackstone hotel shortly before Wilcox registered. He will confer with the national democratic leaders here tomorrow. Big Crowd Greets Him. Detroit, Mich., Aug. 7. - Charles Evans Hughes arrived in Detroit early today on the first lap of his trans-continental tour and amid the reverberation of bombs, the blare of hand music and vigorous hand clapping on the part of a few hundred people assembled at the Michigan Central depot. The special train bearing the republican nominee and party was about 20 minutes late in to Detroit.

Although there were but few outbreaks of cheering along the line of parade from the station to the hotel Pontchartrain the demonstration was remarkable in the size of the crowd that lined the route of the procession. The candidate, seated in an automobile with Mrs. Hughes, rode from station to hotel with hat in hand, smilingly acknowledging the greetings from the crowds. Hughes' two addresses tonight will be the first stump speeches of the actual campaign. Shortcomings of the democratic administration, it was learned today will be the big theme of these addresses. The governor is expected to concentrate his attack on the president's Mexican policy, but in addition will touch upon the tariff and foreign relations, enlarging and expanding his address of acceptance of the nomination.

Formation of a republican advisory committee which, with Chairman Wilcox will be in direct charge of the republican campaign, will be announced within a few days, it was learned. The committee will be entirely separate and distinct from the republican nomination committee and from the campaign committee recently formed.

The advisory committee will consist of from five to nine members and three of the places already have been tentatively assigned. The men already selected are William Loeb, former secretary to Colonel Roosevelt; George B. Cortelov, also a former secretary to the colonel and Charles D. Hillis, formerly William Howard Taft's secretary. The complete personnel of the committee will be announced within a few days.

Hughes is taking a very personal interest in the matter of the selection of a vice-chairman of the national committee, to be in charge of the western headquarters at Chicago and it is likely that he will confer with Chairman Wilcox and other leaders on this subject in Chicago. No announcement of the candidates own preference for this job has been forthcoming, but it is said that A. T. Hurt, of Kentucky, is being seriously considered.

According to the annual report of county superintendent E. J. Moore, which was filed recently with state superintendent J. A. Churchill, Lane county has 11,721 children of school age. They are about evenly divided between boys and girls. The teachers' registers show that 158 children in Lane county are under six years and 43 are over 20 years of age. The greatest number of pupils are between the ages of 14 and 20 years.

Lane county has 196 school districts, the largest number of any county in the state. Seven of these are union high school districts, and 156 have only one teacher. Last year 445 teachers were employed in that county, 82 of whom were men. Eight new schools were built last year.

The following prices for fruits and vegetables are those asked by the wholesaler of the retailer, and not what is paid to the producer. All other prices are those paid the producer. Corrections are made daily.

Eggs are holding strong at 25 cents cash and 25 cents in trade. One or two houses paid 24 cents cash Saturday to fill their special orders. The Portland highest price is 25 cents. Veal is in good demand at 10 and 10 1/2 cents. Another car of the fine Turlock cantaloupes arrived this morning with a wholesale price of $1.50 and $1.75. Sugar is down 20 cents, bringing the price of cane sugar to 85.05 and beet 88.45. It appears that the women of the country played a hand against the sugar refiners and won by refusing to do much canning with sugar so close to the nine cent mark. Anyhow, the unheard of thing happened, that of a reduction in the price of sugar in the midst of the canning season.
