BIG STEEL SHELL PIERCES ARMOR AND HITS HOUSE

First 16-inch Shell Ever Fired in the United States "Gets There"

Washington, Sept. 15.—How a 16-inch solid steel shell tore straight through a home near the government testing grounds at Indian Head, Maryland, passing through the rooms adjoining that in which were a woman and her three daughters, was reported to Washington today.

It was the first 16-inch shell ever fired in the United States. Sailing from the mouth of the first 16-inch gun ever set up in this country to be tested, the shell tore through a thick section of tough armor plate, thence through a huge bank of sand and, tilting upward as a result of this resistance, described a mile-long arc through the air.

Mrs. Mary Swann had just finished preparing the mid-day meal for her husband, William O. Swann—one of the men handling the gun. Her two smallest children had followed her into the dining room, joining her 18-year-old daughter. There was a terrific roar and crash. The house shook. When she recovered, from the fright, Mrs. Swann went into the kitchen. There were great gaping holes in opposite walls. Outside the house lay the huge mass of steel, still hot.

This was about three weeks ago. Indian Head is only 54 miles from Washington, but is almost as isolated as a desert town. That is the explanation given of the time elapsed between the occurrence and the receipt of the news in Washington. Few persons come and go between the gun proving settlement and this city.

Little Essie Swann, aged four, now uses the big steel cylinder as a hobby horse and her mother looks on, beaming at the thought the child is alive to do so.

The gun has been fired several times since and without accident. It is said this is not the first instance at Indian Head of a big shell penetrating the armor at which it was shot and ricocheting off the test grounds, but none ever went a dangerous distance before.

The homes thereabouts like that of the Swanns are supposed to be far enough away to be safe.

Members of the Salem Rifle club will go to Finzer Sunday morning for the regular target practice. Paradoxical as it may seem, the fact is some of the boys make better records at 200 and 600 yards than they do at 300 and 300.

In order to cater for school children, on the Oregon Electric to and from Salem, trains No. 43 and 64 will run regularly between Woodburn and Salem excepting Saturdays and Sundays. This will become effective next Monday, No. 43 arrives at 3:05 p. m. and departs at 3:30 p. m.

George Palmer Putnam and Karl Hinges left this morning at 8 o'clock for Clackamas by auto, after spending a day and night in the city on their drive from southern California to northern Oregon. Mr. Hinges has fallen off a few pounds since he began life as a soldier and Mr. Putnam has added a moustache to his equipment.

The river is now 3 of a foot below low water mark, the lowest it has been this year although the same gauge was touched on the first of the month. The rainfall for the first half of the month is 1.17 inches, rather above the average as only .42 of an inch fell last September. Yesterday was the warmest day of the month with the O. C. T. official thermometer registering 83.

The foreigner and those who have delayed taking out their citizenship papers will hereafter be duly impressed with the responsibilities of citizenship and the honor conferred on them in being permitted to become a citizen of the country. About 200 foreigners in Portland were made citizens today in Judge Davis' court at the Library hall in Portland. To each will be presented a silk flag given by the Oregon society of the Sons of the American Revolution.

Lloyd L. Griggs, age 18, of Mill City enlisted in the U. S. army this morning as infantryman and left this afternoon for Portland to go with a squad to Fort McDowell. All enlisted men now start service at $15 a month and all found. The enlistment now is for three years with the colors. At the end of this time the soldier is transferred to the reserve for three years and civil life, subject to call in case of war. Even at the completion of one year's service, the private may apply for transfer to the reserve and this may be granted if he has made a good record during the year.

The Moose lodge will give a banquet and reception to the members of the lodge who were with Company M on the Mexican border. The program of the evening will include several musical numbers and short talks by the soldier boys. Among the Moose who have been members of Company M are A. Mickels, John Holman, Irving Hays, William Mason, Oscar Cutler, Frank Grovener and A. Tyner Woolpert.

The Commercial club is investigating the problem of raising broccoli in this vicinity. Within the last few years Roseburg has become famous throughout the country for its broccoli and its car lot shipments to eastern markets. The Umpqua valley fruit union handles about all that is raised. Broccoli seed is secured from England and France. It is planted in May and sown the same as cabbage. It requires free rich bottom land and thorough fertilization and after a farmer learns how, there is a profit of from $75 to $100 a month to the acre.

The Rev. Carl H. Elliott pastor of the First Presbyterian church performed two marriage ceremonies Wednesday at his home. Miss Lola Margaret Hall of Marion county and John Palmer, a farmer of Marion county were married at 1:30 o'clock with the bride's sister as witness. Also at 7 o'clock Miss Clara M. Vadnais of Marion county and Howard C. Hamilton of Los Angeles.

The following was handed in for publication today: "The entire neighborhood in which Mrs. Hattie Stroud resides is indignant over the disturbance caused by her sister, and the insinuation of personal misconduct. Mrs. Stroud is a widow lady, a quiet and refined woman and all who are acquainted with her are her friends. It was simply a family affair the sister becoming enraged because her mother preferred to reside with Mrs. Stroud, came to Mrs. Stroud's house and caused the trouble."

Stated meeting of Pacific Lodge No. 50, A. F. & A. M. this evening. Work in the E. A. degree. Visiting brethren welcome. The high cost of living went up another notch yesterday. Flour advanced five cents a sack and eggs five cents a dozen and the sugar market is showing considerable strength since it took a downward slide last week of 75 cents a hundred. The fourth quarterly conference of Leslie Methodist church will be held in the church tonight at 8 o'clock by Dr. T. B. Ford, district superintendent. Reports of the year's work will be read, and a large attendance is expected. The office of director of the Commercial club for the publicity, tourist and convention department, vacated by the resignation of Benjamin Brick, will be filled by the board of directors on authority given them by the Commercial club constitution. Dr. Frank Wilbur Chase, head of the music department of Willamette University, has returned from his vacation and will direct the chorus choir of the First Methodist church next Sabbath morning and evening. The choir meets in rehearsal twice a week. Plans are in hand for a number of sacred concerts during the fall and winter. The Cherrians have a lot of things to talk about at the meeting called for this evening at the Commercial club, besides auditing the bills incurred during the Marshfield excursion. The immediate proposition to be acted on is that of attending in a body the Polk county fair next Wednesday. The Oregon state school for the blind will open for the regular fall term next Monday. Many of the pupils are now coming in from distant parts of the state and it is expected that the term will begin with a registration of about 35. No new work will be undertaken the first semester and what is done later will depend on how liberal the coming legislators feel toward the school.

Officers for the Knights and Ladies of Security were elected Wednesday evening at a regular meeting as follows: President, A. A. Englehart; vice president, W. J. Hagedorn; second vice president, P. M. Gregory; secretary, G. D. Dimmick; financier, E. P. Walton; prelate, Mrs. R. B. Hagedorn; conductor, Mrs. E. P. Walton; guard, Mrs. P. M. Gregory; sentinel, James Kapphahn. A man who either cannot or will not talk was picked up by Officer Nicholson this morning and taken to the police station for examination. When discovered by the officer the man was engaged in gathering scattered bits of popcorn from the sidewalk and putting them into a paper sack. From a letter found on his person it is inferred that the man's name is P. Peterson, and that he came from Ontario, Oregon. No action has as yet been taken in the case.

"Sam," the Chinaman charged with having opium in his possession, was found guilty by a jury in Justice Webster's court this morning and was fined $100, which fine was suspended during good behavior. The case was prosecuted by Deputy District Attorney Elmo S. White, and attorney P. H. D'Arcy appeared for the defense. "Sam" will be taken to Portland this afternoon to answer to a charge preferred by the United States revenue department.

The early risers only will have the privilege tomorrow morning of hearing a candidate for president speak, and possibly a candidate for vice president. The special hearing J. Frank Hanly, the prohibitive candidate for president and Dr. Ira Landrith the vice presidential nominee on the same ticket, will arrive in Salem at 7 o'clock, and by 7:15 the speaking on the steps of the court house will begin. It has been definitely decided that Mr. Hanly will be one of the speakers. The party will remain in Salem an hour and a half, leaving for Albany at 8:30. The Rev. E. T. Porter is chairman of the reception committee. Should rain interfere with the out door speaking, the reception will be held in the First Methodist church. Mr. Hanly is an orator and an all around public speaker and this ability had much to do with his election as governor of Indiana about eight years ago.
