GOVERNOR PROCLAIMS FIRE PREVENTION DAY

Whereas The great destruction of property annually incurred through fire may in a great measure be decreased by education and by arousing public interest in the problems of prevention, and

Whereas, There is no field of real "preparedness" that may be practiced more profitably, and

Whereas, October 9 is the anniversary of the historic Chicago conflagration, therefore,

I do hereby designate Monday, October 9, 1916, as Fire Prevention day in Oregon. And I urge that on that day organized effort may be made throughout the state to encourage a campaign that will lessen fire hazard. I suggest that individuals and communities under take home and municipal house cleaning and inspection with a view to removing rubbish, and safeguarding heating and lighting appliances; that the fire fighting apparatus of the factories be tested out on that day; that schools devote at least a brief period to discussing the subject of fire prevention; and that every encouragement be given to the development of a healthy public interest in the many problems of fire hazard.

In Witness Whereof, I have hereunto set my hand and caused the great seal of the state of Oregon to be hereunto affixed this 30th day of September, 1916.

FIRE LOSS IN SALEM IS ONLY $18,500

Damage Is Third Largest in State; Blazes Number Five, Says Report

Fire loss in Salem for September totaled $18,500, which is the third largest loss of any city in the state, according to a report made by State Insurance Commissioner Harvey Wells. The largest single loss in the state was a fire which burned a wheat warehouse at Adams, Umatilla county, doing damage amounting to $150,000.

The only other Marion county city suffering from fire was Silverton, where a dwelling burned at a loss of $1500.

The fires in Salem were three hop houses, a barn and a seed exhibit.

Total losses for the state for the month were $335,310. Farmers suffered heaviest, reports showing that eight barns and fourteen farm houses were burned. The total number of fires was forty three.

Boston—Hobbitzell up, strike one, Hobbitzell out Olson to Daubert. Lewis up, strike one called, ball one, Lewis singled cleanly through short Gardner up. In trying to catch Lewis off first, Smith threw most of the Sox off their bench when a balk was allowed. Gardner shot a hot one to Mowrey, who threw out Lewis at second. Olson to Cutshaw. Gardner stopped at first. Scott up, foul strike one. Gardner out, Miller to Daubert. No runs, one hit, no errors.

Both Mowrey and Olson got an assist on Lewis out. Gardner's wallop was really too hot for Mowrey to handle, but the ball caromed off Mowrey's hands. He then threw to Cutshaw. After repeated attempts to catch Gardner off first, the Dodgers succeeded by a quick throw by Miller.

Brooklyn—Miller up, Miller out, Scott to Hobbitzell, hitting the first ball pitched. Smith up, strike one, called, Smith doubled to right field and was out at third. Hooper to Walker to Scott. Johnston up, strike one, called, ball one, ball two, strike two, called, ball three, Johnston singled to center. Daubert up, Daubert foul strike one, Daubert missed getting on his feet when he popped along the left field line, ball two, Johnston out, stealing. Thomas to Janvrin. No runs, two hits, no errors.

The Red Sox gave an exhibition of rapid relaying from deep right when Smith was thrown out at third. Walker ran into the base line to take Hooper's throw and then shot it to Scott.

Boston—Scott up, ball one, ball two, strike one, called. The crowd went into spasms. Thomas up, Thomas out, Cutshaw to Daubert. Scott was held at third. Ruth up, Ruth out, Cutshaw to Daubert, Scott scored. Hooper up, foul, strike one, Hooper was safe on first on Cutshaw's error. Janvrin up, Janvrin forced Hooper, Olson to Cutshaw. One run, one hit, one error.

Cutshaw had a rough start in this inning. Slow fielding on his part permitted Scott to score. He let Hooper's grounder go through his legs.

Fifth Inning Brooklyn—Cutshaw up, foul, strike one, strike two, swung, strike three, Cutshaw fanned. Mowrey up, strike one, called, Mowrey out, Janvrin to Hobbitzell. Olson up, Olson singled to left. Miller up, foul strike one, ball one, Miller flew to Hooper. No runs, one hit, no errors.

Boston—Gardner up, Gardner out, Cutshaw to Daubert on the first ball pitched. Scott up, ball one, Scott out, Mowrey to Daubert. Thomas up, strike one, called, ball one, foul, strike two, Thomas doubled to left, and on Olson's interference Empire Quigley ordered Thomas to continue third. Official scorers gave Thomas a three base hit. He tripped over Olson's foot as he rounded second and Thomas fell. He turned back to second, but Quigley ordered him on to third. Olson's interference was accidental. Ruth up, strike one, called, strike two, swung, Ruth fanned. No runs, one hit, no errors.

Sixth Inning Brooklyn—Smith up, Smith out, Scott to Hobbitzell, it was a beautiful stop and throw. Johnston up, ball one, ball two, ball three, ball four. Johnston walked. Daubert up, strike one, called. Johnston out, stealing. Thomas to Janvrin. Strike two on Daubert, Daubert out, Gardner to Hobbitzell. No runs, no hits, no errors.

Boston—Hooper up, foul, strike one, Umpire Dineen suddenly spotted photographers on the field at this stage and delayed proceedings while he got them up closer to the grandstand. Hooper, ball one, foul, strike two, ball two, Hooper flew to Myers. Myers made a remarkable catch right at his shoe strings on a liner, turning over on his back after the catch in the air, but coming up with the ball in his hands. Janvrin flew to Myers on the first ball pitched. Walker up, one strike, Walker out, Cutshaw to Daubert. No runs, no hits, no errors.

Myers' catch of Janvrin's drive was easily the feature of the game to date. It looked like a sure hit, but the fleet center fielder came in, apparently getting it just by his finger tips.

Seventh Inning Brooklyn—Myers out, Janvrin to Hobbitzell. The crowd roared its protest. He looked safe, Wheat up, strike one, trying to bunt, ball one, ball two, ball three, strike two, called. Wheat out, Janvrin to Hobbitzell. Cutshaw up, foul strike one, Cutshaw flew to Hobbitzell. No runs, no hits, no errors.

third, Miller took second on throw in. Walker made a remarkable return to the plate. Smith up, strike one, called, Mowrey was run down between third and home, Scott to Gardner to Ruth, on Smith's infield rap. Miller took third and Smith went to second on play Johnston up, ball one, Johnston out, Ruth to Hobbitzell. No runs, two hits, no errors.

Boston—Thomas up, strike one, called, foul, strike two, Thomas out, Daubert to Smith. Ruth up, ball one, strike one, swung, foul, strike two, foul, ball two, Ruth flew to Wheat. Hooper up, Hooper flew to Johnston. No runs, no hits, no errors.

Up to this stage Smith had allowed only three hits and was showing much better control.

Ninth Inning Brooklyn—Daubert up, Daubert out, Gardner to Hobbitzell, on a fast play. Myers up, ball one, strike one, called, ball two, foul, strike two, Myers flew to Walker. Wheat up, ball one, strike one, swung, Wheat out, Hobbitzell to Ruth. No runs, no hits, no errors.

Boston—Janvrin lined to Wheat, who dropped the ball and Janvrin went to second, given credit for an error. He dropped Smith's throw. Hobbitzell up, ball one, Hobbitzell flew to Myers and Janvrin was doubled at the plate. Myers to Miller on a remarkable throw. Walsh took second. Lewis up, ball one, Lewis was purposely walked. Gardner up, Gardner fouled to Miller. No runs, one hit, one error.

Tenth Inning Brooklyn—Cutshaw up, Walsh now playing center field for Boston. Cutshaw out, Janvrin to Hobbitzell. Mowrey up, ball one, Mowrey out, Gardner to Hobbitzell. Another scintillating play. Olson up, ball one, ball two, strike one, called, Olson walked. Miller up, Miller lined to Gardner. No runs, no hits, no errors.

fouled to Daubert who made a remarkable running catch. Hobbitzell up, ball one, ball two, ball three, strike one, called, Hobbitzell walked. It was his third walk of the game. Lewis up, "Tessie" was splitting the air and Manager Robinson protested, Lewis out, Mowrey to Daubert. No runs, no hits, no errors.

Twelfth Inning Brooklyn—Myers up, strike one, swung, strike two, swung, ball one, Myers fanned. Wheat up, ball one, Wheat popped to Gardner. Cutshaw up, ball one, Cutshaw out, Scott to Hobbitzell. No runs, no hits, no errors.

Boston—Gardner flew to Wheat. Scott up, (it was getting dark) ball one, ball two, ball three, ball four, Scott walked. Thomas up, strike one, called, ball one, foul, strike two, foul, ball three, Thomas forced Scott, Olson to Cutshaw. Ruth up, Thomas on first, ball one, Ruth out, Smith to Daubert. No runs, no hits, no errors.

Thirteenth Inning Brooklyn—Mowrey up, Mowrey safe at first on Gardner's low throw to Hobbitzell. Gardner was given an error. It was the first ball pitched. Olson up, Olson sacrificed to Ruth to Hobbitzell on the first ball pitched, Mowrey on second. Miller up, ball one, Miller popped to Thomas, sending a high one directly over the plate. Smith up, ball one, ball two, foul, strike one, strike two, called, ball three, Smith flew to Lewis, who brought the strands down by his sensational catch. It cut off what looked like a sure base hit. No runs, no hits, one error.

Boston—Hooper out, Smith to Daubert. Janvrin up, strike one, called, ball one, strike two, swung, Janvrin fouled to Mowrey. Walsh up, strike one, Walsh fouled to Mowrey. No runs, no hits, no errors.

Fourteenth Inning Brooklyn—Johnston up, ball one, foul, strike one, ball two, Johnston out, Scott to Hobbitzell. Daubert up, Daubert flew to Walsh. Myers up, ball one, foul, strike one, Myers out, Scott to Hobbitzell. No runs, no hits, no errors.

Wheat Took a Drop Due to Submarines

Chicago, Oct. 9.—The wheat market showed influence of submarine activities at the opening today. December wheat at the opening registered a loss of 2 1/2 points over Saturday's close while May wheat was down 3 3/4 points.

Shortly after the opening wheat showed good recoveries, December advancing 1 1/8 to $1.57 7/8 and May advancing 1 7/8 to $1.56 5/8.

A certain customer who came to Salem several years ago suffering from a disease which the doctors told him would cause his death within a short time, and who has already exceeded the time given him by four years, dryly remarked the other day that this may be a poor country to live in, but it is a mighty fine country to die in because it takes so long to do it.

Willamette's football squad didn't exactly cut up the state university bunch Saturday it is true, but wait.

Where is this town of Brooklyn we are hearing so much about at present?

A world's baseball series must be more exciting in its immediate vicinity than pulling a crop of flax.

A Salem tonsorial artist says: "Safety first—hump!—that's what is raising the dickens with the barber business."

It was Billie Burke vs. William Farnum vs. "Civilization" in the Salem amusement court yesterday, and the jury failed to agree.

A good many folks are complaining of colds and toothache and such disagreeable things, the result of the beautiful weather. Never mind. The chances are that it will be raining presently.

One thing is pretty evident—the local Y. M. C. A. has awakened greatly refreshed after its nap.

The town is on the vaudeville map again.

Anyway enough voters have regis-
