URIC ACID IN MEAT CLOGS THE KIDNEYS

Take a Glass of Salts If Your Back Hurts or Bladder Bothers You---Drink More Water

If you must have your meat every day, eat it, but flush your kidneys with salts occasionally, says a noted authority who tells us that meat forms uric acid which almost paralyzes the kidneys in their efforts to expel it from the blood. They become sluggish and weaken, then you suffer with a dull misery in the kidney region, sharp pains in the back or sick headache, dizziness, your stomach sours, tongue is coated and when the weather is bad you have rheumatic twinges. The urine gets cloudy, full of sediment, the channels often get sore and irritated, obliging you to seek relief two or three times during the night.

To neutralize these irritating acids, to cleanse the kidneys and flush off the body's urinous waste get four ounces of Jad Salts from any pharmacy here; take a tablespoonful in a glass of water before breakfast for a few days and your kidneys will then act fine This famous salts is made from the acid of grapes and lemon juice, combined with lithia, and has been used for generations to flush and stimulate sluggish kidneys, also to neutralize the acids in urine, so it no longer irritates, thus ending bladder weakness.

Jad Salts is inexpensive; cannot injure, and makes a delightful effervescent lithia-water drink.

BRASS BAND MEETS WOMEN AT CHICAGO

Luncheon to 750 Women Part of Reception---Leave for West Tomorrow

Chicago, Oct. 5.—When the women's Hughes campaign special reached here at noon today, scores of gaily decorated automobiles lined up behind a big brass band to greet the women stumpers.

The visitors were taken to Grant park for a giant open air reception and then a parade was formed and after a march through Michigan avenue and the loop, a mammoth luncheon of 750 women at the LaSalle hotel was given, at which Alvin T. Hart, western campaign manager for Hughes, Mrs. Raymond Robins, Dr. Katherine B. Davis of New York, Mrs. Harriet Vittum and others spoke. Street meetings in front of big industrial establishments will be held late today, as the workers are leaving for their homes. Tonight the visitors will occupy boxes at the republican rally when Albert T. Beveridge speaks.

Leaving here at 3 a. m. tomorrow, the women's special will reach Rock Island at 7 a. m. and stay until 11. It will arrive in Cedar Rapids, Iowa, at 1 p. m. and leave at 3 p. m. for Waterloo, reaching there at 5 p. m. for an evening meeting.

The train leaves Waterloo at 1 a. m. Saturday, and reaches St. Paul at 10 a. m.

From 8 a. m. until 2 p. m. Wednesday they will be in Helena, Mont., and the evening meetings will be held at Butte. From there the party will go to Missoula and on into Washington and Oregon and then turn south to San Francisco.

As the women campaigners stepped from the Hughes' woman's special they were greeted by a crowd of working women who carried signs urging Wilson's election. While the Hughes women were leaving their train the Wilson women heckled them and shouted "We want Wilson!"

FAIRBANKS TALKS TO 800 AT EUGENE

Says Oregon's Lack of Prosperity Due to Underwood Tariff

Eugene, Ore., Oct. 6.—"Charles E. Hughes stands for the policies of the republican party and those policies stand for the American people. I think the democrats will be kicked out of power November 7."

With this assertion Charles W. Fairbanks, of Indiana, republican vice-presidential candidate invaded Oregon today on his tour of the United States.

Governor Withycombe and Ralph Williams, republican state chairman, met Fairbanks at Eugene. He was escorted by a delegation to a theatre where he spoke to 800 people.

Fairbanks referred to the present American prosperity as "leopard prosperity," saying it "broke out in spots."

"The republican party," he declared, "spreads prosperity like a blanket from sea to sea.

"Why are your Pacific coast industries idle? Because of the Underwood law. It is plain evidence that democracy and prosperity do not go hand in hand together."

Salem-Eugene Contest Has Nearly Even Break

Salem, 26,750.
Eugene, 25,600.

That is the standing of the two Y. M C. A. associations that are battling now for membership honors. It is believed by the generals in charge of the recruiting contest here that Eugene is holding back a large proportion of her members and that at the last moment will send in between 7,500 and 100,000 points. However, the Salem men are working hard and enthusiastically and making every effort to win.

The standing of the generals is as follows: General Rowland, 8,800; General Elliott, 18,900. The various captains have the following points to their credit: Captain Cox, 4,450; Captain Porter, 750; Captain Staley, 500; Captain Lucker, 950; Captain Berger, 5,500; Captain Shafer, 8,400, and Captain Moore, 950.

It is expected that the Y. M. tank will scarcely hold the boys Saturday night when the association boys take their swim and wait for news of the contest from Eugene. Interest in the outcome of the engagement is keen and numbers have signified their intention of being present. But whether they win or not the boys plan on having a first class swim and wash the dust of battle from them.

Spontaneous Combustion Cause of Many Fires

There are few men in the northwest, or in any other part of the country for that matter, who take a more active interest interest in the matter of fire protection than does Harvey Wells, state commissioner of insurance. By means of newspaper clippings Commissioner Wells has compiled a list of fires which have occurred in Oregon during the month of September. This list gives 43 towns reporting fires ranging from $10 up to $150,000 and totaling $335,310. Farm property seems to have suffered most, for the clippings show the loss of eight barns and fourteen dwellings on farms. In the matter of barns the report for October will show an increase over these figures in all probability, as the burning of seven barns has already been reported this week.

Married In Haste Repents at Leisure

Tacoma, Wash., Oct. 6.—Mrs. Elsie Hassan Bamford, bride of a week who caused her fleeing husband to be arrested at San Francisco on a charge of desertion, said today she is undecided whether or not to have him brought back to Tacoma.

"What I want to know," said the bride, who was formerly manicurist in a local hotel where she became acquainted with Bamford, "is what his intentions toward me are. I want him to do the right thing. I want him to explain."

The young woman said Bamford represented himself as sole American representative of a big silk house in London and said his home was in Binghampton, N. Y., where his relatives are prominent in society.

"It was a case of love at first sight," said Mrs. Bamford today. "I had known him less than a week. We went to Seattle and were married September 25. The following Monday he disappeared and I took my complaint to the prosecuting attorney's office."

BEGIN HOT WATER DRINKING IF YOU DON'T FEEL RIGHT

Says glass of hot water with phosphate before breakfast washes out poisons.

If you wake up with a bad taste, bad breath and tongue is coated; if your head is dull or aching; if what you eat sours and forms gas and acid in stomach, or you are bilious, constipated, nervous, sallow and can't get feeling just right, begin inside bathing. Drink before breakfast, a glass of real hot water with a teaspoonful of limestone phosphate in it. This will flush the poisons and toxins from stomach, liver, kidneys and bowels and cleanse sweeten and purify the entire alimentary tract. Do your inside bathing immediately upon arising in the morning to wash out of the system all the previous day's poisonous waste, gases and sour bile before putting more food into the stomach.

To feel like young folks feel; like you felt before your blood, nerves and muscles became loaded with body impurities, get from your pharmacist a quarter pound of limestone phosphate which is inexpensive and almost tasteless, except for a sourish twinge which is not unpleasant.

Just as soap and hot water act on the skin, cleansing, sweetening and freshening, so hot water and limestone phosphate act on the stomach, liver, kidneys and bowels. Men and women who are usually constipated, bilious, headachy or have any stomach disorder should begin this inside bathing before breakfast. They are assured they will become real cranks on the subject shortly.

Asked as to the probable cause of so many barn fires, Commissioner Wells replied briefly, "spontaneous combustion." Then he dug up a copy of the fire prevention bulletin and called attention to the following paragraph contained therein:

"Sweating hay produces spontaneous combustion. The hay in the center of the mow, after being heated, begins to char. Charcoal sucks oxygen from the little air left, and it gets so hot that it bursts into flame. Shredded fodder sometimes sets itself on fire. The hayloft should be ventilated by openings in both ends."

THOUSANDS OF SICK WOMEN

Helped Every Year by Common Sense Suggestions Given Free by The Lydia E. Pinkham Medicine Co.

For forty years women suffering from all kinds of female ills have been writing the Lydia E. Pinkham Medicine Co. of Lynn, Mass., for advice.

Thus they receive common sense suggestions drawn from a vast volume of experience, and thousands of sick women have been saved from untold suffering, as letters like the following clearly show:—

Newark, Ohio.—"Lydia E. Pinkham's Vegetable Compound has made me a well woman. Your Sanative Wash is just the thing to overcome female weakness. I have told young mothers as well as older ones about your remedies, and what they have done for me. I think Lydia E. Pinkham's Vegetable Compound saved my life, as my health was very bad when I wrote you, but now I can do my own work and have not had a sick day since I began taking your remedies. I keep the Compound and Liver Pills on hand all the time."—Mrs. GEO. THOMPSON, 24 Sherwood Court, Newark, Ohio.

As a result they feel this section of the country will "swing safely into line"—and they claim to worry not at all about the visit of Charles E. Hughes in Nebraska, later this month.

"It would be very difficult to do justice to an occasion of this kind," began the president on his auditorium speech last night. He spoke of the importance of the west, mentioning Nebraska particularly, and praised the people who came from Europe to seek freedom. The doors of the United States, he said, were built to be kept open, not to be closed. He paid tribute to the western pioneers.

"In order to carry out a program you must have unification of spirit in America," he continued. "There can be no program without a unified course behind it.

"It is very important that the statesmen of other nations should understand America. We have held off from the conflagration in Europe because we wanted to play a different part."

The president was interrupted by applause and shouts of "We thank you."

The causes of the European war, the president said, were not plainly known.

The president declared there was no use fighting over petty things. He discussed the attitude of George Washington on entangling alliances, saying he did not believe Washington meant the United States should not come into contact with the world.

An Amusing Incident
By Robert J. Bender

(United Press staff correspondent)

Chicago, Oct. 6.—(On board President Wilson's train)—Odds of 16 to 1 were placed on Woodrow Wilson today in the little hamlet of Malta, Ill. This is how it happened.

Half a mile from the Malta station, the president's train stopped to take on water. Knowing that no stop was scheduled at the station, seventeen women, constituting the leading politicians of the little village left their early morning house work and in aprons and sunbonnets trudged over the ties to the watering tank to greet him.

"Well good morning," the president said, surprised to see visitors so far from the station.

For several moments he was subjected to careful scrutiny. Finally one woman spoke.

"I admire you very much Mr. Wilson but I am a republican and will have to vote for Hughes."

Then a storm broke:

"Aren't you ashamed of it,"—"well you're the only one in these parts that will"—"he's our next president and well deserves it"—"its an honor to our little town that he should stop here at all."

These and other remarks broke from the other sixteen women in a confused storm of indignation.

"There are seventeen of us here," one said, "and all but one are for Mr. Wilson."

The debate was warm. Charges of political intrigue were registered finally the president who was watching the outbreak with vast amusement, stopped it by saying:

"Ladies, ladies you can't imagine how embarrassing it is for me to stand here as a witiness and judge over the debate."

Then all laughed and shook hands with the executive and the train pulled out.

Throughout the episode Mrs. Wilson sat inside the car convulsed with laughter.

The president stopped off here for an hour and a half this morning, leaving at 12:40 this afternoon for Long Branch, N. J. Governor Dunne and Senator Walsh, from democratic western headquarters, discussed the political situation with the president in his car. Governor Dunne afterwards said it was almost certain the president would address the women of Chicago on the afternoon of October 15, when he comes to make a big night address in the stockyards district.

President Wilson was disappointed not to have been awakened in time to greet 3,000 people who swarmed about the train at Clinton, Iowa, early today.

Greatly encouraged at the reception accorded him on his first trip west since his nomination, the president today is preparing a "punchy" speech, to be delivered tomorrow afternoon from the porch of Shadow Lawn to a delegation of "Wilson independents."

SUBMARINE WAR

in the chancellorship the next chancellor would not change the government's policy without guaranteeing that he would win the war by so doing. The whole object of the war is to end it. No one should be so wild as to want to fight with two edge swords and pistols in each hand when he would injure himself more than his enemy.

"Only If It Would Win."

"My own opinion is that submarining is not to be commended because the Tages Zeitung or some other critic demands it. If, however, any marine officer convinces the general staff and the latter placed the proof before the chancellor that by using submarines, Zeppelins, the fleet or anything else, the war could be won, and if the chancellor didn't follow this advice, he would deserve to be hanged. Germany must win the war. Germany must use the weapons with which she is certain she can win it."

"But Americans believe that if the chancellor were overthrown and succeeded by a representative of the Von Tirpitz party, submarining would be recommended, perhaps endangering again good relations between the United States and Germany," he was told.

"The Von Tirpitz affair is settled," he answered emphatically. "The explosion now being aired in the press has helped to bury it. The chancellor is not going to be overthrown. The government is not going to undergo any change. Even if a new chancellor would come tomorrow there would be no change in policy.

"The people who are really interested in seeing Germany win realize this."

In Macedonia, Bulgarian troops have repulsed British attacks against Nevolen.

Russian Loss 6,000,000.

Berlin, via wireless to Sayville, L. I., Oct. 6.—Russia has lost six million men during the first two years of the war, according to estimates from Danish sources given out by the semi-official news agency today.

Lloyd-George's prophecy to the United Press that Russia will "fight to the death" is now about to be realized literally, the news agency commented, since Russian losses in the Galician fighting are again mounting to a figure which even that populous country cannot stand.

In the battle at Korytnica, which resulted victoriously for the Germans, Russian columns were driven forward under curtains of fire and whips. The entire Russian waves fell under German artillery and machine gun fire and dead bodies formed "mountains," the news agency declared. The czar's guards were completely wiped out during the bloody fighting near Pustomty and Korytnica, after having suffered heavy losses on the Stochod river.

TO IMPROVE EXPRESSION AS WELL AS COMPLEXION

No face is really beautiful that lacks expression. Do you realize that continual use of powders and creams tends to spoil pliancy of skin and elasticity of expression? Why not quit cosmetics, use something better, which won't clog the pores or make the skin dry, pasty or oily? Ordinary mercolized wax acts quite differently from any cosmetic. It wonderfully improves any complexion, giving it life and expression. By gradually, harmlessly peeling off the thin veil of surface skin, it brings to view a pure, soft, spotless complexion, delicately beautiful and youthful. Every druggist has this wax; it is seldom more than an ounce is needed. It is spread on nightly like cold cream and washed off mornings. In a week or two the transformation is complete.

Wrinkles do not of course enhance the expression. Neither do the pasty things many use to eradicate them. A treatment free from all objection is made by dissolving an ounce of powdered saxolite in a half pint of witch hazel; use as a wash lotion. This soon removes even the most obstinate wrinkles.

Killed Her Rival and Then Herself

Willows, Cal., Oct. 6.—Jealous because she feared her victim was about to steal her husband's love, Mrs. H. C. Tipton, age 30, today shot and killed Miss Birdie Noble, age 20, and then committed suicide.

Miss Noble lodged at the Tipton home and worked in Tipton's candy store in a local hotel. Mrs. Tipton had been exceedingly jealous of her recently. She left a note, written before the tragedy, in which she revealed her intention to kill her youngest boy, but the lad was not at home and escaped.

Mrs. Tipton's note follows:

"I can stand it no longer. She shall not have you. I will take our youngest boy with me."

The Tiptons and Miss Noble came here from Colusa.

AN ARTISTIC BOOKLET

An artistic booklet or rather a pamphlet has been issued entitled "Architecture," by George M. Post. Besides containing the cards of the leading dealers in building materials, the booklet shows drawings of what has been done by Mr. Post in Salem. This includes the band stand in Willson park, given to the city by Joseph H. Albert; the public library; W. W. Moore building and the new McGilchrist building on State and Liberty streets. Other buildings whose plans have been drawn by Mr. Post and shown in the booklet are the new Wexford building occupied and built for the Geer-Kreuger furniture store, the McKinley school building, Derby building at Court and High streets, and the city hall building of Woodburn. Theatres whose plans were drawn by Mr. Post are the Ye Liberty of Salem and the Theatre building of Albany. The booklet also shows the home of Chas. R. Spaulding with a view of the living room, the Russell Catlin home and the William McGilchrist, Jr., home.

SIMPLE WAY TO END DANDRUFF

There is one sure way that has never failed to remove dandruff at once, and that is to dissolve it, then you destroy it entirely. To do this, just get about four ounces of plain, common liquid arvon from any drug store (this is all you will need), apply it at night when retiring; use enough to moisten the scalp and rub it in gently with the finger tips.

By morning, most if not all, of your dandruff will be gone, and three or four more applications will completely dissolve and entirely destroy every single sign and trace of it, no matter how much dandruff you may have.

You will find all itching and digging of the scalp will stop instantly, and your hair will be fluffy, lustrous, glossy, silky and soft, and look and feel a hundred times better.
