Prince Albert is made by a patented process that cuts out bite and parch and lets men smoke pipe-full after pipe-full or the makin's until the gong sounds, without a kick back or a complaint!

PRINCE ALBERT

the national joy smoke

Copyright 1916 by R. J. Reynolds Tobacco Co.

Buy Prince Albert everywhere tobacco is sold. Tasty red bags, 5c; tins, 10c; hand-some round and half-pound tin humidors—and in that fine crystal-glass pound humidors with sponge-moistener top that keeps the tobacco in such splendid condition—always!

So it's up to every red-blooded man to jump the boundary line between himself and smoke happiness and know just what all this jimmy-pipe-joy-talk is about!

Men all over the world are today smoking Prince Albert because it meets their taste; because it gives them real tobacco enjoyment they have never found before!

Don't you realize that if Prince Albert, in a few years, has made three men smoke pipes where one was smoked before, it certainly has the call on you—at least for a try-out!

Why, that's only being fair to yourself!

MAY CONVERT COURT AS WELL AS THE JURY

Dr. Newo Newi New Peddles His Literature But Attorneys Are Immune

San Francisco, Aug. 23.—"Dr." Newo Newi New is on trial for using the mails to defraud, but with the continuation of the defense today, it begins to look as though the members of the federal district court jury hearing the case will have to become members of New's "New Thought" church and thereby attain immortality of the body in order to remain on the terrestrial sphere long enough to finish hearing the testimony and arrive at a verdict. A copy of "Newology, the New Bible" and "New Thought Science" has been given to each juror and in addition, there are scores of other books by New and other exponents of similar doctrines introduced by the defense.

New has gathered together his disciples, and these, taking all the time the court will allow are expounding their doctrine until the courtroom atmosphere is more like an experience meeting than a criminal trial.

All these witnesses insist that they believe in immortality of the body. When H. A. Bayne, a New Thought lecturer was asked why he wore glasses, he replied that he could cure his optic trouble if he wished, but preferred to spend his time seeking to convert such men as the prosecuting attorney to New Thoughtism. Just why Rev. W. A. Mansfield, a former Baptist minister, believes he will never die, the jury will have to learn at a later date, when they have plenty of spare time. He asked to be allowed to give a three hour discourse, claiming it was his "divine right" but Federal Judge Dooling suggested that he "hire a hall." Many of the witnesses were well toward senility. They declared their unflinching faith in New Thought and explained their aged appearance by stating that they have not yet attained the perfection of New, a bald blonde giant who insists he is 90 years old.

New's bible states that the time is coming when lack of hair upon the heads of both men and women will be criterion of their spiritual and mental immortality. It declares that women, after newology gives them power to wash away every sin, will retain their youth and beauty forever, growing more beautiful every day.

Want Grant Lands Placed On Tax Roll

A committee composed of D. B. McKnight of Linn county, Charles L. McNary of Marion county, and L. E. Benn of Lane county, appeared before the state tax commission yesterday with a request that the grant lands recently taken back by the federal government be put on the assessment rolls this year. Compliance with this request would necessitate the recalling of instructions sent out by the tax commission to assessors that the grant lands be left off the rolls. But three members of the commission were present, Secretary of State O'Leary, Treasurer Kay and C. N. Galloway. No decision was made in the matter. The tax commission has been asked to attend a meeting at Eugene next Monday night, when the question is to be gone into thoroughly.

Says Crops Are Wonderful

W. C. Wilkes, assistant general freight and passenger agent of the S. P. & S., has just concluded a tour of the Willamette valley by automobile, visiting every town on the Oregon Electric lines, and he is of the opinion that this season's crops are the best he has ever seen.

"Other than hops, prunes, clover seed and oats, only a very small part of the crops has been marketed," he says. "It is difficult to sell potatoes at a profit in California. Willamette valley's best market. Hops are in first class condition and the yield will be from 20,000 to 25,000 hales over last year, and while opening prices are low, growers are not discouraged.

"One of the bright outlooks is in loganberries. Indications are that more than 750,000 gallons of the berry juice will be shipped to coast and eastern markets by January 1 of next year.

"Dairying has increased 100 per cent in Willamette valley in the last two years. Farmers are thoroughly aroused to the advantage of fewer and better cows for production of cream, butter and cheese. Hogs and other livestock are increasing rapidly, keeping pace with the greater yield of corn and clover planted to bring the soil back to its former fertility."

Army Appropriation Bill Goes to President

Senator Underwood's amendment providing that no one under twenty-one years should be allowed to enlist without consent of his parents, was beaten 23 to 23.

EDDIE MAHAN WILL COACH U. OF C. TEAM

Expect to Show Football Players the Winning Tricks of the Game

By H. C. Hamilton
(United Press staff correspondent)
New York, Aug. 23.—Eddie Mahan, last year's captain of the Harvard football team, and the man who shattered the dream of victory for Yale, left today for Berkeley, Cal., where he expects to show young backfield players on the eleven of the University of California how he did it back east.

Mahan has been in the political game this summer, working for the democratic party in the Woodrow Wilson Independent League. He believes football is going to be a little more strenuous this year, but doubts whether it will be much of a change except in the climate.

Mahan expects to be placed in full charge of the backfield men by head coach Amy Smith, a former Pennsylvania man. He told the United Press before starting on his westward journey that it is his opinion California wants to combine Harvard backfield tactics with Smith's strategy.

This is California's second year in football since its return to the game from Rugby, which has been played there for several years. Consequently California players, while not actual rookies, have many of the finer points of the game to learn. Mahan said he expects to have little trouble in giving instruction in the Harvard scientific method. The Harvard star had a chance to get a glimpse of many California athletes when that school sent a team of track and field athletes east a year ago. He found them big and brawny with plenty of natural ability.

Speaking of this class of material, he declared he expects to pick out a good backfield.

Mahan has been one of the most popular football players who ever wore the Crimson and his success as a coach will be closely watched by football followers in the east. Likewise, the acquisition of an eastern university star by a coast university as a coach probably will have some effect in increasing the importance of the game on the coast.

COOK BY WIRE! IT'S A SNAP!

Cook by wire! Nix on the fire! Fire went out of date, my dear, when Billy Sunday discovered water. What year do you think this is—1900? How silly! Don't you know this is the age when a taxi is born every minute, ships at sea have arguments while three thousand miles apart and musical shows only carry three or four wardrobe trunks? Fancy!

We're not cooking any longer with wood, ashes, dirty kitchens, coal, gasoline, Roman candle matches, wood, smoke nor ranges which make you as hot as Helene, the Russian queen of 411 C. O. D.

Wood is now being used for cafe tables, coal is sold exclusively to Central Stations, gas has all it can do to take care of political speeches and gasoline is so expensive that only kings and waiters can afford to cook with it. Smoke, fumes, sooty pots and the other old fashioned things have been laid on the shelf with bicycles, suspenders and William Jennings Bryan. Why, woman, this is 1916! Today electric range and aeroplane factories employ three shifts! Yesterday 90,000 hamlets were "killed" in a movie war! Real sharks are pulling the resorters' legs at Atlantic City this year! This is 1916!

The electric range is fascinating, chummy, homey, Utopian and every other fancy adjective you can think of! It is guaranteed to remove work, worry and widowhood and make Monday morning seem like Saturday afternoon—with birdies singing in the tree tops.

Electric cooking is delicious, fattening, eugenic, god-like, ferocious and ten times better than mother used to make. In fact, some women are so crazy about it that the sale of canned sardines dropped from $18 to 18 cents in one town in one week. Name on request? Lykelle!

Order your electric range now! It will put your favorite dream of heaven in the piker class! Don't worry about the price! Papa will settle if you know how to work it! The scheme—not the range! As Woodrow Wilson says, "Write today!"
