SOME SALEM FACTORIES

DEALERS WHO SUPPLY SALEM PEOPLE WITH THE POPULAR HOME PRODUCTS

This Department Published Under the Auspices of Allan A. Bynon

In concluding our earnest campaign to keep Salem money Salem-made here at home for Salem trade, we are wondering if the Commercial club is giving the members who make its existence possible any service in return for their expenditure of time and money.

There is no argument but that a commercial club is a fine investment, but to be efficient and deliver the goods it must be steered in the right direction.

The Commercial club will tell you,
"We get the industries here, the rest is up to them; we can't make a market for them." Now, the minute a prospective industry learns that, once here, all interest in its welfare and future is dropped, they will locate in a place that will get behind the institution, boost it and create a market, at least amongst the home folks.

We have one of the finest bakeries on the coast here in Salem—the Royal.
Nowhere will be found a cleaner, more modern or more sanitary plant. As equipped it can produce sufficient bread for every home in Salem.

It is a member of the Salem Commercial club.

It has never had any real, honest-to-goodness support.

But the Commercial club scurried around and now announces a new $30-000 plant. Meanwhile the local bakeries are pushed to the limit to pay their men. How long will they all last?

When the club needed a live man for secretary some months ago, no man in Salem, population 17,500, could be found to answer that description. So a live man was brought from Chicago.
We believe the better policy for the Commercial club to follow is to get back of and boost the men who are here. Let the world know that Salem is a town that boosts her home industries and the new ones will come and gladly.

In conclusion, let us be warned by the example of the Portland Chamber of Commerce, which, quoting from the Oregon Journal is already on the toboggan because it felt called upon to run the United States instead of attempting to solve the distressing problems that have been recently thrust upon the city of Portland and the Oregon country.

It's the business and the problems here at home that need our first attention, and it is the right of our home business man to demand as much of his commercial club.

The Marion

Too much cannot be said in commendation of Charles E. Miller, manager of our Hotel Marion. Since his taking over the management, business annex. People stay over night in Salem who avoided it before; cuisine has improved, and we've had dinner dances. Cheers for the new regime.

Cereol

Once more we learn that Cereol is growing. From all over Oregon come reports of its increasing popularity.
Have you tried it yet?

Red Cross

William Prunk, proprietor of Salem's finest drug store, the Red Cross, wants you to know that his ad below announces "We call for and deliver prescriptions." And that's service.

Baking Powder

One of Salem's pioneer factories that has grown steadily in output since loder Co. Mr. Eppley has built up his patronage upon the merit of high quality and it is safe to predict that his institution is destined to be one of Salem's largest manufacturing concerns.

Sporting Goods

Hauser Bros. since moving into their new location have introduced many new articles for the comfort of sportsmen. Everything from a silk tent to an electric lantern may be found in this truly up to the minute store.

Don't blame Bryant & Prunk for the way wheat has gone up. All they do is to make Perfection Flour out of it.
Perfection is all the name implies, too.

Marion Butter and Marion Ice Cream have the distinction of being the only products of their kind in the valley where a clarifier is used. This device makes dirt and foreign matter an impossibility and with the pasteurization which makes bacteria and disease impossible, the product turned out is perfect. The creamery puts a bank to shame the two days each month that Mr. Farmer is paid for his cream.

Bearing Better Fruit

"I've looked up your family tree," said the genealogist; "but I doubt if you will be pleased with it. Your great-grandfather was hanged for murder; your great-grandfather was imprisoned for robbery; your grandfather was tarred and feathered for beating his wife. That's not a very good record, is it?"

"I should say it is," replied the other, emphatically. "It shows the family is getting better with each generation. I'm an improvement on the entire bunch—never been in jail yet. Let me have those records—I'm proud of 'em."
