PERSONALS

Rev. Carl H. Elliott returned this morning from Eugene, where he participated in the formal installation of the new pastor of the First Presbyterian church, Rev. W. M. Case.
Among those who arrived to attend the exercises at Willamette university today were: Hon. R. A. Booth and wife and President P. L. Campbell, of the State university, from Eugene, and President Kerr, of the O. A. C., Corvallis.

Mr. J. Levy, of this city, left Salem yesterday for San Francisco. He is expected to be gone for some time.

The Central Congregational church on South Nineteenth street will be the scene of a "Homecoming Social" tonight.

Mr. and Mrs. Guyer, who had charge of the Argo hotel last winter, are in the city. They expect to go south for the winter.

Dr. and Mrs. W. Carleton Smith are in Portland today on professional business. They motored down and are expected back late this evening.

Sergeant French, in charge of the army recruiting station here, is absent on a trip to Dallas, Falls City, and Hickman. He left Thursday and is expected back in Salem on Saturday.

W. F. Buckner, who lives at Fourteenth and Court, brought into the Journal office this afternoon a sprig of Cutbert raspberries which is bearing its second crop of berries this year. The berries are large and luscious and have a fine taste. Mr. Buckner has been getting berries from these bushes ever since September 1.

O. B. Franke, who will direct the wrestling for the Salem Y. M. C. A., said this morning that his classes would start next Monday evening in the association rooms. It is the plan of the association not to develop professional wrestlers but to give the young men opportunity to indulge in a pastime that offers exceptionally good exercise.

A. H. Davis, an Elk who belongs to an Aberdeen lodge, but who is proprietor of the Sunnybrook Dairy, is ill at the Salem hospital of blood poisoning. He has been unconscious for some time but yesterday came from out of the woodwork. He had scratched his hand and blood poisoning set in with startling rapidity and his life was despaired of. He is getting better, according to reports today at the Elk's club.

Ten Salemites were initiated into the Elks lodge last evening. They were: Joseph H. Bach, U. G. Boyer, Roy C. Barth, Max Gehlar, Arthur T. Johnson, R. M. Harding, L. H. Wenger, A. J. Wenger, A. E. Baker, and George M. Sautsman. After the initiation vaudeville acts from Bligh's theatre furnished amusement. The meeting held late and it was about 12 o'clock when they adjourned.

There was a rumor about yesterday that the Spaulding Logging company's sawmill in this city would shut down on account of lack of cars to handle their product. This rumor was denied at the company's office this morning as they said they had received three cars yesterday and expected more today. Four cars per day are needed to handle the output and the company officials admit they are seriously handicapped by the scarcity of cars.

Chemawa Indians observed October 12 as Columbus day, on which day in 1492 Christopher Columbus is said to have discovered America. Numerous societies also observed the day. No business houses in Salem took note of the fact. There is considerable controversy over the discovery of America as most Americans are not quite willing to concede the honor to Columbus on account of his never landing on the continent as did Liev Erixon in about the year 1000.

Rev. Joseph Haberg, of McMinnville, who is a pioneer Methodist preacher of the Willamette valley, is stopping at the home of Mr. and Mrs. C. D. Purdy, on Mill street. Mr. and Mrs. Purdy and Mr. Haberg were Iowa friends fifty years ago. Rev. Haberg organized the Sunday school class which was the beginning of the Leslie Methodist church in South Salem. He was also present at the dedication of the Jason Lee Memorial church in North Salem.

The addition of a new Powers "G-B" projecting machine to the operating room equipment of the Oregon theatre gives that place of amusement facilities which are not excelled anywhere in the United States. Operator Sam Collard now has two machines of the Powers "G-B" type with which to prevent the patrons of the Oregon from finding any grounds for complaint. This is a similar equipment to that in the projection room of the Rialto theatre in New York, which has the reputation of being the most perfect picture theatre in the country.

FOUR STATES WANT BAD CHECK ARTIST

Plan Now Is For Each to Punish Him and Then Pass Him Along

San Francisco, Oct. 13.—Four states today are seeking the custody of D. M. Delmas, confessed forger and bank wrecker arrested here Wednesday with a girl companion as he was preparing to leave after passing a fraudulent check. The Texas authorities want Delmas so he can find an unexpired term in prison for bank robbing. Oregon, Washington and California all want him for forgery. The local authorities plan to try Delmas here, then send him to the northwestern states, and let them send him to Texas when his sentences are finished.

Delmas' chief concern is regarding the plight of his companion, Signe Gerstedt. The police intend to hold her as an accessory, but Delmas insists she knows nothing of his operations. He said he intended to marry her if he made successful "hauls" here and in Los Angeles fleeing afterward to South America to begin life anew. The girl, still unconvinced that the man she loves is a criminal, says she will work here until he is out of trouble, and then marry him.

Today, Delmas admitted passing a $100 check in Seattle, checks for $50 and $100 in Portland, and a $100 check here.

Mrs. Frank A. English, of North Salem, severely cut her hand yesterday while attempting to tighten the lid on a glass jar. The top of the jar broke and cut her hand in several places with the result that the doctor had to take nine stitches to bring the wounds together.

The Salem Commercial club wants a short, snappy, punchy, typical slogan that it can print on a button for Salem week, which is to be held October 20 to November 4. There will probably be no prizes awarded but the satisfaction of providing a catchy slogan is believed to be remuneration enough.

Walter Flynn, aged 18 years, who lives at 4th South High street, enlisted in the United States army and was sent down to Vancouver today by M. M. Washburn, who is in charge of the Salem recruiting station during the absence of Sergeant French. He will go into the coast artillery.

The football team of the Salem high school is to meet the pigskin warriors of the Jefferson high school Saturday afternoon at two o'clock on Sweetland field. This is the first game of the season and the Salem bunch is reported to be shaky on account of a bunch of inexperienced players getting their breaking in. A rally to inspire enthusiasm is scheduled for this evening.

Mr. and Mrs. W. Peetz, of this city, and H. R. Peetz, of Turner, left Salem yesterday over the Oregon Electric for Anderson, Indiana, where they were called by the death of J. L. Peetz, who was formerly a resident of this city, of typhoid fever. J. L. Peetz died Wednesday at the age of 49 years. He was in the furniture business in Salem and took an active interest in the affairs of the city. He was associated with E. N. Peetz, his brother.

All retail grocers of the city of Salem, whether members of the Commercial club or not, are urgently invited to attend a meeting in the Commercial club auditorium this evening at 7:30 o'clock. The directors of the Business men's league, Messrs. Denton, Stenquist and Gahlsdorf, issue the call and say there is very important business to come before the meeting. They say it will be important to the size of the merchant's pocketbook and will decrease the bank account of those who do not attend. Good speakers are promised and some data given that will make the grocers sit up and take notice.

Jack Retlaw, who has attained much fame as the founder of hotels "DeGink" in various cities of the country and who is perhaps as good an authority on the question of the unemployed as there is, paid the Capital Journal a little visit this afternoon. The hotel "DeGink," as most readers of newspapers are aware, is an institution conceived for the relief of the worthy unemployed. In it the hotel finds a comfortable place to sleep and sufficient food to eat until he can shift for himself. The first hotel of this character was started in Seattle three years ago. Mr. Retlaw says that unemployed conditions on this coast are the best at present in ten years. Two years ago the number of unemployed on the coast was estimated at 325,000, while at present it is between 75,000 and 100,000. According to Mr. Retlaw, Kansas City has at present more unemployed in proportion to its size than any other city in the country.

A new Powers "G-B" machine has just been added to the equipment of the Oregon theatre, and Operator Sam Collard now has as fine an equipment to work with as there is in the United States. With two machines of this type, and other conditions as favorable as it is possible to make them, the patrons of the Oregon should experience considerable difficulty in finding any cause for complaint.

Tomorrow is Bundle day and the Commercial club asks that all persons who will have bundles to send in their names and addresses at once. Over 100 names are listed already and it is expected a large number will come in this evening.
Miss Grace Young, who has been acting as assistant in the office of Drs. Steeves and Findley, is spending her vacation in Los Angeles visiting her mother. Miss Alice Palmer is taking her place in the office.
O. J. Schei, who will open up a gent's furnishing store in the Patton building on State street within a short time, has rented the R. B. Houston residence property at 745 South Commercial street. His family will be here Monday.
The funeral of Dr. Joseph H. Brewer, who died Thursday, October 12, will be held at the First Christian church Saturday at 2 o'clock in the afternoon. Interment will be in City view cemetery. The body is under the care of Webb & Clough.
Harry Cronise, of this city, leaves this afternoon to attend the Albany Round-Up. Mrs. H. D. Trover, of Salem, and Mrs. Laughlin, of La Grande, who have been visiting with Mr. and Mrs. Tom Cronise, left this morning for Albany.
"The Melting Pot", one of the most successful dramas of modern times, will be given by a company of the country's best players at the Grand tonight. Considering the high character of the production, seats are very reasonably priced.
There will be a football game Saturday afternoon at 2:30 o'clock at Chemawa between the Indians and the freshmen of the Oregon Agricultural college. Both sides are reported to be in excellent condition and a snappy and hard game is expected.
Next Wednesday evening the regular monthly meeting of the members of the Salem Commercial club will be held. At this time A. W. Graham, of the O. C. T. company, will address the club on the subject: "The Possibilities of Development of Better Water Transportation Between Portland and Salem."
