

SOCIETY

Portland society has but a single thought today, and that thought is "Veda the Vampire," which will be screened this evening at the Majestic theatre. Though the Society Movie was initially presented last evening, Monday has been designated as the first big society night. The cast has been working strenuously for many weeks, under the able direction of Ford Tarpley, to put forth a finished product. Many of the society buds, belles and beaux, who are the stars of the film, have had to postpone all manner of vacations, until now, and as a result are flocking back from coast and mountain resorts to thrill over the various scenes as they are flashed on the screen tonight. The scenario is a mild burlesque of the regulation Vampire plot and features as heroine Miss Helen Ladd, the bride and Ferdinand Smith, the bridegroom, and Veda, the villainess, as done by Ford Tarpley.

Numbers of prominent Portland people will entertain in lodges, among whom are Mrs. Helen Ladd Corbett, Miss Failing, Mrs. I. G. Edwards, Mrs. E. C. Shevlin, Mrs. A. E. Rokey, Mrs. Henry Ladd Corbett. The proceeds will be for the Peoples' Institute of Portland, Ford Tarpley, a former Salem resident, and the grandson of Mr. and Mrs. H. C. Tarpley, may go to San Francisco shortly, where, it is rumored, he has been asked to direct a similar Society Movie in the southern metropolis.

Tentative plans are under way for featuring "Veda the Vampire" in Salem.

Senator and Mrs. C. P. Bishop left today for Yellowstone Park for a short stay, from where they will go directly to Pendleton, Oregon, and will arrive in Salem about the twenty-fourth or fifth of August. The Bishops will bring home as their guest, Mrs. Spannor of New York. Mrs. Spannor has just resigned as head of the blanket department of the House of Hearn and company, New York, where she has been for twenty-eight years. This company is the largest blanket concern in New York, and Mrs. Spannor, who is an expert in that line, was sent to Austria every year by the firm to inspect the blanket industry of that country. She plans to visit the blanket factories of the west, and Senator and Mrs. Bishop feel very fortunate in having been able to induce Mrs. Spannor to return with them.

Larry Hofer and Fred Slade motored down from Salem and pitched a camp among the picturesque pines on the road to Cannon Beach. They said, in spite of the dampness, they were having the time of their lives; and their big blue car is the star of all eyes. Mrs. C. B. Sears entertained them with a dinner Monday night. Circled about the table were Charles Benedict, Miss Dorothea Wagner, Larry Hofer, Fred Slade and the hostess.—Oregon Journal

RECOVERY OF NEW JERSEY WOMAN

Due To Lydia E. Pinkham's Vegetable Compound.

Bridgeton, N. J.—"I cannot speak too highly of Lydia E. Pinkham's Vegetable Compound for inflammation and other weaknesses. I was very irregular and would have terrible pains so that I could hardly take a step. Sometimes I would be so miserable that I could not sweep a room. I doctored part of the time but felt no change. I later took Lydia E. Pinkham's Vegetable Compound and felt a change for the better after the second day. I took it until I was in a good healthy condition. I recommend the Pinkham remedies to all women as I have used them with good results."—Mrs. MILDRED T. CUMMINGS, 24 New Street, Bridgeton, N. J.

Such testimony should be accepted by all women as convincing evidence of the excellence of Lydia E. Pinkham's Vegetable Compound as a remedy for the distressing ills of women such as displacements, inflammation, ulceration, backache, painful periods, nervousness and kindred ailments.
