ALL THAT WAS LEFT OF ZEPPELIN BROUGHT DOWN NEAR LONDON

WRECKAGE OF ZEPPELIN IN ENGLAND

The proverbial grease spot might be brought into play in describing this picture of the wrecked Zeppelin brought down at Cuffley, England, on the far northern outskirts of London on Sept. 3 last. This is the first picture of the wreck to arrive in this country, and while not a very great deal of wreckage can be seen here, a little stretch of your imagination and fact gives a wonderful story. Just picture the great drop to the earth, then the awful impact with the ground, and you can easily see the once mighty airship of steel and aluminum flattened mass. The Victoria Cross was bestowed upon 20-year-old Lieutenant Leota Robinson of the Royal Flying Corps for bringing down the Zeppelin raider. The award of the cross has given general satisfaction in England, and Robinson's name is on everybody's lips.

Catarrahal Deafness Cannot Be Cured by local applications, as they cannot reach the diseased portion of the ear. There is only one way to cure catarrahal deafness, and that is by a constitutional remedy. Catarrahal Deafness is caused by an inflamed condition of the mucous lining of the Eustachian Tube. When this tube is inflamed you have a running sound or imperfect hearing, and when it is entirely closed, Deafness is the result. Unless the inflammation can be reduced and this tube restored to its normal condition, hearing will be destroyed forever. Many cases of deafness are caused by catarrh, which is an inflamed condition of the mucous surfaces. Hall's Catarrh Cure sets into the blood on the mucous surfaces of the system.

We will give One Hundred Dollars for any case of Catarrahal Deafness that cannot be cured by Hall's Catarrh Cure. Circulars free. All Druggists, 75c. F. J. CHENEY & CO., Toledo, O.

Philippine Boy Comes to Oregon for Architecture

University of Oregon, Eugene, Oct. 7.—To study architecture, to gather broader experience in the world, and to find what he calls "the true path to success," Eulogio A. Gorospe, of Vigan, I. S., Philippines, and a graduate of the Vigan high school in 1913, has registered at the University of Oregon.

Mr. Gorospe, when a mere boy, earned considerable money by drawing and selling pictures of his friends. He works in crayon and water colors.

Several Big Horn Sheep Survive in Stein's Range

University of Oregon, Eugene, Oct. 7.—Although much of Oregon has been settled for more than 40 years, there are still spots where game birds and animals are as plentiful as they were a century ago. Along Malheur lake the flight of water fowl sometimes makes a roar as loud as waterfalls. In Stein's mountains in Harney county there are still several thousand antelope and a few big horn sheep.

OREGON ONCE MORE URGED TO GO FOR FOREIGN TRADE

University of Oregon, Eugene, Oct. 7.—Another man has brought to the commerce students of the state university the message that to achieve lasting prosperity, Oregon must develop a big foreign trade, and not depend upon the development of her resources. The man was Ansel R. Clark, representative of the United States department of foreign and domestic commerce and foreign credits secretary of the Portland chamber of commerce.

It is his intention to establish himself eventually in Manila, where he says architects are now few. "Probably many Americans do not know that the Philippines have a university older than any college in America," said Mr. Gorospe. "The University of Santo Tomas, in Manila, was founded by the Jesuits, three years after the settlement of Jamestown, Va. Popular education was established in 1623."

"Then we have the Philippine university, founded by the United States government. This school, which is conducted by both Filipinos and Americans, is reputed to have the finest medical department in the Orient."

New Secretary For Ireland Has Strong Home Rule Leanings

Sir Henry Edward Duke, the new chief secretary for Ireland, is credited with strong home rule leanings. This despite the fact that he is a member of the Unionist party. In a speech in the house of commons some two or three years ago he urged a home rule settlement. The sentiment he repeated in a recent speech in Exeter. Sir Henry Edward Duke is a barrister and Unionist member of parliament for Exeter and succeeded Augustine Birrell, who resigned after the Irish uprising. The new chief secretary has been given a seat in the cabinet. No new lord lieutenant of Ireland will be appointed to succeed Lord Wimborne, who also resigned after the outbreak of the Dublin rebellion.

SIR H. E. DUKE

FANATICS OPPOSE WILSON

(Medford Mail-Tribune.) Similar to the byphen issue is the religious issue injected into the campaign. The anti-Catholic papers and A. P. A. organs like the "Menace" and "Yellow Jacket" have for months assailed the president because his private secretary, Mr. Tomully, happened to be a Catholic in religion. The abuse has been unremitting and constant and it was declared that Rome ruled the administration.

CORN SHOW AT ST. PAUL

In connection with the 4th annual corn show, to be given at St. Paul, Ore., November 11th, there will be several prizes given for largest and best stalk of silage corn with two or more sufficiently mature ears. This will supplement the prizes on the best single ear, 10-ear and 100-ear lots, as well as 12-car lots of sweet corn and pop corn. The individual exhibit feature will also be favored more liberally than last year.

Nothing has been lacking in the campaign of both Catholic and anti-Catholic bigots to stir up religious fanaticism and hatred against the president, which is proof that the president has followed American ideals of religious freedom.

With religious fanatics of both factions opposing the president, it is up to Americans who believe in religious tolerance to support his truly American policy.
