

SOCIETY and CLUBS

By ALINE THOMPSON

Now that Salem society has paid due homage to the annual state fair, it soon will settle into its regular routine of diversions. Practically the entire week was given up to the festivity and to entertaining the scores of visitors from various parts of the country.

Aside from a few dinners, suppers and small informal gatherings the social calendar for this week has been practically a blank, all social affairs being held in abeyance while society flocked to the fair grounds to attend the races, the horse show and the medley of attractions that have characterized this season's fair. Beginning on Monday of the new month, however, will open with as gay a round of entertainments as ever delighted the socially inclined.

Plans are rapidly being formulated for a gay winter and soon the social festivities will once more be in full swing. Dancing of course, will occupy the limelight again this season, and already there are rumors of several smart affairs, the largest of which will probably be given during the legislature.

Although society has danced all summer long, it never tires of the social diversion and will rejoice at the announcement of the Hotel Marion dinner dances, which will start again Friday October the sixth and will continue every two weeks on Friday throughout the season.

The Booth string orchestra has been engaged again and a gay season is predicted for the dancing contingent, who find these dinner dances an excellent way to entertain groups of friends.

Charming girl visitors in Salem are Miss Zulette London of Vancouver, B. C., Miss Ann Dawson of Albany and Miss Marion Coffee of Portland, who are the house guests of the George F. Rodgers family.

Miss Dawson and Miss Coffee who are Kappa Alpha Theta sorority sisters of Miss Margaret Rodgers came home with her from the University of Oregon, Friday for the week end.

Mrs. William H. Burghardt, Jr., returned Thursday evening from Portland, where she has been the guest of her mother, Mrs. M. P. Draper. Mrs. Burghardt went to Portland early in the week to hear the "Tagore" lecture at the Lincoln high school. Miss May Kelley, who is the house guest of the Burghardts came Friday to attend the horse show, which was a big feature of the state fair this season.

Mrs. Robert Kinney (Althea Moore) of Astoria, who has been passing the week with her parents, Mr. and Mrs. A. N. Moore, will return home the first of the week, accompanying Mr. Kinney, who is expected today.

Miss Minnetta Magers has had visiting her during the week, Mrs. J. E. Magers of Portland.

Society friends of Miss Hazelle Erickson are much bestirred over the announcement of her marriage to Robert McKean of Seattle, Washington, which was solemnized this morning at the First Presbyterian church rectory, Rev. Carl H. Elliott officiating.

Although Mr. and Mrs. McKean have been engaged for sometime their marriage this morning came as a complete surprise, creating quite a thrill among the bride's close friends, who had planned to honor her with numerous pre-nuptial attentions.

The bride is the youngest daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Fred A. Erickson. She received her education in Salem and for several years has been devoting her leisure time to studying elocution. She is one of the prettiest girls in the younger set and has a charming manner that has made her a host of friends with whom she is very popular.

Mr. McKean is a University of Washington man, and a popular member of the Sigma Alpha Epsilon fraternity. He is a representative of the H. J. Hienz Co. with headquarters at Eugene.

Mr. and Mrs. McKean left for a short wedding trip to Seattle and the Sound cities and upon their return will make their home in Eugene at the Nettie apartments.

Mr. and Mrs. William Connell Dyer entertained Tuesday evening with an artistically-appointed dinner in honor of Mr. and Mrs. Elmer T. Ludden, who soon will leave for their new home in Grants Pass, Oregon.

The affair was most informal and charming, only a coterie of the younger married set, who are close friends of the Luddens being asked.

Circling the table which was adorned with a huge brass bowl of vivid yellow sun flowers and airy bows of lavender tulle were: the honor guests, Mr. and Mrs. Curtis B. Cross, Mr. and Mrs. Clyde Graham, Mr. and Mrs. Frank H. Spears and the hosts.

The Luddens departure the first of the month is the source of much regret among their many friends, who will make the remainder of their stay here delightful by numerous farewell attentions. Among the attractive affairs planned to honor Mrs. Ludden is the bridge party for which Mrs. Clyde Graham will be hostess Monday afternoon, guests being asked for four tables of the game.

Tuesday afternoon Mrs. Ludden will again be honored at a charming tea for which Mrs. Curtis B. Cross has asked a number of matrons and maids to bid adieu to the popular young matron.

Wednesday Mrs. Frank H. Spears will preside at a luncheon in honor of Mrs. Ludden.

Prominent visitors in Salem this week were Governor and Mrs. Ernest Lister of Washington who were here Friday to attend the state fair. They left today for Portland en route to Clarke county, Washington, where Governor Lister will make several political addresses.

Mr. and Mrs. Robert Chauncey Bishop were hosts Thursday evening for a stag dinner, in honor of Mr. Bishop's brother, Carl D. Gabrielson, on the occasion of his birthday.

The guests numbered 8 and were mostly the bachelor friends of Mr. Gabrielson who were at the border with Company M. A bowl of rose pink dahlias, adorned the prettily appointed table. After dinner an equal number of maids augmented the party and later the hosts and their guests motored out to the fair grounds to participate in the jittney dances.

Mr. and Mrs. Bishop asked as their guests: Mr. and Mrs. Clifford Brown, Mrs. Robert Kinney (Althea Moore) of Astoria, Miss Rita Steiner, Miss Mabel Withycombe, Miss Esther Carson, Miss Margery Marvin, Miss Barbara Steiner, Miss Ida Simmons, Miss Catharine Carson, Miss Althea Thompson, Laurence Hofer, Paul Wallace, Allan Hall, Ralph D. Moores, Joseph McAllister, Tom Ordemann, Ralph Coffin and Frank Miller.

Mr. and Mrs. W. C. Kerren (Anna Golden) of Portland are visiting the R. E. Lee Steiners. They will return home the first of the week.

Mr. and Mrs. Charles L. McNary had as their guests Thursday Mr. and Mrs. Ralph Williams and Mr. and Mrs. David M. Dunne of Portland, who motored to Salem to attend the state fair.

Miss Marcella Bynon was the honoree for a delightful informal affair, given by a coterie of her girl friends at the residence of her parents, Mr. and Mrs. Fred S. Bynon on Wednesday evening.

About fifteen of the younger contingent were asked to bid adieu to the popular maid, who leaves Sunday. The evening was made merry by games and dancing; refreshments closing the gayeties at a late hour.

Mr. and Mrs. Fred Fulton (Barbara Eakin) of Stanfield, and Mr. and Mrs. George MacLean (Marv Eakin) of Astoria, who have been the guests of the Henry B. Thielens family left today for Eugene where they will visit Mrs. Fulton and Mrs. MacLean's aunt, Mrs. Minnie Washburn. On their return home they will visit in Salem again for a day or so.

Mrs. Joseph Rothchild and small son, Fritz, of Portland are visiting at the country home of Mrs. Rothchild's father, William Egan. They came to Salem early in the week and will be joined tonight by Mr. Rothchild, who will remain over the week end.

Messages of congratulation are being sent to Mr. and Mrs. Hollister Chamberlain (Olive Metcalf) of Seattle, upon the advent of a son, born September the seventh.

Mr. and Mrs. Chamberlain have many friends in Salem, both having lived here before their marriage.

Mr. and Mrs. Oliver Locke have been entertaining as their guests for a few days, Mr. and Mrs. D. A. Dinsmore of Portland, who formerly lived in Salem. They returned to Portland Friday evening.

Mr. and Mrs. Grant Mays of Portland, who have been the guests of Dr. and Mrs. Harry H. Olinger for the state fair this week, returned home Friday.

Mr. and Mrs. Milton L. Meyers, accompanied by Mr. and Mrs. George G. Brown, motored to Corvallis Thursday. Mr. Meyers and Mr. Brown went to Corvallis to attend the annual meeting of the grand commandery, Knights Templar, of the state of Oregon.

Mrs. John Dubuis has as her house guests, Miss Roma Stafford of Portland, who will visit in Salem over the week end, and Mrs. A. B. Swathout of St. Anthony, Idaho.

Tuesday, Mrs. Dubuis will entertain with a Kensington in honor of Mrs. Swathout, who will be her guest for several days.

Mr. and Mrs. Robert Orr and small son of Pixley, California, who have been passing several weeks here visiting Mrs. A. Klein, left Tuesday. They motored home having made the trip to Oregon in their car.

Mr. and Mrs. S. W. Spencer of Heppner, who have also been the guests of Mrs. Klein, will leave tomorrow, accompanying Mr. and Mrs. C. A. Minor, who motored to Salem to attend the fair. Mr. Minor is one of the largest stock owners in Morrow county and has won several prizes on his exhibits at the fair.

An informal dinner party was given Thursday night by Mr. and Mrs. B. Tongue of Hillsboro, who entertained a group of friends at the Hotel Marion, where they have been guests during the state fair.

Their guests were Judge and Mrs. Lawrence T. Harris and Mr. and Mrs. Will of Hillsboro. Later the party attended the fair.

Mrs. Ben O. Schucking entertained as her guest for the fair Thursday, Mrs. T. C. Poorman of Woodburn.

Mrs. Joseph Nathan Teal of Portland entertained Thursday with a charming informal tea in honor of her house guest, Mrs. George Palmer Putnam, of Salem, who is en route to Bend, Oregon, where she will visit friends for a few weeks.

More than 35 of the younger married set and a few of the debutants responded to the hostess' cordial invitation, the rooms being aglow with vivid-hued garden flowers and greenery. Mrs. Hallett W. Maxwell, Miss Kathleen Hart, Miss Margery Hoffman and Mrs. Paul C. Giesy presided at the prettily appointed tea table.

Assisting about the rooms were Miss Jean Morrison, Miss Rhola Rumlind, Miss Nancy Zan and Miss Ruth Teal.

Mrs. Maek Hofer and small sons, Robert and Ernest, who have been enjoying a sojourn at their beach cottage, "Madinora," in Agate Beach, will return to town early in the week. Mr. Hofer went to the shore today to join his family and to accompany them home.

Mrs. Clifford Brown has as her house guest her sister, Miss Vivian Bretherton, of Portland.

Dr. and Mrs. Harry E. Clay have as their guests for over Sunday, Mrs. Clay's brother-in-law and sister, Mr. and Mrs. John Snyder and family of Milwaukie, Oregon.

Mrs. John Hughes of Portland is the house guest of her daughter, Mrs. A. N. Bush, for a few days.

Friends of Mrs. Corinne Riley Barker, who formerly lived in Salem, will be interested to know that she is now appearing in New York with Elsie Ferguson in "A New York Girl."

A wonderful picture of Mrs. Barker in her new role with Miss Ferguson appeared on the front page of the theatrical edition of the Morning Telegraph of September the seventeenth.

Mrs. W. H. Perkins and son, Master Richard Perkins, of Portland, are the guests of Mrs. Perkins' sister, Mrs. W. Melvin Plimpton. Mr. and Mrs. W. Plimpton of Portland, who have been visiting the Plimptons since the first of the week, motored home tonight.

To honor Mr. and Mrs. John W. Todd the new superintendent of the city schools, a reception will be given by the board of directors and teachers, Tuesday evening at the residence of Mr. and Mrs. A. A. Lee.

A delightful musical programme has been arranged by Miss Minnetta Magers, chairman of the committee, and will include piano solos Miss Ermine Bushnell; vocal solo, Miss Greta Phillips; whistling solo, Mrs. Lamoine Clarke; piano solo, Miss Cox; reading, Miss Merriam; piano solo, Miss Jessie Miller, who will also be the accompanist.

Of interest to Salem's younger set will be the announcement of the marriage of Miss Lucia Eugenia Campbell of Eugene to Sidney Elliott Henderson of Marshfield, Oregon, which will be solemnized in Eugene on Wednesday evening the eleventh of October.

The charming bride-elect, who has visited here on several occasions and has many friends in Salem society, is the daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Prince Lucian Campbell, the former being president of the University of Oregon. Miss Campbell is an attractive girl, very popular socially, a member of the Kappa Alpha Theta sorority and a graduate of the University of Oregon, from which college Mr. Henderson also was graduated.

Mr. Henderson is a prominent Sigma Nu and while in college was well known in athletic circles, being a member of both the track and foot ball teams. The engagement is the result of a romance that had its beginning in the university.

Mr. and Mrs. L. G. Haack and Mrs. A. Lomax of Portland, are visiting at the home of Mrs. Haack's mother, Mrs. L. U. Jose. They will return Sunday evening accompanied by Mr. Haack, who will motor to Salem for the day.

Mr. and Mrs. Paul Dick and F. T. Dick were among the Portlanders motoring to Salem for the fair Thursday. They were the guests of Mr. and Mrs. Charles L. Dick.

Miss Helen Calbreath of Portland has been the house guest of Mrs. George G. Bingham. Miss Calbreath who is a member of the Portland Hunt club came early in the week to attend the horse show.

She formerly lived in Salem, her father Dr. Calbreath, having been superintendent of the Oregon state hospital.

Miss Monroe Dodson, who has been the house guest of Mrs. Henry Corroyer for a couple of weeks, returned to her home in Baker, Oregon, Thursday. During her visit in Salem, Miss Dodson was the inspiration for a number of delightful affairs.

One of the largest affairs of the week was the annual joint reception given by the Y. M. and Y. W. C. A. associations in honor of the new students of the Willamette University Friday evening at Eaton Hall.

raisms, streamers of ivy and the glow of soft lights made an effective foil for the pretty gowns of those assisting.

The guests were greeted at the door by Miss Esther Taylor and Samuel King. In the receiving line were Charles Randall, president of the university; Y. M. C. A.; Miss Aetna Emmel, president of the Y. W. C. A.; Mrs. Carl Gregg Doney, Mrs. George H. Alden, Miss Junia Todd, Professor Wallace MacMurray, Miss Rosamund Gilbert, and Leigh Douglass. The newly organized university orchestra under the leadership of Miss Lucile McCully, played during the evening.

Prettily engraved booklets of Cardinal and Gold, the university colors, were distributed by Miss Flora Housal and Louis Stewart. The guests then became informally acquainted by exchanging signatures.

On the second floor, of the Hall, small tables were prettily arranged for refreshments. A group of young women of the upper classes assisted in the serving and included the Misses Ruth Spoor, Edith Bird, Ruth Green, Elizabeth Tebbin, Fern Wells, Mary Eyre, Vesta Mulligan, Caroline Sterling, Blanche Baker, Ruth Tasker, Olive Mason, Mildred Wiggins and Ruth Peninger.

Mrs. Leo G. Kraps of Long Beach, California, who has been visiting her parents, Mr. and Mrs. E. Malvin, and also Mr. Kraps' parents, Mr. and Mrs. J. J. Kraps, left Friday for her home in the south. En route Mrs. Kraps will visit friends in Ashland, Oregon, and Oakland, California.

Mrs. D. H. Talmadge has as her guest Mrs. Billings of Portland. Mrs. Billings is a long time friend of Mrs. Talmadge's and will visit here for several days.

Mr. and Mrs. Anderson Cannon and family and Mrs. Sarah Hovenden of Portland, who have been visiting at the M. L. Jones country home, "Lalish Meadows," this week, will motor home tomorrow.

Delightfully informal was the first program of the Adelante Literary society Friday afternoon which ushered in the fall semester's calendar of intellectual and social affairs for university women. Miss Lucile gave a pleasing piano solo and the Misses Gertrude Cunningham and Esther Emmel sang a duet, "Back Again," was the subject of an interesting paper, by Miss Lola Coley and "Our Aspirations for the Year," by Miss Emma Minton.

At the conclusion of the literary programme refreshments were served by the Misses Averill Harris, Charlotte Tebbin, Ruth Hodge, and Marie Taithey. The society halls were artistically decorated with sweet peas. Miss Gertrude Eakin and Miss Genevieve Evison were honor guests.

Considerable interest is being manifested in the two benefit plays "Hiawatha" and "The Glory of the Morning" to be presented by local talent at Ye Liberty theatre, Tuesday, Wednesday and Thursday nights of next week under the auspices of the North Salem Woman's club.

Mrs. Anna Rogers Fish is directing the production, the proceeds of which will be used for civic improvement. "Hiawatha," which was so well received during the Cherry fair was so well received that the club thought it advisable to repeat the production.

"The Glory of the Morning," a one act play typical of the life of the modern Indian, is somewhat similar to that of Hiawatha. The parts will be taken by Miss Lavonne Coppock, Clifford Osterlander, Glen Pierce, Miss Ruth Jones and Ted Howard.

The cast of "Hiawatha," which is practically the same as in the original production will include the following: "Hiawatha" as child, Paul Purvine, youth, Ted Howard, man, Lyle Bartholomew; "Audjekiwee," Rex Howard; "Logo," Richard Atkinson; "Kau-puk-Kievis," Rex Adolph; "Chibias," William Harris; "The Arrow Maker," Perry Riegelman; "The Priest," Father Moore; "A Youth," Donald Davidson; "Minnehaha," Pauline Remington; "Nakomis," Lucile DeWitt; "Pamine," Hester Welch; "Fever," Gella Wilson; women and warriors, Gretchen Brown, Gella and Pearl Burton, Laura Purvine, Florence Shafer, Hester Welch, Pansy Willard and Leona Bartlett; Philip Elliott, Roy-al Moore, David Howard, Will and Austin Frazier, Roscoe Clark, Raymond Clark, Glen Purvine.

Y. W. C. A. Notes

Y. W. C. A. rally Wednesday, October 4, 8 p. m. All young women of the city are cordially invited to attend.

The educational committee have worked hard in order to give the women of Salem a chance to study three eternal questions in a woman's life. Cooking, dressmaking and millinery. These classes will be organized Wednesday evening; all desiring to register are urged to be present. Information as to charges and arrangements for the various classes will be given that evening.

Young women, here is a rare opportunity, don't fail to join one or more of the classes. The Salem high school domestic science teachers will instruct all classes. If there is sufficient demand, classes will be organized in other studies.

A burlesque and short program will take place during the evening. Something new and something good. Come!

Governor Willis, Wife and Daughter Hurt

Delaware, Ohio, Sept. 30.—Governor Frank B. Willis, his wife and daughter, were injured here early this morning in an automobile accident. All three were removed to the city hospital. While none of their injuries will prove fatal, physicians said, Mrs. Willis and Helen Willis, age 18, are quite seriously hurt.

The governor, his wife and daughter were thrown out of a taxicab when it crashed into a city street car and a motor truck. Willis suffered a cut in the side and a sprained wrist.

Mrs. Willis has a severe scalp wound, is badly bruised and is suffering from shock. Miss Willis was severely bruised. The governor and his family were en route to the Hooking Valley station.

A rack that can be hung on a radiator to enable a person to warm his feet has been invented.
