New York, Sept. 18.—The New York Evening Sun financial review today

Although irregular movements in dent to heavy realizing sales were mar-ed at various times in today's session the general tendency was in the direction of higher levels in the best par of the five hours of business, wit of the five hours of business, with further active buying for public accoun-reported. The market absorbed a large amount of stock without the accompani-ment of realty material declines in quo-tations, while in instances the buying was heavy enough to carry prices to better figures than any record last week and in a few stocks, notably United States Steel and Maxwell Motors to new high range. There was a good in new high range. There was a good is quiry also for the coppers and the rai way equipment shares and some of the Cincinnati . specialties which made decided forward Brooklyn . .

Railroad shares were in evidence and according to the observations of many market followers the movement in the group, which today was widened to in clude the cheap priced issues, would gain in force in the current week, particularly in Reading, New York Central and Union Pacific, regarding which sentiment was decidedly bullish. Commission houses bought more of the rails for outside account.

On the greater part of the lust hour the rails and most of the industrials were reactionary, the strongest spots being found among the specialties, notably by Texas company and Tobacco pro-

New Timber From Which to Choose Team

Pre-season prospects for a winning football team are still in the theory stage, according to Coneb R. S. Mathews at Willamette University this morning. Many stellar men of other institutions and high schools are expected to arrive and turn out for practice on the gridiron in the near fulture, but as yet less than a dozen men have put in their appearance.

Waen the call to practice is made for 3:30 this afternoon, many veterans of last year's fighting team will be missing from the lineup. The loss of Lloyd Shisler, "Hap" Miller, At hill Irvine, Irvin Mann, "Aunity" Brown, Clint Archibald, Don Randall and Arvid Peterson leaves a hole in the team which it will be exceedingly difficult to fill, "Tubby" Hendricks will also be absent owing to pressing studies in the law school.

Manager Scott, Assistant General Manager Dyer and Assistant Superintendent Martyn.

The meeting was held at the suggestion of the commission with a view of facilitating proceedings at the hearing to be held at Portland next Wednesday.

President Sproule did most of the talking on behalf of the railway company. He expressed much astonishment at the statement of Commission; or Miller relative to discrimination in furnishing ears.

"We endeavor scrupulously to meet the requirements of all shippers at all times," he said. "We are doing what ever we can to mike an equable distribution of ears. The present shorting is due to an increase of business not only in Oregon but in all parts of the United States. We delivered 9418 more ears to our Fortland division desired the requirements of the United States.

RAILROAD OFFICIALS BEFORE COMMISSION

President Sproule Says Road Does Not Discriminate---Treats All Alike

A party of prominent officials of the Southern Pacific railway company discussed the car shortage question with the state public service commis sion for an hour this morning

The party consisted of President Sproule, Vice-President and General Manager Scott, Assistant General Manager Dyer and Assistant Superin-

ficult to fill, "Tubby" Hendricks will also be absent owing to pressing studies in the law school.

Of the old men Captain Earl Flegel, general utility player at most any position, will be out for his fourth official "W". Flegel has had an eventful summer in the harvest fields which is an encouraging sign for the early development of the "old fight" spirit which has always characterized the "Willamette teams.

Brazier Small, the sensational sprint man who got away for the winning touchdown against Oregon tayee years ago, will be again seen in action.
