A Guilty Conscience.

A young fellow who was the crack sprinter of his town—somewhere in the outh-was unfortunate enough to have very tardy laundress. One evening, when he was out for a practice run in his rather airy and abbreviated track costume, he chanced to dash past the house of that dusky lady, who at the time was a couple of weeks in arrears with his washing.

He had scarcely reached home again * when the bell rang furiously and an ex-
