

SOCIETY

Keen regret is being felt by the hosts of friends of W. T. Slater at their decision to move to Portland, where they will locate permanently, joining Judge Slater, who has been associated with attorney John Manning of Portland for the past two years. The Slaters will reside at 768 Marshall street, near the Good Samaritan hospital, where Miss Lillian Slater is in training. Miss Lela Slater will continue with her music. Mrs. Slater and her daughter plan to leave on Monday. The family will be keenly missed in local society circles, having resided in Salem many years. Mrs. Russell Carter will entertain informally tomorrow afternoon, honoring Mrs. Slater.

Mr. and Mrs. Chaucery Bishop and sons, Robert Gauncey and Charles Kay, motored home yesterday from Agate Beach, where they passed the week end.

Mr. and Mrs. S. M. Endicott entertained at dinner Tuesday night, at their home on Church street, honoring Mrs. H. B. Allen of Wichita, Kansas. Covers were laid for five, besides the hosts. Those circling the table were Mrs. Allen, Mr. and Mrs. Gerald Volk, and Mr. and Mrs. S. S. East.

Miss Edith Carter Kunev will leave tomorrow morning for Spokane, where she will have charge of the Spanish department in the Lewis and Clark high school the coming winter. En route, Miss Kunev will visit friends in Tacoma and Seattle, arriving in Spokane for the beginning of the fall term, early in September.

C. D. Gabrielson left this morning for Imperial Beach, where he will visit his son, Corporal Carl Gabrielson of Company M. Mr. Gabrielson will be gone two weeks, making San Diego his headquarters, during his stay at the border.

Miss Minnetta Magers returned yesterday afternoon from a ten days visit in Portland at the home of her brother, Judge J. E. Magers. During her stay, Miss Magers took a number of delightful sightseeing trips to interesting points in the vicinity of Portland.

In compliment to Miss Anne Shannon Monroe, authoress, Mrs. Edgar H. Piper entertained at dinner last night. Covers were laid for Miss Monroe, Mr. and Mrs. Thomas Carrick Burke, Miss Myrtle Gram, Tom Dobson, John Logan, Mr. and Mrs. Piper and members of the family.—Oregonian.

Mr. and Mrs. Curtis Cross and children motored home last evening from a two weeks outing at Neshewa.

Mr. and Mrs. Raymond Chapler are being felicitated upon the arrival of a daughter yesterday at the Salem hospital, to be named Marguerite Jane. Mrs. Chapler before her marriage, was Miss Marguerite Ostrander.

Guests at the home of Mr. and Mrs. James T. Chinook are, Mr. Chinook's mother, Mrs. Elizabeth Chinook, his sister, Mrs. G. W. Evans, and her husband, accompanied by their daughter, Miss Marie Evans. The party motored up from Portland for a few days visit.

Henry Moody, Miss Ella Moody and Mrs. S. W. Selee of Hanson avenue, accompanied by Mrs. N. T. Haller, have returned from a delightful motoring trip up the Columbia Highway. Starting from Portland, the party spent the night at Cascade Rock, returning the following morning. Stops were made at various points of interest along the highway, including Horseshall Falls, Wahkema Falls, Shepherd's Dell, Cloud Cap Inn, Crown Point, and Multnomah Falls. They motored home by way of the Pacific Highway.

Miss Althea Anderson returned some yesterday after spending a few days in Portland visiting with friends.

The seventieth birthday anniversary of R. R. Ryan was celebrated yesterday at his home, east of Salem. A large number of friends, including members of the G. A. Joseph and Josephine Musbaum returned home Saturday after a five weeks visit with their grand mother, Mrs. J. E. Whitehead of Portland.

Mr. and Mrs. I. O. Curriass and Mr. and Mrs. J. S. Austin and children, Harriet and Florence, returned yesterday from a most enjoyable two weeks trip to Crater Lake. The party went by way of Eugene, Medford and Roseburg, returning on the eastern route via The Dalles, Hood River and the Columbia Highway.

SCHUMANN-HEINKE AT MOUNT ANGEL

World's Greatest Contralto Will Sing There on Sept. Twenty-Ninth

Madame Schumann-Heinke, the world's greatest contralto, who paid a visit last Tuesday evening to Mt. Angel college, Oregon, will be present at the Rev. Prior's jubilee September 29, and sing. This will be a rare opportunity for our local people to see and hear this distinguished and celebrated diva and also to inspect one of our great institutions of learning in the west. Salem people are cordially invited to come.

The madame, in speaking of the college and the curriculum, said: "This is the real piece for the boy; excellent instruction, beautiful grounds and buildings unsurpassable." Schumann-Heinke was surprised and pleased at the wonderful course in music offered to the student and said: "I would urge all boys to come here."

Mt. Angel college opens September 15, and already students are registering in increased numbers and the outlook for another successful year is very flattering.

RUMORED BREMEN IS NEARING NEW YORK

Officer of Line Says She Will Reach American Port in Few Days

New York, Aug. 24.—Belief that the German submarine Bremen, sister ship of the Deutschland, is now within a few days of New York was strengthened today by reports from Berlin and Copenhagen and renewed actively by her agents on this side of the water.

An officer of the Ocean company, operating the Atlantic submarine line, told the German correspondents today that the Bremen would arrive at an American port within a few days. It was reported from Berlin that her departure was delayed until her owners had positive word that the Deutschland had eluded the patrol of allied warships, off Chesapeake Bay.

Paul G. Hilken, American representative of the Ocean company, left Baltimore today for New York. At the same time the North German Lloyd liner Willehad slipped out of Boston harbor where she has been voluntarily interned to escape capture, bound presumably for the port of New London, Conn., where it is generally believed the Bremen will dock.

Many shipping men here believe the Bremen will enter New York harbor. Close watch has been kept for her arrival for several days. No convoy was requested by the North German Lloyd officials for the Willehad and the Charleston navy yard knew nothing of her departure until she was well down the harbor.

Along the waterfront it is believed the maneuver of the Willehad is to act as a screen or protection for the Bremen, if that much talked of submarine arrives within the three mile limit off the New England coast. At the North German Lloyd pier during the preparations for the departure, the trip to New London was freely discussed by the sailors.

Reunited Party Is Myth Says McCormick

Chicago, Aug. 24.—"The reunited republican party is a myth. Mr. Hughes cannot reconcile the elements. They don't fit in with his creators," said Vance McCormick, chairman of the national democratic committee on his arrival here from the east for a conference with western democratic leaders. McCormick made this statement when asked if he believed "the progressives are going back to the old party."

He said running President Wilson's campaign for re-election was a snap in comparison to the job of running one for Hughes.

HIGH COST OF LIVING IS NOT HERE TO STAY

Prices Due to War or "Supply and Demand" Packers Make Meats High

Washington, Aug. 24.—The super-high cost of living is not here to stay, is purely commercial and readily traceable to the basic laws of the supply and demand. This was the statement today of Leon M. Estabrook, chief of the United States bureau of crop estimates, authority on food supplies.

While the prices of food should be properly expected to advance commensurate with the rising prosperity of the country to keep pace with the general rise in prices on all commodities, the present abnormal prices on many food staples will adjust themselves with another season, Estabrook said.

Soaring prices of grain, he said, are directly due to the falling off in production in almost every class, taken in connection with the bumper outputs of the past two years.

The sudden decrease in production this year has naturally sent prices skyward. The jump in the price of beans from five cents last year to 11 cents now is another example, Estabrook said of increased demand from the armies in Europe and the Mexican border, with curtailed production, due to unfavorable weather conditions.

Prices on vegetables are purely seasonal and local he said. The season of 1915, unusually cool, witnessed a bumper crop in nearly all sections. The present has anything but favorable for truck gardeners. Hence high prices.

The constantly rising prices of meat results, Estabrook said, from a gradual falling off in production, while the demand has mounted steadily during the past 10 years. Intimation that the half dozen large packing houses, which exert a practical monopoly have controlled prices on cattle on the hoof to such an extent that the cattle industry has proved unprofitable, was made by Estabrook.

Cattle raisers he said, have for the past 10 years complained that they were unable to obtain sufficient money from the packing houses to make the business moderately lucrative. The sure confirmation of price fixing, in Estabrook's opinion, is the fact that ranchers are dropping cattle raising in increasing large numbers, until today there are fewer cattle on the hoof than there were in 1910—six years ago.

RAILROADS

form—but not in the form demanded by the brotherhoods and supported by President Wilson.

The meeting at the White House lasted only ten minutes. Leaving the White House, President Holden of the Burlington, spokesman of the group said: "The situation is not any more hopeful than it has been."

"Is it hopeful at all?" he was asked. "I cannot make any statement as to that," he replied. "All I know is that as long as there is something to work with I am going to keep plugging away."

Contrary to the pessimism reflected by some of the railroad presidents was the hopeful attitude of the president. In administration circles belief is strong that things look better than they have at any time—certainly that there is no danger of any immediate breaking off of negotiations.

Railroads Weakening Washington, Aug. 24.—The railroads are yielding to President Wilson's insistence on an eight hour day.

Today found the railway presidents and managers here to settle the dispute with the railroad brotherhoods and to avert a threatened strike, practically agreed that there is no other way to meet the crisis, but they are struggling desperately with the problem of providing an eight hour day that is not such an eight hour day as the railroad workers demand. Effort of the railway presidents was concentrated today on the task of putting the railroad brotherhoods on the defensive. To this end they were declaring generally their willingness to grant the eight hour day while showing that the concession for which the brotherhoods are holding out goes far beyond that. Several thousand words of press statements directed to this purpose were released last night, and today.

They will concede, the railway presidents say: An eight hour day for eight hours pay at present rates. Overtime at present rates or arbitration of the overtime question. Grand Day. Cut wages.

They say they will not concede an eight hour day for which they must pay the same wage they now pay for a ten hour day. It would mean an increase of 21 per cent in wages to the brotherhoods, the presidents say. "The employees haven't demanded a day's work," said Julius Kruttschnitt of the Southern Pacific. "They would work just as many hours as at present, but at much higher cost to the railroads."

"If the brotherhoods are willing to work eight hours for a day's pay, this controversy could be settled in twenty minutes," said E. P. Ripley of the Santa Fe. "Let them declare for that and I'll take my coat off and put in my best links for them."

President Johnson of the Norfolk and Western issued a statement containing similar arguments. The upshot of these declarations was the admission that the eight hour day is to be accepted in some form. They want it to be in a form that will not cost them the enormous sum which they say granting the brotherhood demands would cost.

Above all, as one of them put it, they want to be able to say: Want Public With Them "We have granted a fair eight hour

ZEPPELINS RAIDED ENGLISH EAST COAST

No Damage Was Done, Rumors of Airships Carrying Tons of Explosives

London, Aug. 24.—A Zeppelin raided the east coast of England shortly before midnight last night, the war office announced today. No damage was done and there were no casualties.

Last night's Zeppelin visit and others of the past few weeks are believed to have been reconnoitering flights for the purpose of testing England's air defense, in preparation for a great aerial attack.

For the last fortnight word has been coming from Germany of the construction of huge Zeppelins, capable of carrying several tons of explosives. The German correspondents hinted that these sky dreadnaughts would move against London and Paris during September and October when weather conditions are apt to be favorable. Zeppelins found the weather so favorable during September of last year that they made five raids on England in that month alone.

The first authentic information concerning the new Zeppelin giants was given to England by Baron Montagu, former vice chairman of the joint naval and military board in a speech last night. The new dirigibles are 780 feet long, can travel 50 miles an hour and can ascend three miles to escape shells from anti-aircraft guns. Each can carry five tons of explosives. The Germans have completed two of the new airships and will have four others available for raids on England in October, Baron Montagu said.

Macleay News Notes

(Capital Journal Special Service.) Macleay, Ore., Aug. 24.—Mr. and Mrs. F. E. Goodell accompanied Harry Martin and family to church Sunday morning. The afternoon was spent at Riverside Dip.

Mrs. O. L. Martin underwent an operation at the Willamette sanatorium last week and is reported progressing satisfactorily.

Theron Russell is the proud father of a seven pound boy, born August 17. The boy has been named Jess. Augustus. Mrs. Russell is doing as well as could be expected.

Mr. Driver, a former resident of Macleay, is reported as having purchased a store in Portland. Martin and Wright have commenced threshing. Mr. Martin expects a short run on account of the poor crop this year.

Everett Lewis is acting as roustabout for the Martin and Wright outfit. J. F. C. Tekenburg and wife were Salem visitors last Saturday afternoon.

August Lentz is improving his property by the construction of a new house. This looks like prosperity, as does all the other building in the neighborhood, even though the republicans are crying "hard times."

Jess Yeager, Mrs. Mercer, Mrs. Delbert Mackenzie and Mrs. Morris motored to the scene of threshing operations last Sunday for a short visit. Dewey Crook and Ronald Cory left for Newport last Saturday for an indefinite stay.

Ed Kelley, a well known farmer of this country, has left for the east. He plans to go to Ohio, stopping off at St. Louis for some time. Hiking parties to the falls seem to be popular in this section. A party of eight started Monday morning. They included Ida Olsen, Alma Russell and Miss McClaggan, a guest of Miss Olsen. Mrs. H. E. Martin was a Salem visitor on Tuesday.

Brooks Items

(Capital Journal Special Service.) Brooks, Ore., Aug. 24.—Mrs. Henderson, of Oakland, Cal., is visiting at the Gilbert home.

Mrs. Ellen Aspinwall and daughters, Ruth and Helen, are visiting Mrs. Williamson in Linn county. Mrs. Ben H. Hawkins and children spent the past week at D. Morgan's, of Gervais.

Mr. and Mrs. Willard Ramp and son and Miss Gladys Speer spent last week at Taft, Ore.

Mrs. B. F. Ramp and grandson, Lynn, returned from Iowa where they have been the past few months. Mr. and Mrs. A. E. Harris and son, Sylvester, and wife, spent a few days last week at Tillamook.

It is now up to the president or public opinion, to compel the brotherhoods to accept it. Brotherhood officials today refused to see any concession in the new eight hour talk of the railroad presidents.

"This is the same sort of talk we have heard for months," said an official. "That is not meeting the president's proposal either in letter or spirit."

The brotherhood men charged today that the big lines "are lobbying the nation" to make it appear public sentiment is with capital on the strike situation. Satiation agents and others are the means, they say, whereby alleged lobby operates. These men, the employees say, have urged the public to flood President Wilson with messages favoring arbitration. Stacks of messages, seeming to disclose this activity, are in the hands of the brotherhoods. Some of these charge that the railroads are telling employees, who refuse to be loyal in case of a strike, that "we will get rid of such men." A sample message from Superior, Wis., said today that a Great Northern agent was endeavoring to have the public send Wilson arbitration messages.

A Hint for Contributions. "I think," said the editor, "that I will drop journalism and take to astronomy."

"Why?" "Because astronomers have more space than they know what to do with."

COURT HOUSE NEWS

The final account of Millie Berry, guardian of Cecil R. and Everett A. Lake, minors, has been approved by the county court.

A valuation of $750 has been put upon the estate of Alfred Otjen, minor, according to a report filed by the appraisers in the county court. F. L. Wood, S. H. Snyder and C. A. Holstrom are the appraisers.

An order has been issued by County Judge Bushey confirming sale of real estate in the matter of the estate of Jacob DeShozer, deceased.

A total valuation of $1,422 has been put upon the estate of the late Thos. C. A. Livesey by the appraisers in the matter, James H. Livesey, Roy R. Livesey and Jefferson Kilgore. The amount is itemized as follows: Real estate in Clackamas county, $1,400; household furniture, $6; tools, $6; stump puller, $10.

The first semi-annual report of L. C. Cavanaugh, executor of the estate of Amphield Cavanaugh, deceased, has been placed on file in the county court.

September 19 has been set by the county court as the date for hearing objections to the petition of Mary E. Sybeldon, administratrix of the estate of Mary A. Gates, deceased, for permission to sell real estate.

An order of injunction was issued by Judge Galloway this morning in the case of William A. Taylor, receiver of the Abiqu Lumber company vs. J. H. Hawley and V. J. Krebbel, restraining J. H. Hawley, his workmen, servants and agents, from interfering with possession of lumber mentioned in the complaint, and particularly from preventing plaintiff from taking possession of said lumber. Hawley is commanded to remove all obstructions from private roadways leading into the lumber yard.

Everyone Should Drink Hot Water in the Morning

Wash away all the stomach, liver, and bowel poisons before breakfast.

To feel your best day in and day out, to feel clean inside; no sour bile to coat your tongue and sicken your breath or dull your head; no constipation, bilious attacks, sick headache, colds, rheumatism or gassy, acid stomach, you must bathe on the inside like you bathe on the outside. This is vastly more important, because the skin pores do not absorb impurities into the blood, while the bowel pores do, says a well-known physician.

To keep these poisons and toxins well flushed from the stomach, liver, kidneys and bowels, drink before breakfast each day, a glass of hot water with a teaspoonful of limestone phosphate in it. This will cleanse, purify, and freshen the entire alimentary tract, before putting more food into the stomach.

Get a quarter pound of limestone phosphate from your pharmacist. It is inexpensive and almost tasteless, except a sourish twinge which is not unpleasant. Drink phosphated hot water every morning to rid your system of these vile poisons and toxins; also to prevent their formation. To feel like "young folks" feel; like you felt before your blood, nerves and muscles became saturated with an accumulation of body poisons, begin this treatment and above all, keep it up! As soap and hot water act on the skin, cleansing, sweetening and purifying, so limestone phosphate and hot water before breakfast, act on the stomach, liver, kidneys and bowels.

ROW OVER POTATO RATES

Washington, Aug. 24.—Demanding $30,000 reparation, the northern potato traffic association today complained to the interstate commerce commission against discriminatory rates on potatoes from Minnesota and Wisconsin producing points to Dallas and other Texas points in favor of Idaho producers.
