COMPANY M HERE

MONDAY EVENING

To Be Mustered Out Monday Morning—Will Be Welcomed at Armory

After various kinds of delays and mis-information as to when Company M will be mustered out, the definite information is given that after battalion drill Monday morning at 9:30 o'clock at Camp Withcombe, the mustering out will begin. After the boys have received their discharges, they will be paid up to the time of release.

Then the next step will be the coming home Monday afternoon, and so far, there has been no means of knowing exactly what hour that will be.

But as the assurance is given that the boys will arrive Monday afternoon, the Salem Patriotic league has gone on with its plans for a banquet Monday evening at the armory, to be followed by a public reception beginning at 7:30 o'clock.

It is probable that the Cherrians, members of the Commercial club, members of the Grand Army of the Republic and organizations will escort the boys from the depot to the armory. Arrangements for the march from the depot to the armory will be made as soon as it is known at what hour the soldiers will arrive.
