

LET 'ER BUCK at the ROUND-UP PENDLETON, SEPT. 21, 22 and 23

Wild men pit their skill against wild cattle and wilder horses; and the women of their kind vie with the men in skill, nerve and daring. It's one of the few real great shows. GO THIS TIME—A ROYAL RECEPTION AND A BULLY CROWD will make every minute count.

Yesterday's Results.
At Vernon 7, Portland 5.
At Salt Lake 5, Los Angeles 6.
At Oakland 4, San Francisco 3.

Vernon had the breaks and beat Portland. Errors were numerous. Gislason and Sheeley of Salt Lake threw the game away and Los Angeles won 6 to 5.

Quinlan fielded like a fiend and kept the Angels from making it worse. Rod Murphy homed on Spider Baum after other Oaklanders had beat him full sore, and the Seals lost 4 to 3.

Kenworthy of the winners did some slick fielding in the ninth, choking a San Francisco rally. Yesterday's big league hero was Larry Cheney. With two out and a man on second in the ninth inning of the game between the Dodgers and Pirates, Cheney walked up and smashed the ball far into left field, scoring the winning run for his own game.

Young Jay Gould was yesterday's winning pitcher in the Athletics daily game. Urban Shoeker, of the Yanks, felled the Tigers in their plan to take the lead in the American league.

Cobb went hitless, while Speaker connected for a lone bingle out of four times up. The aged and venerable Eddie Plank took a fall out of the Red Sox, so there was no gaining by the leaders.

The Braves made a valiant fight but took a beating in the eleventh when the Cubs scored two runs on Worman's single. The Giants refused to have any respect for Christy Mathewson and hung up their ninth straight victory at the expense of their former star.

Yours truly,
GRACE L. TERRY.

Baseball Magnates
In Session at Cincinnati
Cincinnati, Ohio, Sept. 15.—With nothing to fear from the bold, bad Federal league, major league baseball magnates gathered today at the Hotel Sinton for their annual draft of minor league players.

Last year, because the Federals were snooping around to get a line on new material, the drafting was done in secret and the names of the prizes kept dark until they could be affixed to contracts.

But now the Federals have been shooed out of the way and the proceedings are again in the open. Garry Herriman, president of the National commission; John K. Tener, president of the National league; Ban N. Johnson, president of the American league; and John T. Bruce, secretary of the National commission were the men at the meeting.

Under the rules major league clubs wishing to draft players had to submit names of players along with the draft price to Bruce by 10 o'clock this morning. The secretary of the commission received a flood of coin from this source at the last minute, several of the club owners bringing their lists and purchase money with them. Where more than one club seeks the services of a player, lots will be drawn for his contracts.

Charles E. Ebbets, president of the Brooklyn club of the National league will make his annual effort to have the rules of draft changed so that the weaker clubs of each league will get the stronger players.

Writes About Hops In New York States

The following letter to Miss Ella M. Finney, of Gervais, which explains itself, gives an inside view of the hop situation, and shows how eastern growers look at future of the industry:

Waterville, N. Y., Sept. 15, 1916.
My Dear Miss Finney: Mr. Terry is finishing his last kiln of hops just about as you are beginning and he has sold them already for 20 cents. He was first offered 25 cents, then 27 1/2 and said when he had an offer of 20 cents should sell and did. They may go higher but we never made by holding on long. A fair yield, a little better than he expected, the lice all left before they were spoiled. Very few have been sold yet as most growers are still picking and will be for a week. A few have sold for 25 cents. Mr. Brainard showed Mr. Terry some Oregon hops that his agent bought for nine cents and Mr. T. said they were fine looking. I can't see why there should be such a difference between them and the N. Y. state hops, but some say you can only brew them in the winter. We pay 50 cents a box for picking, $2 for pole pulling and $5 for a regular dryer. Mr. Terry has a helper and stays in the hop house himself. He paid him $3 a day. We pay $40 house, milk, etc., to one man, $45 to another and hired a good deal by the day, $1.75. I think boxes hold seven bushels and some have them that hold eight. So pickers say the crop is generally light, but a pretty good quality. We have something about 10,000 although they are not pressed and weighed, I think, we have less than 15 acres used to have 25 and 30. Won't have more than 10 next year. There are a very few that have from 25 to 40, but not many now. I think I have written everything I can think of about them and I sincerely hope you may have a good crop and a fair price. We are always thankful when they are sold and out of our hands. Write and tell us how you make out. I did not hear of anyone that contracted here and no one belongs to an association.

Suit has been begun in the circuit court by Charles A. Gernond against John Gremmels, Emilie Gremmels and the United States National bank to collect $2000 claimed to be due on a promissory note. Foreclosure of a mortgage is asked, and the complaint prays that the bank be barred from any interest beyond the right of redemption provided by law.

Los Angeles, Cal., Sept. 15.—Frank Oule, a Japanese aviator, died at the Tropico hospital shortly before noon as a result of injuries sustained in a 300 foot fall when his 100 horsepower biplane became unmanageable at Griffith park.

Oule was not an experienced flyer and his machine was of a new and powerful pattern. A number of his countrymen witnessed the fall. He suffered a fractured skull and serious internal injuries. In a dying condition Oule was carried on an improvised stretcher through a dense undergrowth of timber to the Tropico hospital nearly a mile away.

State House News

The state of Oregon appropriated nothing to the Philadelphia exposition of 1876, nor to the Jamestown exposition of 1907, but $60,000 was appropriated to the Chicago exposition of 1893, $50,000 to the St. Louis exposition of 1904, and $175,000 to the San Francisco exposition of 1915. This information has been sent the Pilgrim Tercentenary commission of Boston by Secretary of State O'Leary in response to a request received yesterday.

Fred G. Buchtel, state sealer of weights and measures, is in Portland securing data to be used in drafting a bill to be introduced at the coming session of the legislature regulating the weight of a loaf of bread.

NEW HALF-MILE RECORD
Syracuse, N. Y., Sept. 15.—Directum I, world's champion pacing stallion, at the New York state fair grand circuit meeting yesterday broke all records for a half mile by going the distance in 53.34 seconds. The former record of 56 seconds, held by Dan Patch, was made behind a windshield in Memphis in 1903. Directum was paced by a running horse and covered the first quarter in 26.54 seconds, the fastest in pacing history. The second quarter was made in 26 seconds. He was driven by Thomas Murphy.

Road Hal showed wonderful flight of speed in the Chamber of Commerce stake for 207 paces, which he won in straight heats, defeating Miss Harris M. in thrilling stretch drives. Busy Lassie, handled by Cox, came from behind to win all three heats of the Governor's stake for $2,200 trotters. Zomrect led the field in the 2:22 trot from start to finish of each heat. Dos Palos and Notice B furnished the excitement in their contest for second and third honors.

tion, as baseball is figured from batting averages. But they have determination and a strong, forceful leader to lash them to victory. Their pitching staff is great and their batting averages are low. Their fielding wonderful and their base running passable. Yet, so long as the pitching staff will hold the opposition in check, the Braves are the best bet in any ball game.

The Braves are being counted out of the pennant hunt by a great many critics. But the count may have been made too soon. Any club with the courage of the Braves cannot be counted out until the last possible chance is gone. And there is no one who will deny that the Braves would make better opponents for the American league victors than either the Dodgers or the Phillies.

The Braves loss yesterday lost them an opportunity to close in on second place, for the Cardinals licked the Phillies. However, the St. Louis victory had its effect on the league standings, for the Dodgers crushed the Pirates and stepped into the lead by a game and a half.

In the American league the Tigers lost the chance of a season to lead the Red Sox, who were beaten at St. Louis, while the Yanks hammered Detroit. The White Sox, through their victory over the Senators are now just a game behind the leader. The same clubs in the American league are billed for clashes today. In the National league also there will be no change.

Maybe you hadn't noticed it. But it is the people who live in glass houses who throw most of the stones.

Thanks to the liberal patronage being accorded Hotel Marion by the residents of Salem, Hotel Marion is fast coming into its own as the Social Center of the Capital City.

Contributing to the season's social life will be a series of the popular Dinner Dances to be given every two weeks, beginning with Friday, Oct. 6th. We want Salem to be proud of the hotel her business men have made possible.
