

SOCIETY and CLUBS

By ALINE THOMPSON

ONCE more society is on the quiver for entertainment, and when it brings in its wake a philanthropic cause the interest is more intense and efforts go forth unrelenting.

The affairs attendant on charitable purposes are a delight and matrons who arrange these benefits know full well how to take advantage of society's keen zest for merriment which at this time of the year seems more than usually eager for entertainment.

Before we are sated with the whirl of the winter's social activities and all the supplementary circumstances of generous spending to good times, these very clever women see that we do our community duty to charity. Hence the many benefit affairs, that have characterized the past few months.

Dancing of course, has occupied the limelight again this week, the most important function being the annual guild dance at the armory for the benefit of the St. Paul's Episcopal church.

Another merry affair of the latter part of the week was the dinner dance at the Hotel Marion Friday night.

Interspersing these gay festivities have been teas, luncheons, bridge and dinner parties.

Among the most delightful of the latter affairs were Mrs. Arthur H. Moore's bridge on Tuesday afternoon; Mr. and Mrs. Henry B. Thielsen's "500" party Tuesday night; the dinner for which Mr. and Mrs. Asahel Bush were hosts Wednesday; Mr. and Mrs. John J. Roberts' dinner Thursday; the tea for which Mrs. Robert Chauncey Bishop was hostess on Thursday; Mrs. Roy Bishop of Pendleton, Friday the bridge given by Mrs. George P. Fox this afternoon to honor her sister, Mrs. Scheurle of Centralia, Washington, and the bridge and supper for which Mr. and Mrs. David W. Eyre were hosts.

To welcome her sister, Mrs. M. B. Scheurle, a charming newcomer to Salem, Mrs. George P. Fox entertained this afternoon with a delightful and pretty bridge-tea.

Guests made up eight tables of bridge, and a few more matrons augmented the party at the tea hour. The residence was attractively decked with huge yellow chrysanthemums and colorful autumn leaves.

Presiding at the tea table, which was adorned with an artistic basket of golden yellow button chrysanthemums were: Mrs. Joseph Baumgartner and Mrs. Alice H. Dodd.

Assisting about the rooms and in the serving were, Mrs. Zedoc J. Riggs, Mrs. George M. Post, Mrs. Merlin Harding and Mrs. George Watson.

The hostess' young daughter, Miss Constance Fox, attired in a dainty white frock, greeted the guests at the door.

Those bidden to meet Mrs. Scheurle were, Mrs. U. G. Shipley, Mrs. Frank H. Spears, Mrs. H. W. Thielsen, Mrs. George Palmer Putnam, Mrs. Charles L. Die, Mrs. W. Carlton Smith, Mrs. J. W. Harrison, Mrs. George E. Waters, Mrs. William H. Lytle, Miss Ellen Thielsen, Mrs. David W. Eyre, Mrs. H. J. Schaulderman, Mrs. Zedoc J. Riggs, Mrs. Max O. Buren, Mrs. George M. Post, Mrs. Alice H. Dodd, Mrs. Joseph Baumgartner, Mrs. E. Cooke Patton, Miss Margaret Casper, Mrs. W. G. Allen, Mrs. C. B. Webb, Mrs. R. B. Goodie, Mrs. Armin Steiner, Mrs. Frank G. Myers, Mrs. G. A. Wood, Mrs. William McGilchrist, Jr., Miss Helen Whitney of Portland, Mrs. L. S. Geer, Mrs. E. O. Siecke, Mrs. Henry Poisel, Mrs. John Caughell, Mrs. Ralph Glover, Mrs. E. Hoffnell, Miss Joy Turner, Mrs. John Brophy, Mrs. Hal D. Patton, Mrs. Merbina Harding, Mrs. H. C. Marvin, Miss Cora Talkington, Mrs. William M. Hamilton, Mrs. E. T. Barnes, Mrs. B. L. Steevens, Mrs. William Kirk, Mrs. Clarence Keene of Silverton, Miss Jessie Miller and Mrs. J. O. Gaitta.

Miss Janet Gray, who has been passing a few weeks at the M. L. Jones country home "Lush Meadows," left Tuesday for Hillsboro, where she will visit Miss Eva Bailey before returning to her home in Seattle.

Mrs. E. E. Waters went to Portland this afternoon for a several days visit to her daughter, Mrs. William C. Knighton and other relatives.

Mrs. Robert Chauncey Bishop's charming Thursday afternoon to honor her teenage sister-in-law, Mrs. Roy T. Bishop of Pendleton, was one of the smartest and most artistic affairs of the week.

About 40 prettily gowned matrons and maids called to greet the visitor, who has many friends in Salem society.

The Bishop residence was decked with lovely feathery bronze and yellow chrysanthemums and huge baskets of autumn leaves, effectively arranged in the various rooms and hall.

Mrs. John Withycombe of Corvallis, presided at the samovar, the table being adorned with an artistic arrangement of pom pom chrysanthemums in tones of yellow, bronze and wine.

Assisting in the dining room were, Mrs. Clifford Brown and Mrs. William Henry Burghardt, Jr.

Those asked to greet Mrs. Bishop were: Mrs. Clifford Brown, Mrs. William H. Burghardt, Jr., Mrs. W. Carlton Smith, Mrs. Alice H. Dodd, Mrs. John H. McNary, Mrs. Geo. W. Gray, Mrs. Curtis B. Cross, Mrs. P. H. Spears, Mrs. Clyde C. Graham, Mrs. M. A. Thompson, Mrs. W. Melvin Plimpton, Mrs. Ronald C. Glover, Mrs. Thos. R. Townsend, Mrs. W. H. Lytle, Mrs. H. G. Schaulderman, Mrs. W. C. Dyer, Mrs. C. P. Bishop, Mrs. R. M. Hofer, Mrs. Thomas C. Smith, Jr., Mrs. Zedoc J. Riggs, Mrs. W. E. Grier, Mrs. Walter L. McDougal, Mrs. J. A. Bishop, Mrs. John W. Harrison, Mrs. James Withycombe, Mrs. John Withycombe of Corvallis, Mrs. S. W. Thompson, Mrs. C. D. Gabrielson, Mrs. Asahel Bush, Mrs. George Palmer Putnam, Mrs. Ben W. Oleott, Mrs. John J. Roberts, Mrs. Thomas A. Livesley, Mrs. Frederic D. Thielsen, Mrs. S. Guy Sargent, Mrs. Harry E. Clay, Mrs. R. E. Lee Steiner, Miss Rita Steiner, Miss Ellen Thielsen, Miss Florence Cleveland, Miss Mabel Withycombe, Miss Grace Bean, Miss Margaret Wishart, Miss Aline Thompson, Miss Hazel Bishop, Miss Cora Talkington, Miss Margaret Gray of Seattle, Miss Veda Cross.

Mr. and Mrs. Asahel Bush presided at a charming dinner Wednesday night in celebration of their wedding anniversary.

The affair was most informal, and lovely, only the members of their wedding party being asked.

An artistic arrangement of yellow Opheelia roses and scarlet Bouvardia intermingled with lacy ferns, decked the exquisitely appointed table.

Covers were placed for Mr. and Mrs. Frederic D. Thielsen, Mr. and Mrs. Robert Chauncey Bishop, Mr. and Mrs. Clifford Brown, and the hosts.

Miss Elizabeth Lord, who with her mother and brother, Mrs. W. P. Lord and Montague Lord, sailed from San Francisco on the "Chinyo Maru" for the Orient early in September, writes to friends en route and recounts the wonderful times they are having on the trip.

They were in Honolulu for several days last week and are now en route to Manila, where they will linger for a few days before going to Cebu to pass the winter.

About 25 of the married set who are members of the Merry-Go-Round card club gathered at the delightful "500" party for which the Henry B. Thielsen were hosts Tuesday night.

An array of lovely French Marigolds were effectively arranged about the card rooms and the score honors fell to Mrs. R. B. Fleming and Dr. Thomas C. Smith, Jr.

Assisting Mrs. Thielsen were her daughter, Miss Ellen Thielsen, and Mrs. H. W. Thielsen.

The Merry-Go-Round club composed of a congenial group of card players includes Mr. and Mrs. Ruben P. Boise, Mr. and Mrs. John D. Sutherland, Mr. and Mrs. William Brown, Mr. and Mrs. Rollin K. Page, Mr. and Mrs. Thomas C. Smith, Jr., Mr. and Mrs. A. N. Moores, Mr. and Mrs. John P. McNary, Mr. and Mrs. Thomas R. Kay, Mr. and Mrs. Russell Catlin, Mr. and Mrs. H. W. Thielsen, Dr. and Mrs. J. N. Smith, Mr. and Mrs. R. B. Fleming, Mr. and Mrs. Max O. Buren, Mr. and Mrs. Frank W. Spencer, Dr. and Mrs. C. H. Robertson and Mr. and Mrs. Henry B. Thielsen.

Mrs. Arthur H. Moore entertained Tuesday afternoon with a charming bridge party at her residence 1010 Leslie street. The affair, which was the second of a series of bridge parties for which Mrs. Moore has been hostess, was one of the most delightful events of the week.

The rooms were attractive with fragrant roses and autumn leaves. Seven tables of bridge were arranged for the guests, card honors falling to Mrs. Richard Cartwright.

Assisting Mrs. Moore were Mrs. R. H. Goodin, Miss Callista Moore and the Misses Helen and Ruth Moore.

Mrs. Moore asked as her guests: Mrs. John H. Albert, Mrs. William H. Eldridge, Mrs. Russell Catlin, Mrs. William Brown, Mrs. R. E. Lee Steiner, Mrs. Henry B. Thielsen, Miss Ellen Thielsen, Mrs. E. Cooke Patton, Mrs. W. Carlton Smith, Mrs. David W. Eyre, Mrs. Daniel J. Fry, Mrs. Eugenia Gillingham, Mrs. Clifford Brown, Mrs. L. P. Griffith, Mrs. Clarence Hamilton, Mrs. Lawrence T. Harris, Mrs. William H. Lytle, Mrs. Milton L. Meyers, Mrs. Richard Cartwright, Mrs. E. P. Carleton, Mrs. James Chinnock, Mrs. Susie Jones, Mrs. George P. Fox, Mrs. Edgar Hartley, Mrs. George Post, Mrs. E. P. Tillinghast, Mrs. Charles Weller, Mrs. G. E. Shafer, Mrs. E. F. Parker, Mrs. J. L. Clark, Mrs. Armin Steiner, Mrs. George Watson, Mrs. William Hamilton, Mrs. E. W. Hazard, Miss Edith Hazard, Mrs. Frank Brown, Miss Edith Beatty, Mrs. Roy Burton, Mrs. W. E. Anderson and Mrs. A. E. Eoff.

Artistically appointed and charming in every detail was the dinner for which Mr. and Mrs. John J. Roberts were hosts on Thursday night. A huge crystal bowl of exquisite red roses and lacy ferns decorated the table around which covers were placed for Mr. and Mrs. Asahel Bush, Dr. and Mrs. Thomas C. Smith, Jr., Mr. and Mrs. W. Melvin Plimpton and the hosts.

After dinner the Roberts and their guests attended the St. Paul's guild dance at the armory.

In celebration of their tenth wedding anniversary Mr. and Mrs. David W. Eyre entertained informally Tuesday night; their guests numbering about a dozen of the married set.

The evening was devoted to bridge and the high score honors were won by Mrs. Mack Hofer and Mrs. Curtis B. Cross. Bridge was followed by a delightful supper.

An artistic arrangement of Kilmer roses and brilliant lured autumnal foliage adorned the card rooms. In the dining room a huge basket of fragrant Opheelia roses tied with pink tulle decked the supper table.

Their guests were: Mr. and Mrs. William Connell Dyer, Mr. and Mrs. Frank H. Spears, Mr. and Mrs. Clyde C. Graham, Mr. and Mrs. Curtis B. Cross, Mr. and Mrs. Mack Hofer and Mr. and Mrs. George William Gray.

Another delightful affair given by the Eyres was the informal supper for which they were hosts following the guild dance at the armory Thursday night. Covers were placed for S. the table being adorned with a charming basket of yellow pom pom chrysanthemums.

Salem society friends of John Randolph Latourette of Portland, will be interested to know that his marriage to Miss Sally Clay, the charming Seattle belle, will take place Wednesday evening, November the first at the Clay residence, Sixteenth avenue north. Miss Clay's sister, Miss Lucie Clay, will be maid of honor and the Misses Helen Hayes and Jessie Hibler will be the bridesmaids.

R. W. Kelly of Hood River will be best man, and Merle Campbell and Morey Donley of Portland will be the ushers.

Miss Helen Whitney of Portland is the house guest of Miss Ellen Thielsen for several days. Miss Whitney frequently visits in Salem, and has many friends among the younger set.

Miss Marjorie Kay, who is attending the University of Oregon this year, is passing the week end with her parents, Mr. and Mrs. Thomas B. Kay.

Perhaps the merriest and gayest affair of the week was the annual guild dance given for the benefit of the St. Paul's Episcopal church in the armory Thursday night.

The absolute informality combined with the earnest efforts of certain matrons on whom the guild always depends to advance these artistic and attractive parties, made the affair a huge success.

The ball room was a bower of brilliant autumnal foliage, with festoons of evergreens forming a canopy over the dancers. Gaily lighted pumpkins suggestive of Halloween, suffused the room in a soft yellow light.

One of the most delightful features of the evening was the artistic exhibition of fancy, esthetic and ballroom dancing by Mr. and Mrs. Harold Grady of Portland. Their exhibition included the exquisitely dainty and graceful "Caprice Ballet," the one step, fox trot, canter, waltz and the fish. Mrs. Grady and Mrs. Grady who donated their services, to make the occasion a success are the most artistic and graceful dancers that have ever been seen in Salem.

Mrs. Grady's costumes were lovely and they both have a charming personality, which makes them extremely popular.

The Grady's are justly entitled to be called the Castles of the west and their new place in Portland, which is known as the Harlow-Grady home of dancing is fast becoming a popular rendezvous for Portland society.

A charming affair of Monday evening was the dinner presided over by Mr. and Mrs. Rollin K. Page, in honor of Mr. Page's sister, Miss Alvina Page of Portland.

Covers were placed for 12 around a table artistically centered with crimson blossoms and ferns.

Miss Eleanor Rogers entertained a small group of young folks, Tuesday night at an informal dancing party at her home in Ben Lomand Park, complimentary to Miss Anna Yantis, who with her mother and sister, Mrs. S. E. Yantis and Miss Birdie Yantis, will leave soon to make her home in Fargo, North Dakota, where her brother David Yantis and family are now living.

The affair was given on the roof garden of the attractive residence and the evening was closed with delightful refreshments.

Those participating in the gayeties were Miss Yantis, Miss Jessie Holcomb, Mr. and Mrs. L. C. Smith, Robert Duncan, James Marr and Frederick Lamport.

Dr. and Mrs. Frank S. Snedecor of Birmingham, Alabama, who have been guests of Mrs. Snedecor's mother, Mrs. H. E. Beckman, left Tuesday for a few months sojourn in Portland, and have taken apartments at The Stelwyn.

About 20 merry makers participated in the second dinner dance of the season at the Hotel Marion Friday night, the guests for the most part being of the married contingent.

Although there were not as many parties as usual the affair was one of the gayest of the week.

Those making up the largest party were: Mr. and Mrs. Thomas A. Livesley and their guests, Mr. and Mrs. Tracy Poorman of Woodburn, Mr. and Mrs. John J. Roberts, Mr. and Mrs. S. Guy Sargent, Mr. and Mrs. Robert Chauncey Bishop and Dr. and Mrs. Thomas C. Smith, Jr.

Another table were: Mr. and Mrs. Frank Deckerbach, Miss Helen Deckerbach, Fred Deckerbach, Mr. and Mrs. James Wilson, and Mr. and Mrs. Charles Miller.

To bid adieu to Mrs. John P. Jones, who soon will leave Salem to make her home in Portland, Mrs. John H. Scott will entertain on Monday afternoon, with a bridge-tea, guests having been asked to make up four tables of the affair.

Mrs. Jones' departure from Salem is the source of much regret among her many friends.

Attractive girl visitors at the Richard Cartwright residence are, Miss Dorothy Flegel of Eugene who is the guest of Miss Constance Cartwright, and Miss Cora Rossiter of Dallas, who came home with Miss Gladys Cartwright for the week end. Miss Hertha Hansen, who also was guest of Miss Constance Cartwright this week, returned to Eugene Friday. The girls are Kappa Kappa Gamma sorority sisters.

Prominent among the winter's social events are the dancing parties to be given by the Monday night dancing club.

The club will give a series of dances again this season, and the congeniality of the large list of members insures a gay winter for this club, which will give its opening party in the Moose hall on Halloween.

The personnel of the committee in charge of the dances this season is C. B. Webb, chairman; Grant R. Bonnell, secretary; and Harry Wenderoth, treasurer.

Mr. and Mrs. Henry C. Greer, of Sayre, Pennsylvania, arrived in Salem today and are visiting at the home of their son, Nelson E. Greer, 190 South Fourteenth street.

Miss Fay Cord, the charming singer who is to appear as soloist at the opening concert of the lyceum course, Monday night is the house guest of Miss Eleanor Rogers.

Miss Cord is an instructor of music at Miss McClinnock's school in Boston, and it was while attending school there that Miss Rogers and Miss Cord became friends.

Miss Cord, who is an extremely pretty girl with a wealth of golden hair and a lovely complexion, has a refreshing and attractive manner as well as a very rich and beautiful soprano voice.

Miss Florence Cleveland had had visiting her for a few days, Miss Dorothy Collier of Eugene.

Miss Catharine Carson has as her house guest for the week end, Miss Helen McCornack, of Spokane, Washington. Miss McCornack is attending the University of Oregon and is a Gamma Phi Beta sorority sister of Miss Carson's.

Mrs. James G. Heltzel entertained informally Thursday afternoon with a sewing bee. The rooms were prettily adorned with zebras and the hostess was assisted in serving delightful refreshments by Mrs. Wilson Darby.

The guests were the members of the Rotherpater club and included: Mrs. Grover Bellinger, Mrs. Floyd Utter, Mrs. Guy Smith, Mrs. Otto Wilson, Mrs. Wilson Darby, Mrs. Earl Eyre, Mrs. P. H. Reeves, Mrs. Charles Bates and Mrs. F. E. Thompson.

Miss Lura Gerard of Pendleton, who has been the house guest of Mrs. William Connell Dyer for a couple of days, returned to day to Eugene where she is attending college.

Miss Gerard is a member of the Chi Omega sorority, of which Mrs. Dyer is also a member.

Mrs. Charles H. Fisher who has been visiting friends and relatives in Roseburg, returned Friday night.

Mr. and Mrs. William H. Dancy have as their guest, Mrs. Dancy's sister, Mrs. D. W. Eberlin of Spokane, Washington. During her stay in Salem Mrs. Eberlin will also visit her father and mother, Mr. and Mrs. John Dancy.

Mrs. Clyde Ramsby, who has been visiting Mrs. Rouna Hunter for a few days, returned to her home in Silverton today.

Mrs. L. F. Griffith has visiting her, for several days, Miss Juanita Matlock of Portland.

Friday evening a pleasant surprise party was given Mr. and Mrs. E. M. Law and their granddaughter, Miss Alice Reints, at their home in Salem Heights.

The gathering was given to bid farewell to the honor guests, who will soon leave for their new home in Jefferson. The evening was spent in chatting and later refreshments were served.

Those present were: Mr. and Mrs. Ellis Bennett, Mr. and Mrs. G. A. Sharp, Mr. and Mrs. O. M. Reeves, Mr. and Mrs. C. A. Ratcliffe, Mr. and Mrs. R. D. Hulsey, Mr. and Mrs. F. C. Robinson, Mr. and Mrs. E. M. Law, Misses Ruth Robinson and Alice Reints, Messrs. Edward Robinson, Claude Robinson and Kinney Haley.

The C. P. and Robert Chauncey Bishop have as their guests for the week end Clarence Bishop and Miss Beth Smith of Pendleton.

The members of the Spanish American War Veterans were informally entertained on Friday afternoon by Mrs. Roma C. Hunter and Mrs. Lester Davis at the home of the former. The hours were pleasantly whiled away with needlework and later the hostesses served dainty refreshments.

Mr. and Mrs. Thomas Vigers and daughter, Miss Catherine Vigers, and Mr. and Mrs. Ernest P. Vigers motored to Salem from Portland this afternoon, and are the guests of Miss Carol Dibble. They will return Sunday.

Mrs. Henry Lee returned home Friday from Portland, where she has been the guest of her sister, Mrs. L. H. Tarpley, for a few days.

Mr. and Mrs. Thomas Townsend went to Portland for a short visit Friday.

Mr. and Mrs. E. O. Seicke were among the Salem folk going to Portland today to attend the football game.

Miss Jessie Miller went to Portland today to pass the week end.

Mr. and Mrs. John A. Colts, who have been sojourning in Salem since the death of Mrs. Colts' father the late Solomon Durbin, left today for their home in Riverside, California.

Salem music lovers will flock to the opening Monday night to attend the opening concert of the Salem lyceum course. Miss Fay Cord soprano and William Morse-Rummel, violin virtuoso will be the premier attractions. Miss

Fashion Minus Extragance

It is both economical and smart to get the maximum of wear and comfort out of every single article of apparel. Many women cannot, without extravagance, purchase a separate coat or suit for every occasion of society or sport.

Automobile Coats are perfectly adapted to that pastime and yet are just as perfectly and correctly suited to street wear. Made of specially handsome and wear-worthy fabrics, they are cut on the season's most favored lines, and, to whatever use put, will be invariably pointed out as genuine apparel aristocrats.
