By ALINE THOMPSON

SOCIETY gathered at the attractive John H. Albert residence this afternoon to be guests at the delightful al fresco bridge party, for which Mrs. Albert and Mrs. John H. Scott were hostesses.

The affair was quite informal, and the guests included about twenty prominent matrons and maids. Another attractive function scheduled on the calendar for this week is the tea for which Mrs. John D. Sutherland will be hostess on Friday. Close to fifty matrons and maids have been asked to attend the affair, which is also the second of a series planned by this charming hostess.

As a little farewell attention to Mrs. William G. Knighton, who is leaving Friday, Mrs. George G. Brown entertained informally Tuesday night with a few tables of bridge. About a dozen matrons were asked to make up the bridge tables and the high score honor was awarded to Mrs. E. Cooke Patton.

COCOANUT OIL MAKES A SPLENDID SHAMPOO

If you want to keep your hair in good condition, be careful what you wash it with.

Most soaps and prepared shampoos contain too much alkali. This dries the scalp, makes the hair brittle, and is very harmful. Just plain milkified coconut oil (which is pure and entirely greaseless), is much better than the most expensive soap or anything else you can use for shampooing, as this can't possibly injure the hair.

Simply moisten your hair with water and rub it in. One or two teaspoonfuls will make an abundance of rich, creamy lather, and cleanses the hair and scalp thoroughly. The lather rinses out easily and removes every particle of dirt, dandruff and excessive oil. The hair dries quickly and evenly, and it leaves it fine and silky, bright, fluffy and easy to manage.

You can get milkified coconut oil at most any drug store. It is very cheap, and a few ounces is enough to last everyone in the family for months.

LOCAL MEN OBJECT TO JOBBERS METHODS

Claim They Sell Goods in Competition with Local Dealers at Jobbers' Prices

It is not exactly a square deal for wholesale houses to sell business men in this city and then go out and solicit local trade in opposition to retail men, according to the opinions expressed last evening at the monthly meeting of the Business Men's League of the Commercial club.

Wm. Gahlsdorf gave as evidence that the jobbers were selling the business men and then selling in opposition to them the fact that one of his best customers was now buying from the jobber at the same prices made him. After selling Mr. Gahlsdorf, the Portland house went out and sold his customers at the wholesale price, and this was just a sample of what was being done in other lines.

It developed that almost every line of business was suffering from this double crossing of the jobbers and in the sense of the meeting that if the business men would get together, those jobbers who were not acting square would soon find some pretty unfavorable conditions in and around Salem.

With a view of a fuller discussion of this evil it was decided to call a meeting of the grocers in Salem and take up the matter as a body with the jobbers who were competing with the retail firms. The business men do not object so much to jobbers selling where they can, as to their business practice of selling the dealers first, and then going out into the town and competing with them in the retail trade.

Old People's Home

A report from the Old People's Home was read by Secretary Grant in which the statement was made that the home had been offered $10,000 by a Mr. Brown, a capitalist of Fife, Ore., provided a like amount would be raised. The letter stated that $5,000 could be raised from outside sources, and that $5,000 would have to be raised in Salem, and the home asked permission of the Business Men's League to solicit for this amount.

When the $10,000 is raised, a $25,000 home for old people will be erected in Salem. There was a general feeling that the Old People's Home was worthy of support and that the league should grant a card.

In taking up the discussion of permitting people to solicit in the city, the opinion was expressed that fully 90 per cent of the money raised through solicitation came from the merchants and that care should be taken in issuing cards.

"Try Salem First" once again occupied a front seat. Some expressed the opinion that there was no use in antagonizing people who insisted in sending their money away from home, while others thought that an appeal to the loyalty of the people might be effective.

Just to bring the matter home to the members of the league a motion was passed that the names of those who were in the habit of sending their money to Portland or elsewhere should be posted by Secretary Grant, whereby all should know who was trading at home. Also the names of those whose credit rating is asked for by Portland houses.

A letter was read from a law firm in New York as to the standing of the Menonites hospital and college at that place. The report was to the effect that the Menonites maintained an institution of the first class, and that their hospital was regarded as one of the city's best institutions.

Transactions Heavy and Prices Higher

New York, Sept. 13.—The New York Evening Sun financial agent today says:

Transactions today again were in heavy volume, with a wide inquiry from the public for all the prominent issues, the market exhibiting the same great capacity for taking stocks which has marked its course in recent days. Street sentiment on the whole was bullish, and Commission houses reported new buying orders from out of town sources, especially for the metal and motor issues, the latter coming into greater prominence in the dealings than at any time since the present forward market started.

Advancing market values did not accompany any particular new development in conditions underlying the present demand for stocks but reports from the iron and steel trades and from the copper metal industry continued to favor bullishness on the securities market.

A brief upward movement in some of the rails attracted attention but it failed to effect any great expansion in the dealings.

Wall street sees no immediate prospects of a large expansion in the dealings in the railroad stocks but it finds in the reports of earnings by the various companies and in the freight car shortage adequate reason for bullishness over the country's industries, the expansion of which is measured by transportation receipts and bank clearings never have been greater than at present.

STOCKS MAKE BIG JUMP

New York, Sept. 13.—A closing rush of buying sent industrials upward on the stock market this afternoon. General Motors sold at 69 and Bethlehem Steel at 55. Crucible Steel advanced five points to 89 1/2 and other steel and munition shares were strong.

AFTER SIX YEARS OF SUFFERING

Woman Made Well by Lydia E. Pinkham's Vegetable Compound.

Columbus, Ohio.—"I had almost given up. I had been sick for six years with female troubles and nervousness. I had a pain in my right side and could not eat anything without hurting my stomach. I could not drink cold water at all nor eat any kind of raw fruit, nor fresh meat nor chicken. From 175 pounds I went to 118 and would get so weak at times that I fell over. I began to take Lydia E. Pinkham's Vegetable Compound, and ten days later I could eat and it did not hurt my stomach. I have taken the medicine ever since and I feel like a new woman. I now weigh 127 pounds so you can see what it has done for me already. My husband says he knows your medicine has saved my life."

Mrs. J. S. BARLOW, 1624 South 4th St., Columbus, Ohio.

Lydia E. Pinkham's Vegetable Compound contains just the virtues of roots and herbs needed to restore health and strength to the weakened organs of the body. That is why Mrs. Barlow, a chronic invalid, recovered so completely. It pays for women suffering from any female ailments to insist upon having Lydia E. Pinkham's Vegetable Compound.

FIRES THREATEN TO DESTROY REDWOODS

Were Thought Under Control, But Break Away, Telephone Poles Burning

San Jose, Cal., Sept. 13.—The forest fire has crossed the gulches in the Santa Cruz mountains and is sweeping up the hills on the other side, according to a telephone call received here at noon today from the Letcher ranch. At that time, it was stated that the telephone poles were burning, and anticipating that this would be the last message they would be able to get through, the fire fighters appealed for more assistance, and asked for provisions to last three or four days.

Telephone advices from the fire zone this afternoon showed that the fire is steadily growing worse. Clarence H. Letcher, one of the men whose property is endangered, appealed to Charles Deering to urge Governor Johnson or the state fire warden to rush aid to the weary fire fighters declaring that, unless this is done, the magnificent redwood forests in the Big Basin will be doomed.

The telephone company today ordered men out to patrol its lines in the fire district and to prevent the destruction of poles and the consequent cutting off of communication.

Students May Help

Sacramento, Cal., Sept. 13.—Students from the Stanford university will be called upon to fight the forest fire in the Santa Cruz mountains, if Professor Charles B. Wing, chairman of the California redwood park commission, finds it necessary, according to J. W. Moody of the state forester's office.

State Forester J. D. Taylor was called to Sonoma county late last night to direct the fight against three bad fires there, one near Duncan Mills and the others north and east of Healdsburg.

Moody said that he had informed Professor Wing at Stanford of the reports on the Santa Cruz fire made by J. A. Mighall, fire warden for that district, and Charles J. Deering of San Francisco, whose ranch is threatened.

At noon Professor Wing left Stanford to make a personal investigation of the fire, after telling 50 of the students to be in readiness to rush to the scene if their services were needed.

"According to telephonic reports I received at noon today, the fire has not yet reached the real serious stage," said Moody.

"It is now burning along the ridge, and 50 fresh men ought to be able to get it under control by nightfall.

"The danger lies in an east wind springing up and carrying the flames over the ridge into the thick timber. Then it would be a tough fight. The trouble now is that the men on the scene are worn out with two days' fire fighting."

No request for aid through the state troops has yet been received by Governor Johnson.

Thought Fire Controlled

San Jose, Cal., Sept. 13.—The famous redwoods of the Big Basin—$15,000,000 worth of virgin timber—are believed to have been saved from the fire which has swept the slopes of the Santa Cruz mountains for three days.

Early today a little band of men, wearing 80 hours of almost uninterrupted fire fighting made a desperate and apparently successful stand against the flames which since Sunday have been burning over miles of brush towards the heavily wooded ridge which was like a powder train towards the edge of the great redwood forest. They believe the fight has been won.

Elym surface indications the fire does not appear to be serious. Only a little cloud of smoke in the canyons. There is no great leaping of flames such as is seen in pine forest fires. But the undergrowth at all danger points is a roaring furnace and veteran forest fire fighters say it is the most dangerous and hardest fire to handle in many years.

TO SPRING SURPRISE IN BILLINGS CASE

Defense Says "Something Is to Drop Soon"—Little Evidence To Date

San Francisco, Sept. 13.—Surprises may be sprung within the next few days by the defense in the trial of Warren K. Billings on charge of exploding the fatal bomb which killed ten persons in the preparedness parade July 22.

Attorney McNutt is the only man authorized to speak on the matter and he refused to divulge the nature of the coming events but Frederic Schulberg, one of the defense leaders, said:

"Something is going to drop soon. There is much under the surface of this case that has not yet appeared."

Prosecution witnesses will be used by the defense in an effort to show that persons in the crowd at Steuart and Market streets could not have seen any "suitcase bomb" planted there on July 22 when ten persons were killed at that spot.

The plan was shown when Charles Moss, a state witness, testified that he was standing at that corner when the explosion occurred that he heard the report of the bomb and saw smoke coming from the point where the bomb exploded. He also identified pieces of metal as particles found by him after the explosion. When Defense Attorney McNutt questioned him, however, he admitted that the crowd was so dense at that point that it was impossible for persons in the front ranks of the throng to observe a man plant a suitcase in the rear.

The expected controversy over the introduction of pieces of bomb as evidence that a bomb exploded failed to materialize today. Deputy District Attorney Brennan introduced bits of metal only as part of the evidence in establishing the corpus delicti. Later he will attempt to prove that a bomb was actually exploded and that these pieces of metal are parts of that bomb.

Most of this morning's session was devoted to testimony of souvenir hunters who, after the explosion, picked up fragments of steel and iron.

L. H. McMahon Out for District Attorney

L. H. McMahon will make the race for the office of District Attorney for Marion county. He has been strongly urged by many friends to do this but up to today has not consented. A telephone message from him from Silverton this morning to Secretary McDaniel of the Commercial club, he stated he would be a candidate. Mac is a thorough hustler, energetic and aggressive, a good lawyer and will add to the hilarity of the campaign from the day he enters it.

308 X YES IS A VOTE FOR YOUR CHILDREN

ONE NORMAL NOT ENOUGH

Oregon has but one Normal School. This school is located at Monmouth. Excellent as is the work of this school it is utterly unable to supply but a small part of the need for trained teachers for the State.

Of more than 6,000 school teachers in the public schools of Oregon, but 13 per cent have been trained for their profession of teaching in Normal Schools.

It is a well established fact that our one Normal School cannot supply the needs of the entire state. That is why we ask for your work and vote for the proposed Eastern Oregon State Normal School at Pendleton, Oregon.

GIVE EASTERN OREGON SQUARE DEAL

Eight counties in the Willamette Valley have employed during the past five years, 203 teachers who have graduated from the Monmouth Normal as against 39 Monmouth Normal School graduates for the eight leading counties of Eastern Oregon.

During the past five years the attendance of students from nine Willamette Valley counties was 87,000 students as against 91 students from nine of the leading counties of Eastern Oregon.

Overing the crowded condition of our one Normal at Monmouth and also the distance and expense of attending, students from Eastern Oregon are compelled to go to neighboring states to secure their training as teachers.

ONLY COSTS 4 CENTS PER $1,000

The annual maintenance cost of the proposed State Normal School in Eastern Oregon is estimated at one 25th of a mill or 4 cents on a thousand dollars of taxable property. Isn't it worth this to have your children trained to become useful and productive citizens?

STRONG ENDORSEMENTS

Among those who strongly endorse the establishment of the proposed Eastern Oregon Normal School are Governor Withycombe, J. H. Ackerman, President of the Monmouth State Normal; W. J. Kerr, President of the Oregon Agricultural College; P. L. Campbell, President of the State University; Robert C. French, former President of the Western Normal, and practically all of the leading educators of the State. J. A. Churchill, Superintendent of Public Instruction, voices the sentiments of those who are most familiar with the need of more adequate Normal facilities when he says:

"Oregon's greatest need for its rural schools is the teacher who has had full preparation to do her work. Such preparation can best come through Normal School training."

"I trust that the voters of the state will assist in raising the standard of our schools by establishing a State Normal School at Pendleton. The location is central, the interest of the people of Pendleton in education most excellent, and the large number of pupils in the public schools will give ample opportunity to students to get the amount of teaching practice required in a standard normal school."

All the above educators insist that a Standard Normal School must be located in a town of 5,000 or more population and having enough grade pupils for teaching practice.

VOTE RIGHT

By voting YES for No. 308 you will help to give to the school children of Oregon the same advantages enjoyed by the school children of our neighboring states.
