PROHI CANDIDATE STARTS CAMPAIGN

Nominee Hanley Says He Is Not Fighting for Office But for a Cause

Chicago, Sept. 8.—Amid cheers from a crowd that packed the Union depot, the prohibition party presidential candidates and speakers left Chicago today on a special train for a transcontinental tour. Presidential Candidate J. Frank Hanley, of Indiana, and Vice-Presidential Candidate Ira Landrith of Nashville, Tenn., headed the party.

The tentative schedule thus far announced will put the campaign special into San Francisco September 29. After a 12 hour swing through a dozen Illinois towns and cities today, closing with three simultaneous meetings this evening in Rock Island and Moline, Ill., and Davenport, Iowa, the campaigners will bombard eight Wisconsin towns Saturday. They arrive in Minneapolis Sunday. More than 500 towns will be visited on the tour.

Before departing, Hanley said: "The fact that there is no substantial difference on any great question between the attitude of the republican and democratic parties, including the domination of both by the liquor interests of the country, is causing thousands of republicans and democrats to pledge themselves to our ticket."

"We mean to stage and conduct a campaign that will challenge the consideration of the nation. Every indication justifies the belief that the prohibition party will poll a record vote November 7."

"We intend to poll such a vote that the congress will be forced to submit a Federal amendment in December. We are fighting not for place, but for a cause. We, as individuals, may be defeated, but we aim to elect the issue."

How to avoid Operations

These Three Women Tell How They Escaped the Dreadful Ordeal of Surgical Operations.

Hospitals are great and necessary institutions, but they should be the last resort for women who suffer with ills peculiar to their sex. Many letters on file in the Pinkham Laboratory at Lynn, Mass., prove that a great number of women after they have been recommended to submit to an operation have been made well by Lydia E. Pinkham's Vegetable Compound. Here are three such letters. All sick women should read them.

Marinette, Wis.—"I went to the doctor and he told me I must have an operation for a female trouble, and I hated to have it done as I had been married only a short time. I would have terrible pains and my hands and feet were cold all the time. I took Lydia E. Pinkham's Vegetable Compound and was cured, and I feel better in every way. I give you permission to publish my name because I am so thankful that I feel well again."
—Mrs. FRED BENKE, Marinette, Wis.

Detroit, Mich.—"When I first took Lydia E. Pinkham's Vegetable Compound I was so run down with female troubles that I could not do anything, and our doctor said I would have to undergo an operation. I could hardly walk without help so when I read about the Vegetable Compound and what it had done for others I thought I would try it. I got a bottle of Lydia E. Pinkham's Vegetable Compound and a package of Lydia E. Pinkham's Sanative Wash and used them according to directions. They helped me and today I am able to do all my work and I am well."
—Mrs. THOS. DWYEN, 989 Milwaukee Ave., East, Detroit, Mich.

Bellevue, Pa.—"I suffered more than tongue can tell with terrible bearing down pains and inflammation. I tried several doctors and they all told me the same story, that I never could get well without an operation and I just dreaded the thought of that. I also tried a good many other medicines that were recommended to me and none of them helped me until a friend advised me to give Lydia E. Pinkham's Vegetable Compound a trial. The first bottle helped, I kept taking it and now I don't know what it is to be sick any more and I am picking up in weight. I am 20 years old and weigh 145 pounds. It will be the greatest pleasure to me if I can have the opportunity to recommend it to any other suffering woman."
—Miss INESE FROELICHER, 1923 Manhattan St., North Side, Bellevue, Pa.

If you would like special advice write to Lydia E. Pinkham Med. Co. (confidential), Lynn, Mass. Your letter will be opened, read and answered by a woman and held in strict confidence.
