By H. C. Hamilton.
 (United Press staff correspondent.)
 New York, Oct. 3.—John McGraw still stands today the best friend Wilbert Robinson has in baseball. But if winning a ball game at this crucial period in the fate of the Brooklyn Dodgers would have fractured that feeling, it is through no fault of McGraw's that he is still high in Robinson's estimation. Despite the hardest efforts of McGraw and his cohorts the Brooklyn club is hanging to the top in the race for the honor and final blow off meeting between Robinson and McGraw. So in the world's series, Philadelphia is now a full game behind, so Robbie has driven his charges into a position from where they will have a better chance at the windup, which now is only three games away for the Dodgers and four for the Phillies.

The Dodgers have three contest left with the Giants and the Phillies will clash with the Braves four more times, two of these still being on the schedule for this afternoon. The Dodgers have reached the peak of their efforts, but if they hold up now as they have in the past, their crowns are won. Jack Coombs Came Back. Jack Coombs, star for years, and now the greatest comeback in baseball, gets full credit for preserving the friendship between Robinson and McGraw. Fired by Ferdie Schupp, who rapidly is becoming the most feared left hander in the National league, he right handed his way to victory over the shutout route. It was the fifth time this year he has faced the Giants without a loss. Coombs, iron hearted as of old, pitched himself out of several precarious situations. Although the Giants several times had runners in a position to cross the rubber, the former Athletic successfully put on the screws each time.

Down in the Quaker City, where the Phillies and Braves were dividing a bargain bill at this crucial period of the campaign another hero was being crowned. Grover Cleveland Alexander went into battle against George Stallings' crew and won his game. It was the sixteenth shutout victory of the season for Alexander. Alexander's Great Work. The great Philadelphia pitcher has done something in the last two weeks that few pitchers of his age would be willing to attempt. Just before the Phillies and Dodgers clashed last week at Ebbets Field Alexander pitched and won both games of a double header. This day he went to the mound again and pitched the Dodgers. Saturday he tried it again and lost. And yesterday, with only a day of rest, he came back and turned the Braves back without a run, allowing only three hits. Alexander has made good his promise to work every other day if necessary to win the pennant for Philadelphia. And he is ready to work again tomorrow.

The Dodgers have decided the better of the situation as it stands today. If they win their remaining trio of contests with the Giants, the glory will be with them. But if the Giants take two of the remaining contests and the Phils succeed in winning three of their four with the Braves, Pat Moran and Bill Carrigan again will be the rival managers in the world's series. The Dodgers have the "edge" mainly because Alexander and Ferdie Schupp have been put out of the way for a day or so. Pat Moran must depend on Eppa Rixey or Erskine Mayer to win for him this afternoon, and it reports are true, Rixey almost brained himself yesterday when he tried to lift the Philly bench by a sudden punch with his head. The Dodgers still have Sherrod Smith, Larry Clevary, Rube Marquard and Jeff Pfeffer to fling at the Giants.

Registration Books Close Saturday Night
 Particular attention of the voters of Salem is directed by the Marion county clerk to the fact that the registration books for the coming state and county election in November will close next Saturday night. In order to accommodate those who have not yet registered, the books in the county clerk's office will be kept open Thursday, Friday and Saturday during the noon hour and also from 5 until 8 o'clock in the evening. Only those who did not register before the primaries in the spring and those who have changed residence and moved to other precincts are required to register at this time. This registration is for county and state elections and must not be confused with the city election requirements, which necessitate another registration at the city hall. This registration at the city hall is permanent for the city elections and is changed only on change of residence. Voters who wish to cast ballots for city officers will be required to file their names with the recorder at the city hall. Election notices have been prepared and are now in the hands of the printer, according to the county clerk.

ARRANGING DETAILS FOR WORLD'S SERIES

Commission Met Today to Perfect Plans for Championship Games

New York, Oct. 3.—The National Baseball commission met here today in the first of a series of meetings which will arrange details for the world's baseball championship clashes. Gary Herrmann, president of the commission, was first to arrive and when he couldn't locate his colleagues, President Johnson of the American league and President Tenner of the National, he announced a postponement until tomorrow. When Johnson and Tenner showed up later it was decided to meet at once. No member of the National commission would confirm the rumor that the formality of tossing a coin would be dispensed with in deciding which city would have the opening game of the series if Philadelphia wins the National league pennant. Two schedules probably will be arranged, one providing for a Brooklyn victory in the close National league, and the other for Philadelphia.

Details As Completed.
 New York, Oct. 3.—The first and second games of the world's series will be played in Boston on October 7 and 9. The National Baseball commission so decided at its meeting here today. After the Saturday and Monday games in Boston the teams will play two games in Brooklyn or Philadelphia, depending upon which wins the National league pennant. If a fifth game is necessary it will be played in Boston and if a sixth, in Philadelphia or Brooklyn. If the series runs to seven games, decision as to the place for the last game will be made at a special meeting in Boston. Headquarters selected in Boston were the Copley Plaza hotel; in Philadelphia, Bellevue-Stratford; in Brooklyn, the Borsert. The commission decided it would be advisable to have a Friday of rest after close of the season, so picked Saturday as the date of the first game. umpires were not selected. J. D. Taylor Sink will be official scorer and will have assistants from the cities where the championship games are held. The commission held the following players eligible for the world's series contests: Brooklyn: Appleton, Cuthaw, Coombs, Cheney, Dauter, Dell, Getz, Johnston, Miller, Malis, Myers, Markle, Marquard, Meyers, Mowrey, Olson, Omara, Pfeffer, Rucker, Smith, Stengel and Wheat. Boston: Agnew, Barry, Cady, Foster, Gainer, Gardner, Gregg, Henriksen, Hoblitzell, Hooper, Janvrin, Jones, Leonard, Lewis, Mays, McNally, Ruth, Scott, Shore, Shorten, Thomas, Walker, Walsh and Wreckoff. Philadelphia: Alexander, Adams, Burns, Baueroff, Niehoff, Stock, Renter, Byrne, Chalmers, Cooper, Oeschger, Whitted, Cavath, Dugy, Denaree, Good, Paskert, Killifer, Luderus, Mayer, Rixey and McQuillen.

 Vernon-Salt Lake series starts at Los Angeles tomorrow.

Yesterday's big league hero was Eppa Rixey. Although he didn't get into a ball game, Rixey heroically tried to save himself injury by jumping out of the way of a thrown ball and almost fractured the top of the Phillies dug-out. Steamer Al Demaree pitched a good game, good enough for most any championship team to win behind, but Roulback was just that much better and the Braves got an even break. Luderus and Whitted set the Braves down in the first game in which Alexander allowed only three hits and no runs. The Red Sox didn't have to, but they went out and trimmed the Athletics. Shore and Jones divided the pitching duties for the champions. Bob Shawkey and his red flannel shirt took the opening game of the final series between Washington and the Yankees. Home Run Baker got one each extra base hit and it was only a triple. Jack Coombs snatched the calcium from Rube Marquard when he blanked the Giants. Freddie Schupp deserved a runless tie, but his fellow Giants fell down on the job of making runs. Kauff fanned with the bases full. The Fourteenth regiment, including "Bum", a diminutive burro, the regiment's mascot, saw the game and then showed the Brooklynites how they learned to drill on the border.

Like that "pinch" hit in the 9th—they satisfy!

Two out in the 9th! The "pinch" hitter lines a beauty over "short." In comes the winning run. The "fans" go wild—it certainly satisfies! That's what Chesterfields do when you smoke—they satisfy! Still, they're MILD! It is this combination of "satisfy" with mildness that is giving smokers that new cigarette enjoyment! But only Chesterfields can give it to them, for the good reason that no cigarette maker can copy the Chesterfield blend! Try Chesterfields today!

Brooklyn Wins Pennant
 New York, Oct. 3.—The Brooklyn Dodgers and the Boston Red Sox will open the world's series in Boston Saturday.  * Thus if Philadelphia wins its remaining two games and Brooklyn loses its two, the final standing will be:
 Club—Won. Lost. Percent
 * Brooklyn . . . 93 61 .604
 * Philadelphia . . . 92 61 .601

Stock Market Repulses Hot Attack by Bears
 New York, Oct. 3.—The New York Evening Sun financial review today says:
 In the face of active efforts by professional traders to drive prices to materially lower levels today the general list held remarkably well, with many instances of actual strength and the upshot decided indications of strong underlying market conditions. Bear pressure was effective in attracting some commission house selling, chiefly of a weak variety and against stop orders, while it served to check aggressive public buying, but it failed, however, to shake the confidence of substantial holders in their theory that reactions in the current prices are nothing more than movements which accompany all periods of advancing market values. Morning losses, as a rule, were followed by recoveries, which, in the early afternoon developed into positive strength. Increased business on advancing prices was reported in the last hour. U. G. Holt, of the Chas. K. Spaulding Logging company, reports that construction of an extension to the company's logging road near Black Rock, Polk county, is being pushed as fast as possible and that by next spring sufficient work will have been done to tap a timber area and make available at least 100,000,000 feet of timber. This amount of timber, according to Mr. Holt, would supply a lumber mill for four years. Work will be continued this winter as long as the weather will permit so as to be ready for spring logging. The construction is being done on the summit of the Coast range mountains where the Falls City and Siletz wagon road crosses.

Wheat Reaches Record Due to Argentine Reports
 Chicago, Oct. 3.—December wheat reached its record high price this season today at $1.58 5/8. Continued reports of drought in Argentine and sharp advances in Liverpool cables were chiefly responsible. December was up 1-8 at $1.58 5/8; May up 3-4 at $1.58. Corn had a strong undertone. Good buying in the face of light offerings caused slight upward tendencies. December was up 1-8 at 74 7/8; May up 1-4 at 77 3/8. Oats showed a slight falling off because of the large supplies visible. December was down 1-8 at 48 3/4; May down 1-8 at 51 3/4. Provisions were sharply lower on falling hog prices at the yards. Everybody's happy when everybody's busy. Resourcefulness is a great asset when your back is against the wall.
