Wheat Drops a Little But Soon Recovers

Chicago, Oct. 13.—Early reports of rain in Argentine sent wheat down at the opening today, but later cables indicated the rain was too late in the season to help the crops after the long drought and wheat took an upward turn. December wheat was up 1 cent at $1.58½ and May up 1½ at $1.57 3/4.

Corn opened unchanged, but advanced slightly on fair buying. December was up half at 77 cents and May quarter at 78 5/8.

Oats had little activity today. December was unchanged at 48 3/8 and May up 1/8 at 51 5/8.

Provisions were higher, pork showing the largest gain.

To Avoid Dandruff

You do not want a slow treatment when hair is falling and the dandruff germ is killing the hair roots. Delay means no hair.

Get, at any drug store, a bottle of samo for 25c or $1.00 for extra large size. Use as directed, for it does the work quickly. It kills the dandruff germ, nourishes the hair roots and immediately stops itching scalp. It is sure and safe, is not greasy, is easy to use and will not stain. Soaps and shampoos are harmful, as they contain alkali. The best thing to use is samo, for it is pure and also inexpensive.

Red Sox Get Check for $97,156.47

Boston, Mass., Oct. 13.—Bill Carrigan, manager of the world's champion Red Sox, today received a check for $97, 156.47—the Boston players' share of the world's series melon.

Carrigan deposited the check and made out 20 of his own to the players eligible, each man receiving $3,826.25.
The remainder of the Sox' share was divided among the other five players, Wagner, Walsh, Penneck, Wyckoff and Gregg.

"Goose Egg" George Foster of the Red Sox staff, announced after he received his share that he was through with baseball and would devote his time to his farm in Bokoshe, Okla.

President Lannin today flatly stated there was no truth in the report that he was to sell the club. He refused to make any statement regarding the dismissal of Secretary Riley.

Bill Carrigan himself gets a regular player's share and the five remaining men divided the amount in an arbitrary manner, determined upon by the players themselves at a meeting today.

British Destroyer Watching the Harbor

Boston, Mass., Oct. 13.—The pilot of the Russian steamship Hesperus, which docked here today, reported that a fast British destroyer was running at top speed across the mouth of Massachusetts bay all yesterday, making a course from Cape May to Cape Ann just outside the three mile limit.

Other boats of a similar type were reported by pilots who brought their ships to Boston today.

The British ambassador at Washington has sent word to the British consul general here that steamers ready for sea might proceed and the steamship Lord Cromer probably will leave for Liverpool today, the Cunard steamship line reported.

State House News

No order has as yet been issued by the public service commission as a result of the recent investigation of the car shortage situation. How long it will require the commission to arrange its findings in the matter is a subject for conjecture, but Commissioner Miller stated this morning that the commission was moving as rapidly as possible.

Orders from western Oregon shippers to the Southern Pacific for cars in which to move grain, lumber and other products were reported this morning as 1,652, with receipts of 148 empty cars at Ashland. This is a slightly better showing than has been made for several days. It would seem impossible for Willamette valley lumber mills to operate much longer under present conditions. All the storage space around many of the mills is filled to overflowing.

Articles of incorporation were filed at the corporation department this morning by the Canby Investment company, of Canby, with a capital stock of $4,000; Farmers' Merchandise company, of Portland, $1,000; Gardner-Wilkinson Lumber company, of Bend, Crook county, $5,000; Whitely Mining company, of Unity, Baker county, $15,000; Damascus Cremery company, of Portland, $50, 000. Supplementary articles, increasing its capital stock from $25,000 to $40, 000, have been filed by the Portland Rubber mills.

MRS. MATLOCK DEAD

and left tender was smashed while the entire front of the Ford was crumpled.
Mrs. Maggie Ivy and her companion in the Ford left here about eight o'clock to visit her mother in Silverton.
The Silverton party was bound for the round up at Albany.

Officer Varney, who visited the scene of the wreck, says that the tracks show that the Chalmers car was on the wrong side of the road, and it is understood that the driver admits this.

Coroner Clough will hold an inquest over the body of Mrs. C. M. Matlock, who was killed this morning in a head-on collision between two automobiles, at 10 o'clock Saturday morning at his undertaking parlors. The body is now at the parlors and Webb & Clough will take charge of it. Funeral services will probably be held Monday. Further announcements will be made later.

WOULD PROLONG WAR

Berlin, via wireless to Sayville, L. I., Oct. 12.—"Unrestricted submarine warfare would not hasten the advent of peace, but would further prolong the war," Dr. David, socialist member, told the reichstag during debate on the question of submarine warfare and peace.

"The chances for peace at this moment are small," said the socialist leader. "Our enemies want no immature peace before Germany's annihilation."

PRESIDENT HIGHLY PLEASED WITH VISIT

Politicians Say Result Depends On People's View of Foreign Policy

By Robert J. Bender.

(United Press staff correspondent.)

On Board President Wilson's Train, Altoona, Pa., Oct. 13.—Feeling pleased over the reception given him in Indiana yesterday, President Wilson today is swinging along in his private train, enroute back to Long Branch, N. J. The democratic leaders still feel Indiana is an uncertain quantity but that, in the two addresses the president made yesterday he carried home two points.

One—that the president is contem-puous of such issues as sectionalism and other contentions raised by his republican opponents and is determined to carry on his campaign to make his adversaries as he says "put up or shut up" on as regard the real issues.

Two—for the first time he has explained exhaustively to the farmers of the country what the democratic congress has done for them by passing the rural credits bill, federal reserve and other acts.

On the latter point his lieutenants feel, he now has this idea well before the country. They feel the one big issue upon which the campaign rests is whether or not the people endorse the president's foreign policy. They point to the enthusiasm accorded his every utterance on peace yesterday as strong evidence of approval.

The president himself hinted in one of his addresses that the "friendly look of people who lined the streets" encouraged him in the belief that they believed in his expression of the national spirit. Hence they feel Indiana will come into line on the issue "peace with Wilson."

Tomorrow the president will "talk turkey" to a big delegation of Pennsylvania democrats who are going to Shadow Lawn to hear him in the third of his non-partisan speeches from the veranda of his home.

SALTS IF KIDNEYS OR BLADDER BOTHER

Harmless to Flush Kidneys and Neutralize Irritating Acids—Splendid for System

Kidney and bladder weakness result from uric acid, says a noted authority.
The kidneys filter this acid from the blood and pass it on to the bladder, where it often remains to irritate and inflammation, causing a burning, scalding sensation, or setting up an irritation at the neck of the bladder, obliging you to seek relief two or three times during the night. The sufferer is in constant dread, the water passes sometimes with a scalding sensation and is very profuse; again, there is difficulty in voiding it.

Bladder weakness, most folks call it, because they can't control urination.
While it is extremely annoying and sometimes very painful, this is really one of the most simple ailments to overcome. Get about four ounces of Jad Salts from your pharmacist and take a tablespoonful in a glass of water before breakfast, continue this for two or three days. This will neutralize the acids in the urine so it no longer is a source of irritation to the bladder and urinary organs which then act normally again.

Jad Salts is inexpensive, harmless, and is made from the acid of grapes and lemon juice, combined with lithia, and is used by thousands of folks who are subject to urinary disorders caused by uric acid irritation. Jad Salts is splendid for kidneys and causes no bad effects whatever.

Here you have a pleasant, effervescent lithia-water drink, which quickly relieves bladder trouble.

Patched Him Up for the Last Time

Los Angeles, Cal., Oct. 13.—"Well, boys, this is the last time you tinker with this old carcass!"

Frank A. Luce, champion butt of misfortune, smiled as brightly as a dying man could smile, and for the fourteenth time in two years quietly submitted himself to receiving hospital surgeons today.

Each surgeon and interne at Police hospital knew Luce well. He talked and joked with them and they joked back. This lasted 10 minutes and then Luce's career as a hard luck champion ended—on Friday the 13th. He had fallen down stairs and had broken his back. Thirteen times previously these same surgeons had mended Luce's frame in the course of an unusual career, in which one serious mishap followed another for two years.

CREAMERY BUTTER HIGHER

Portland, Ore., Oct. 13.—An advance of 1 1/2 cents in city creamery butter prices will go into effect this morning.
The new price on the best prints in ear-tons will be 39 cents. The buying prices of butter fat will be advanced 2 cents to 37 cents for No. 1, 35 cents for No. 2 and 39 cents for sweet cream.

At the produce exchange, country creamery extras sold at 35 cents and seconds sold at 28 cents. For storage extras 31 cents was bid and 23 cents asked.
There was a bid of 27 cents for dairy butter, but none was offered.

Eggs were firm with 38 cents paid for case count. Country candled fresh were offered at 42 cents, with no bid. For April, 29 cents was bid and 33 cents asked.

The butter market is holding steady.

Hughes Will Not Answer Charge That He Represents German American Voters

By Perry Arnold.

Pikeville, Ky., Oct. 12.—Republican Candidate Hughes is determined not to make any answer to the charge that he represents the German-American vote.

He regards himself as potentially a president. He holds it his duty neither by word or deed to walk into any trap which shall seek to commit him, a man who may be chosen in November to dictate America's position toward the world, to any specific course of action with regard to European policies.

The United Press presents this explanation of the candidate's attitude by permission today.

When Hughes discusses and condemns the British blacklist, it is further explained, it is not with the idea of any animus against Great Britain. When he hits at the submarine warfare and the Wilson administration handling of that issue, he does not speak with a mind biased against Germany. He speaks as one who regards America's opportunity as the greatest of neutral nations, and the most momentous to America herself and to the other nations of the world in establishing firmly the principles of neutrality.

To those with whom he talked on the subject Governor Hughes has added to this statement of position the following:

"America must leave no stone unturned to enforce against any nation her rights as a world power. By so doing the United States not only maintains her own dignity as a nation, but she establishes more firmly the principles of justice contained in international law.

International law, the governor holds, is not a fixed unit. It is a collection of principles to which nations subscribe. Those principles become fixed only when some great nation establishes their justice and fairness by demand, unflinchingly maintained, for their fullest observance. If the United States can accept this fixation of principle of international law by holding all nations strictly accountable to the spirit of the now only nebulous principles of international law, America will have her opportunity to become foremost among world powers."

Oregon's Largest and Finest Prune Harvest Is Now Finished

Portland, Ore., Oct. 13.—The largest and finest prune crop ever grown in Oregon has now been safely gathered.
The harvest has been practically finished in all sections, only a few dryers of highland fruit still operating, and they will complete their work this week.

The growers have had the most favorable drying season in the history of the prune industry here. The crop, in tonnage, will come up to the highest estimate made by any of the packers, running to about 40,000,000 pounds. Last year the output was finally estimated at 18,000,000 pounds, and the average for recent years has not been over 25, 000,000 pounds. It is figured by authorities in this line that the 1916 prune crop will bring into the state about $5, 000,000.

The quality of the crop is pronounced to be the best ever produced in Oregon since the prune industry was started.
Even with the greatly increased yield the sizes average as large as in several past years, when the production was only a third as large as now. This condition is the result of fertilizing and the care that the growers have taken of their orchards.

The market is in good shape and what was lost during the fall of some six or seven weeks during the summer months has been fully regained. There is a good demand for prunes in all parts of the United States, and it is believed by packers that the present crop will clean up at prices very satisfactory to the growers.

The packers are now paying 6 1/2 to 6 3/4 cents for 30-3's, with the usual drop for smaller sizes.

The outcome of this year's prune growing and marketing is highly encouraging to all friends of this important Oregon industry. That it will be one of the greatest agricultural lines in the state in the near future is assured by the large expansion of prune acreage. Packers who have been connected with this branch of the business for the past 20 years predict that within the next five years a full crop in the northwest will mean about 80,000,000 pounds of prunes. Such a yield will bring into this section annually fully $5,000,000.

U. of O. Kickers Play Multnomah Tomorrow

Eugene, Ore., Oct. 13.—Oregon university meets Multnomah A. C. on the football gridiron here tomorrow. Both elevens have unblemished records and a fast game is expected.

The Oregon squad will be closely watched as it battles California at Berkeley on October 21 and the dopesters are anxious to get a line on what Coach Bozdek has up his sleeve.

Multnomah has three college scalps at its girdle including that of the terrible Oregon Aggies. Oregon has a decisive victory over Willamette university to its credit.

WAGON RECORD LOWERED

Lexington, Ky., Oct. 13.—Lee Ax-worthy, champion trotting stallion of the world, driven to a wagon by one of his owners, Harry K. Deveraux, of Cleveland, lowered the wagon record of 2:05 1/4 for trotting stallions to 2:02 3/4 on the final day of the 44th annual meeting of the Kentucky Trotting Horse Breeders' association here yesterday.

Volga champion three-year-old mare, started to beat her mark of 2:04 1/4, but tired in the stretch after trotting the third quarter in 30 1/4 and completed the mile in 2:05 1/4.
