Scotts Mills

(Capital Journal Special Service) Scotts Mills, Aug. 9.—J. E. Coulson while hauling hay met with a serious accident. His load upset and Fr. Coulson was thrown violently against the wheel of his wagon and then to the ground. Dr. Hume was summoned immediately, and after an examination said no bones were broken and, as far as he could tell, no serious internal injury. After administering a hypodermic to lessen the severe pain, which Mr. Coulson was suffering, the doctor thought, with other remedies given he would recover. Mr. Coulson is still confined to the house.

The Scotts Mills W. C. T. U. held a pantry sale the past Saturday at Mr. Broughers store. Netting quite a little sum of money with which to replenish their treasury. Mrs. Lila Purnell and little daughter, who have been making an extended visit to her parents, Prof. and Mrs. Willis, of this place, returned to her home in Medford this week. Mrs. Reiling and Mrs. Charley Scherbaach both of Mt. Angel, visited Mrs. W. H. Commons one day this week. They came over in Mrs. Reiling's auto. Rev. and Mrs. Pemberton and family who have been camping for an outing at their ranch south of town, have returned to their home in Salem. Charlie White will finish picking his logan berries today. The W. C. T. U. met at Mrs. Nellie Coulson's last week. Subject, "Sabbath Observance," conducted by the superintendent of that department, Mrs. H. B. Coulson. There was a good attendance and a profitable time. Mr. and Mrs. Kelsey are making an extended stay at Wilhoit. Mr. Kelsey is helping rebuild the hotel there which was recently destroyed by fire. Mrs. Newberry and family from Salem are visiting with Mrs. Tom Dunagan this week.

Mrs. Beachy of Ocean Park, Hasting-ton, is at present visiting with Mr. and Mrs. Worden. A session of Mr. Worden's with his wife and children are also visiting Mr. Worden's. They are from eastern Oregon. Mr. Worden has been taking them around to various places of interest in his auto. Miss Gladys Kelsey is attending normal school at Oregon City. She expects to teach school in Clackamas county this coming winter. A letter from Almond Rich says they have arrived safe at their former home in North Dakota and that the crops there are looking well, since writing the above news has come of the great hail storm which has destroyed so much of the wheat of that region. John Kellis of the Kellis hotel, had the misfortune to break one of the tires of his automobile while coming from Mt. Angel, fortunately he was going quite slowly at the time so no one was hurt. Mrs. Persey's brother from Falls City is here visiting and looking at the country. He expects to locate here. Everybody works in this locality—even father with his haying and harvesting and preparing for the harvesting of the prunes this fall, there are many orchardists washing their young prune trees, the trunks and limbs up to where the leaves start, with a preparation of white wash and carbolic acid. This is to prevent the deadly work of the Shot Hole Borer. Master John and Harvey Brougher are working the Taylor orchards with this preparation.

BILL WILL PERMIT BOYS OF 18 TO ENLIST

Conferees Agree On Appropriation Bill and Reduce Enlistment Age

Washington, Aug. 9.—The house this afternoon accepted the conferees' report on the army bill, appropriating $297,000,000 for national defense on land and lowering the age of enlistment in regular army and national guard from 21 to 18.

The law will empower the United States to enlist into military service boys under 21 without the consent of or against the protest of their parents.

The bill if it becomes law, will permit boys of 18 to enlist in either the regular army or the guard.

Senator LaFollette today drafted a bill which he says not only will prevent such enlistments but which will make criminal a misrepresentation by recruiting officers in obtaining enlistments.

The president has indicated he would sign the army bill as accepted by the conferees.

Sisters recently held in Portland. Mrs. Barzee is at the home of her friend, Mrs. Potter, in Salem. Mrs. H. L. Earl is spending her vacation at the coast.

Bert Wagner and family left for a visit with relatives on the coast Monday. Mr. W. G. Smith will carry the mail for Mr. Wagner.

Miss Goldin Witzel spent a few days with her aunt, Mrs. Mary Barr.

Miss Alice and Kate Riches were calling on friends on Fifth and Sixth streets Saturday.

Mrs. B. Long and children, Hazel, Melvin and Kenneth, and Miss Hazel Custelo spent all day Friday with Mrs. L. D. Barr.

John Farris of this place, but formerly of Chilowis, Va., has a position with Vick Bros., in Salem. Mr. Farris moved his family to Salem on Tuesday of this week.

John Watson, Sr., one of the Turner flax growers, made a business trip to Salem Tuesday.

Mrs. J. F. Lyle returned last week from a visit at Lapwix, Idaho, also Pullman, Wash. After removing the dust from her trip Mrs. Lyle went to Portland to attend the millinery opening.

Work of installing flax mill machinery has begun in the old Turner Lumber company building.

Mrs. P. S. Wolf and children spent the weekend in Turner.

Mrs. Mattie Morris left Saturday for a few weeks' visit at the farm home of Oscar Morris, near Dallas.

Brooks Items

(Capital Journal Special Service) Brooks, Ore., Aug. 9.—A family dinner was held by the Lake Labish people Sunday, August 7, in the Lebanon grove in honor of Mr. S. L. Peck and Mr. Schyler Kitchinger, it being their birthday. A bounteous dinner was served, everyone having a delightful time. About 25 were present. The guests from Salem were Mr. and Mrs. Johnson and Mr. and Mrs. Schyler Kitchinger.

Loganberry picking is most over, some yards having finished yesterday and some will finish today.

Mrs. W. R. Jones passed away at her home south of Brooks Monday afternoon. Her death came as a shock to the community. She leaves a husband and five children to mourn her loss, besides
