MANY WEBFOOTERS WILL BE MAROONED

Estimated a Thousand Are Away from Home and May Not Get Back

Portland, Ore., Aug. 31.—Nearly one thousand men and women in Oregon and Washington are in danger of being marooned far from home if the great railroad strike is called September 1. This was the estimate today of Clyde Evans, manager of the Travelers' Protective association. It is based on reports from the railroads and hotels of the northwest. The visitors are in danger of experiencing many of the inconveniences encountered by Americans caught unawares in Europe when the war broke out. They will be unable to get home, unable to move their baggage and may find themselves without money, and far from friends, with the price of necessities skyrocketing. Evans estimated that 150 of the travelers were in the Portland alone. Many commercial agents, salesmen and others to whom traveling is a business are besieging insurance offices, getting their casualty insurance straightened out. They seem to believe traveling will be dangerous on the few trains the railroads may be able to keep going if the strike comes Monday. Up to this morning there had been no unusual rush to get home. Visitors from California feel they can make the trip by boat if necessary. Many easterners refuse to believe the strike will materialize. It was learned today that jitney buses may replace local trains in the northwest. An attempt may even be made to run a jitney line as far as San Francisco, in case of a strike, using light cars for the boulevards and heavy machines for the grades.

Quinaby News

(Capital Journal Special Service)
Quinaby, Ore., Aug. 31.—Hop picking began Monday in a few of the yards having the early fuggles variety, but all yards will be in full blast Friday, September 1. The intense warm weather of the past week has been beneficial in exterminating many aphids with which growers contended during the wet season. A. M. Anderson has established a branch store at Bolter's hop yard and there will be many provender wagons moving about the country for the next three weeks. Robert Diem, accompanied by his father, P. J. Diem and his sister Mrs. Judson Ganiard and children, have just returned from a delightful outing at Wilhoit springs, where they caught many fish. They report automobiles to the number of 100 at the springs on Sunday. Among the souvenirs of their trip they brought home to their friends some of the magic mineral waters from these popular springs. The X-tize place has been sold to a Mr. Campbell of Salem. For the past year Charles Ricketts of Missouri has rented the place and has been showing his neighbors how to raise real Missouri corn. Mrs. Roy Niles of Deer Lodge, Montana, is here for a visit to her parents, Mr. and Mrs. Joseph Hargrafen. Mrs. Niles was formerly Fern Hargrafen and was married a few months ago at their former home. She is accompanied by her little step daughter, and will be joined here soon by her husband who recently met with an accident in the mines in Montana which places him upon crutches. The new cottages at Quinaby Park improve the grounds very much. The cottage of Rev. J. N. Burns of Rickreall is just completed, and the larger one recently built by Rev. S. S. Mumme of Salem are among the new ones. Mrs. Hattie Edwards and little daughter of Salem spent the past week with the Alonzo Cannoy family, Mrs. Cannoy being a sister of Mrs. Edwards. Miss Flora Grace of Polk county, a sister of Mrs. Alonzo Cannoy, will teach the Perkins school this year. Miss Edna Girod has returned from a visit to her aunt, Mrs. Anna Girod at Fruitland.

North Howell Notes

(Capital Journal Special Service)
North Howell, Ore., Aug. 31.—W. J. Jefferson started his clover baler Tuesday. The acreage here is much reduced on account of many fields having been cut for hay. J. S. Coomber and Joe Russ have bought Edgar Johnstons hay baler. The Misses Nellie and Verne Melchior of Central Howell were visiting Elsie Morgan last Sunday. W. H. Stevens took a wagon load of juveniles to the Abiquan for a swim Sunday afternoon. Miss Elsie Morgan was visiting Mrs. Skern Bickard, of Lathish, this week. C. S. Morgan, who was kicked by one of his horses, is able to be around but is quite lame. Miss Flora Fletcher, who had just recovered from an operation for appendicitis, is now suffering with diphtheria. The family have moved back to their residence in Salem. Oscar Howard is working in the harvest fields near Victor Point. The grape meeting at Saturday evening was well attended. The farm land and loan bill was discussed. It was voted to hold the next session on the fourth Saturday evening in September and invite J. P. Robertson, of Salem, to lead the discussion on the same subject. This measure which seems to be a plan of confiscation of farm property in the interest of single tax is meeting pretty rough treatment from the rural people.

Jefferson News

(Capital Journal Special Service)
Jefferson, Ore., Aug. 31.—Mr. Wagner, of Tillamook, visited his sister, Mrs. Wm. Enrick, a few days last week. Miss Maude Ohler, of Salem, who has been at the A. H. Clark, of Salem, spent Saturday night with his mother, Mrs. J. Warren Clark. Mrs. A. H. Ohler, who has been in Salem the past week, returned home Monday. Mr. and Mrs. Munn and Mrs. Whitmore, of Portland, who have been motoring in southern Oregon, were the guests at the Frank Wycoff home Tuesday night.

Macley News

(Capital Journal Special Service)
Macley, Aug. 31.—The warm weather the past week was partly responsible for the exodus of many Macley people to the summer resorts. Martin, who has been convalescing after an operation performed recently, is home again it is understood. Convicts from the state penitentiary are pulling flax on the Nash and Lentz farms this week.
