

When in Portland, You are Most Welcome to Make This Store Your Headquarters

Scarcely a day passes that at least one, or more, of our Salem friends do not drop in to see us and say "how do you do."

Mr. Hammond wishes his Salem friends to feel that this store, of which we are justly proud, belongs, in a measure, to Salem, and a cordial welcome awaits you.

Our 'phone and a desk are at your disposal.

Take Hot Water and "Anuric."

People are realizing more and more every day that the kidneys, just as do the bowels, need to be flushed occasionally. The kidneys are an eliminative organ and are constantly working, separating the poisons from the blood. Under this continual and perpetual action they are apt to congest, and then trouble starts. Uric acid backs up into the system, causing rheumatism, neuralgia, dropsy and many other serious disturbances. Doctor Pierce of Buffalo, New York, advocates that every one should drink plenty of pure water between meals. Every day should exercise in the outdoor air sufficiently to sweat profusely, and from time to time stimulate the kidney action by means of "Anuric." This preparation has been thoroughly tried out at his Sanitarium, in the same way as his "Favorite Prescription" for weak women and "Golden Medical Discovery," the standard herbal system tonic, (both of which now come in tablet form for convenience of carrying and taking). "Anuric" is now being introduced here, and many local people are daily testifying to its perfectness. When you have backache, dizzy spells or rheumatism, heed nature's warning. It means that you are a victim to uric acid poisoning. Then ask your druggist for "Anuric" and you will very soon become one of hundreds who daily give their thankful indorsement to this powerful enemy to uric acid. If you have that tired, worn-out feeling, backache, rheumatism, neuralgia, or if your sleep is disturbed by too frequent urination, get Dr. Pierce Anuric Tablets at drug store, full treatment $1.00, or send 10c for trial package to Dr. Pierce, Invalids' Hotel, Buffalo, N. Y.

Steel Makes New Record Air Full of Bull Tips

New York, Sept. 22.—Optimism regarding the outlook in the steel industry was registered in Wall Street today when traders sent United States steel common climbing 4 3/4 to a new high record of 114 5/8 during the thirteenth consecutive million share day of the present bull movement. The advance was made on a sale of more than 300,000 shares of steel, much of it to meet demand from outside buyers. The steel was full of bull tips on steel. President Farrell's prediction of record exports after the war, made yesterday, rumors of another extra dividend for steel common, discussion of an alleged steel famine and the reporting of big equipment orders were used to speed the market leader upward. Union Pacific followed steel up, selling at 148 3/4, the highest since its divorce from Southern Pacific. American Smelting sold to 111 3/4. The market closed strong.

FAIR BUILDINGS HAD CLOSE CALL IN FIRE

Barn On Savage Place Burns --Fair Barns and Cars On Fire

One of the big barns belonging to George O. Savage and located just across the Silverton road from the north entrance to the fair ground burned this morning about 4 o'clock, together with some thirty tons of hay, a lot of farm machinery, harness and other things, the property of J. C. Mullan, who had the Savage farm leased. The fire was discovered by Night Watchman Joe Sauger, who gave the alarm and brought everybody in the neighborhood to do what they could towards saving the adjoining barn and house which was done with the aid of chemical fire extinguishers from the fair ground and the chemical engine from the city department, after a hard battle by Secretary Lea, C. O. Gengelbach, T. R. Graham and others.

A string of cars containing the Shelton points of M. S. Levy of La Grande, and several dead horses belonging to J. E. Reynolds caught fire, but this was soon put out by the chemicals without serious damage.

The sheep barn, No. 7, and the horse barn, No. 8, at the fair grounds, caught fire, but these too were saved by the chemicals. Had it not been for these little fire extinguishers, the chances are there would have been but little left of the state fair buildings this morning.

How the fire originated is not known, but Mrs. Mullan says a man yesterday evening asked her if he might sleep in the barn, but he was told Mr. Mullan would object to this. He then asked if he could borrow some bedding, but this also was refused. It may be he crawled into the barn and started the fire, accidentally or otherwise.

Mr. Lea and others did some good amateur fire fighting, and it is due to their efforts which prevented the spread of the fire until the chemical engine arrived from the city, that there are any buildings left at the fair grounds.

Buren & Hamilton Dissolve Partnership

The firm of Buren & Hamilton has been dissolved. Mr. Hamilton will remain in the old Buren & Hamilton location, 340 Court street and is replenishing the stock, part of the new goods having already arrived. Mr. Hamilton has been in the furniture business since 1894 when the firm of Buren & Hamilton was formed. The firm first was located in the building now occupied by Rostein & Greenbaum. After six years in that location, it moved to the rooms now occupied by the Salem Hardware company, where it remained eight years. The firm moved into the building especially built for it where it has been for the past eight years.

Mr. Hamilton will retain George Fox who has been with the firm eight years and Ed K. Murphy who has been with it ten years. P. C. Kugel who was with the firm five years before going with Olds, Wortman & King of Portland, will be with Mr. Hamilton and also Miss Ruby Wilson, who has been in charge of the books ten years. The C. H. Hamilton house furnishing store is now open for business and within a short time Mr. Hamilton expects to have the store entirely refurbished.

Billings Case Will Go To Jury Today

San Francisco, Sept. 22.—Those who predicted a speedy verdict in the trial of Warren K. Billings today charged their opinions, in the closing hours of the trial of the young man on charge of complicity in the preparedness parade dynamiting. Several of these today forecast a long deliberation, with disagreement almost a certainty.

The final gun for the defense was fired this morning by Maxwell McNutt, chief counsel for Billings, in an argument in which the state's case is held up to ridicule, and the vital contentions of the defense regarding Billings' alibi and his "double." Al DeCassia, is being forcibly presented to the jury as a preponderance of evidence against the murder charge against Billings.

This afternoon, Assistant District Attorney James Brennan, who conducted the prosecution will make the state's closing argument. This will be followed by the usual battle over requested instructions, followed by Judge Dunne's instructions to the jury, and the jury's retirement to decide the innocence or guilt of Billings.

Some Queer Cayuses Gather at Round-Up

Pendleton, Ore., Sept. 22.—A quiet man sat in the bleachers at the Pendleton Round-Up today and ate his lunch out of a shoebox. The man was Louis W. Hill, president of the Great Northern railroad, and one of the biggest financiers in the United States. Hill, with his wife and four children, arrived at Pendleton in a special car today. Governor Withycombe and Secretary O'Leary also got here this afternoon. A record breaking crowd saw the wild western sports. J. Rick, of Wyoming, rode a bad little horse, Two Step, until he was hurled against a fence, sustaining a broken leg. Seven riders were thrown hard today. Fifteen subdued their mounts.

MEMORY RETURNS AFTER FOUR YEARS

Bernard Montgomery "Wakes Up"—Was Given Up As Dead

San Francisco, Sept. 22.—Memory returned to Bernard J. Montgomery of Portland today for the first time in more than four years. Just still he has no recollection of anything that happened since March 3, 1912, nor does he know how he got to San Francisco or why he is in the San Francisco hospital.

Ten days ago a skeleton recovered from the Willamette river near Salem was identified as that of Montgomery. Later it was shown to be that of E. V. Springer of Salem, who disappeared two years ago.

A wife and four children await Montgomery's return to Portland. But Montgomery remembers that he had six children when he left his ranch near Kalama, Wash., to go to Portland.

"March 3, 1912, is the last date I remember," said Montgomery today. "To me that date was just yesterday. I remember the day particularly because I went to the city hall at Kalama to turn in a record of my employees on the ranch. After that Mrs. Montgomery and I went to Portland, to our home. That is the last I remember. I have a vague recollection of coming into the hospital here, but it is not clear."

Physicians are puzzled by Montgomery's peculiar case of amnesia. His head has been examined, but no injury can be found which might have caused the lapse of memory.

Montgomery said his wife and children lived at East Twelfth and Burnside streets, Portland. His mother-in-law, Mrs. Eleanor Broughner, lived at Gresham in 1912.

The Portland police were communicated with and reported today that Mrs. Montgomery had received no word from her husband since he disappeared in March, 1912, after going to Salem in search of employment.

Montgomery was taken to the Central Emergency hospital here on September 14 by a man giving the name of D. Delevois. Officers are now searching for Delevois.

WILL DECIDE TRUST CASE

Portland, Ore., Sept. 22.—Federal Judge Wolverson is to decide today whether six directors and officers of the Oregon Portland Cement company shall be temporarily restrained from participation in its affairs.

Amos Moore, vice-president and treasurer of the company, has asked for the injunctions. He wants the six enjoined from taking part in the stockholders meeting scheduled for this afternoon. Moore recently filed a $1,500,000 suit under the anti-trust law, asking the United States court to break up an alleged western cement trust. He named 14 companies as defendants.

Now he says he fears the six directors will exercise proxies at the stockholders' meeting, voting to withdraw his suit and also out him from office.

ATTRACTIONS ARE MISSING

Portland, Or., Sept. 22.—Boxing fans who expected to see Jess Willard as part of the regular Sells-Floto circus program emitted loud cries of disappointment today. Hisses and cries of "fake!" greeted the announcement that the champ would appear during a "concert" for which an extra charge was made.

Two Burn to Death In Auto Accident

Galveston, Texas, Sept. 22.—Several score persons helplessly watched two men burn to death beneath an overturned automobile that went over an embankment shortly after midnight last night causing three deaths. The tank exploded and the flames spread so rapidly that the crowd was unable to pull the victims from beneath the wreck.

The dead are: H. T. Roach, age 30. W. S. Dennis, Jr., age 22. Miss Claudy Collier, age 18. The girl was thrown clear of the machine and instantly killed. J. J. Bonour was seriously injured.

Pimples Disappear
