Lands Will Not Go on Assessment Roll

The Oregon grant lands will not be put upon the tax rolls this year.

This decision was reached at a meeting of representatives from the land grant counties held last night at Eugene. Attorney General Brown, who with Tax Commissioner Galloway was present at the meeting, said this morning that in his opinion the action of congress revesting title in the government is valid, and that the Oregon and California lands are no longer subject to taxation.

Attorney-General Brown cited the provision of the act of Congress re-vesting title to the Oregon and California lands in the Government, providing the taxes shall be paid as determined by the Secretary of the Interior Department. He commended the plan to form a federation of the land grant counties for the purpose of "having these lands sold, the timber sold and getting the lands back on the tax roll."

A group of Salem folk motored to the Lively hop ranch, "Lakebrook," Saturday evening to participate in the gaieties of a dance.

Well Now, Look at That! Off Comes That Pesky Corn as Slick as a Whistle.

The earth is blessed with the one, simple, painless, never-failing remedy that makes millions of corn-pestered people happy and that's "GETS-IT."

Apply it in 3 seconds. It dries. Some people jab and dig at their corns with knives and razors—wrap their toes in packages with bandages or sticky tape, make them red and raw with salves. Nothing like this with "GETS-IT."

Your corn loosens—you lift it off. There's nothing to press on the corn, or hurt. Angels couldn't ask for more. Try it tonight on any corn, callus or wart. "GETS-IT" is sold and recommended by druggists everywhere. Get a bottle, or sent on receipt of price by E. Lawrence & Co., Chicago, Ill. Sold in Salem and recommended as the world's best corn remedy by J. C. Perry and D. J. Fry.
