School Supervisor Smith reports that more schools in the southern part of the county are making improvements than for several years past. The Sunnyside school has built a woodshed and cleaned its well, the Illihee school has re-roofed, re-painted and oiled their floors, the Cloverdale school has a new drilled well and pump, the Turner school is contemplating the building of a gymnasium.
The folks living around Brooks appreciate what a car shortage means. Ten days ago a commission house asked for four cars at Brooks and found that orders for 23 cars had already been placed. Since the commission house placed its order 10 days ago, only one car has been spotted at Brooks and the estimate now is that at that station alone it would require 75 cars to move the farm produce and stock awaiting shipment. And while there are no cars to be had, the river is so low that the boats can only carry 50 tons at a time while ordinarily a load of 200 tons could be taken. So there you have the situation at Brooks—high prices for potatoes, onions and all other farm products and no means of delivering them.
Corporal A. E. Houston, Cooks Harry Plant and Emil Sunberg, and Private Hugh Martin, members of the rifle team that represented Company M at the state rifle shoot at Clackamas this week, returned last night to their home station. They report some good shooting done on the range this fall. In the individual shoot Cook Emil Sunberg ranked 16. Company B, of Portland, captured the shoot trophy. Sergeant Wolford, of the Coast Artillery company at Roseburg, won the individual trophy because he scored the highest of the 1,000 yard range. Up to that time it was a tie between him and Sergeant Myers, of the naval militia. Private Martin is reported as making an impossible, missing the entire target 20 times at 1,000 yards.

CITY NEWS
Last night the mercury in the O. C. T. government's thermometer registered 36 as the lowest, while the temperature for Friday were maximum 82 and minimum 38.
The record for a drought in this part of the state for this time of year is broken as there has been no rainfall since September 9, which figures 42 days.
The funeral of Theodore Einfield who died at his home in the city Thursday was held this afternoon with services at the Old Fellows' cemetery, conducted by the Rev. F. T. Porter.
The Nebraska university and O. A. C. football game in Portland on Saturday night the chief executive was on an automobile tour of the city, was an inmate of Marshalsea, the Allegheny county institution for insane, today.
He was committed there following examination by police physicians who declared him a mental defective. Dr. Barclay, physician to the Cullen family, declared that only on Thursday he had treated Cullen for an acute mental disorder. Cullen maintained throughout the examination that he only wanted to "interview" the president on his foreign policies.
"But we would have had to agree to change them or suffer the consequences," Cullen is reported to have said.
What the "consequences" might have been Cullen did not say.
Fred E. Mangis is home after having spent about three months at Roseburg in the interests of the Drager Fruit company. He says that things are in fine condition in Douglas county and that his firm bought five million pounds of prunes this fall, paying out more than a quarter of a million dollars. The prune crop in Douglas county was ten million pounds, the best yield ever known. Mr. Mangis will now devote his time to the commission business of Mangis Bros., and will shortly leave for Washington and Idaho buying potatoes.
Frank K. Welles, assistant state superintendent of public instruction, spoke yesterday at the Scholls garage, about 12 miles south of Hillsboro, Washington county, on the subject of "Union High Schools." Other speeches were made by prominent men from various parts of the state. The event was in the nature of a fair and Mr. Welles had been asked to present the side of the union high school as people in that portion of the country are beginning to feel the need of such an institution.
At the meeting of the Salem Rifle club next Monday evening in the old armory, plans will be discussed as to the best means of interesting the average business man in military drill and the pleasures of in-door target shooting. When the new automatic targets are installed, it will not be necessary to walk to the target to find out what score was made, as the automatics have a device by which the score is flashed by electric bulbs. The Rifle club will shoot tomorrow on the Finzer range.
Robert E. Croshaw, age 17, of Halls Ferry, enlisted yesterday in the coast artillery and was sent by the local recruiting officer to Vancouver barracks for training, to be later assigned to the coast artillery. This is the third young man from this recruiting office this week to enlist in the artillery service. Sergeant French returned this morning from a tour of the valley including Gervais, Woodburn and Silverton.

RICHARD CULLEN DECLARED INSANE
Man Who Sought to Board President's Auto Is Sent to Insane Asylum
Pittsburg, Pa., Oct. 21.—Richard Cullen may spend the remainder of his life in an asylum. The youthful Irish American, who made persistent efforts yesterday to reach President Wilson while the chief executive was on an automobile tour of the city, was an inmate of Marshalsea, the Allegheny county institution for insane, today.
He was committed there following examination by police physicians who declared him a mental defective. Dr. Barclay, physician to the Cullen family, declared that only on Thursday he had treated Cullen for an acute mental disorder. Cullen maintained throughout the examination that he only wanted to "interview" the president on his foreign policies.
"But we would have had to agree to change them or suffer the consequences," Cullen is reported to have said.
What the "consequences" might have been Cullen did not say.

HAWLEY REFUSES DEBATE
Portland, Ore., Oct. 21.—Congressman W. C. Hawley has refused to meet his opponent, Mark Weatherford, in joint debate of the issues of the campaign in the First congressional district.
Notice of the refusal is contained in a letter received yesterday by Lester Humphreys, secretary of democratic state central committee, from R. C. Glover of Salem secretary of the republican congressional committee of the first district.
The refusal is based chiefly on the grounds that Congressman Hawley would consider it beneath his dignity to debate with Mr. Weatherford.

Secretary Baker Denies Statement of Hughes
Detroit, Mich., Oct. 21.—Secretary of war Newton D. Baker was "misrepresented" he declared here today, in statements credited to him, comparing Washington's colonials to Pancho Villa's bandits.
"I did not make the comparison I have been charged with making," Baker declared hotly, when asked if he cared to comment on the charges.
"Mr. Hughes is like a drowning man when he seizes on such garbled misrepresentations as those which have been made."
Baker refused to discuss the matter further, but members of his party declared that in a speech at Flint tonight the war secretary would make it plain that his recent reference to Washington's troops was laudatory.
Sailors Make Heroic Rescue of Wrecked Crew
Cleveland, Ohio, Oct. 21.—With the aid of oil poured on the heavy seas, the fourteen men of the crew of the steamer Marshall F. Butters were rescued yesterday and taken toward different lake ports.
The story, learned today, rivals sea fiction. Facing a 60 mile gale, the F. R. Billings, a light wooden vessel, sighted the Butters, Captain Coady of the Billings could not hear the distress whistles, but interpreted the puffs of steam.
Oil was poured on the seas and twice the Billings went around the sinking Butters, picking up three sailors.
One boatload of the Butters' crew got away for the steamer Hartwell, which will make port at Fairport today.
The Billings came in here. Fear is felt that exposure may claim some of those rescued by the Hartwell.
The Butters shipped much water and its deck was littered with debris swept up by heavy seas.
A letter received yesterday by Lester Humphreys, secretary of democratic state central committee, from R. C. Glover of Salem secretary of the republican congressional committee of the first district.
The refusal is based chiefly on the grounds that Congressman Hawley would consider it beneath his dignity to debate with Mr. Weatherford.

Young People's Union Is Well Attended
The State Baptist Young People's Union convened in annual session this afternoon at the First Baptist church with an attendance of about 75. This evening at 6:30 a dinner will be given the visitors in the church parlors, served by the young people of the church. William Holt will act as toastmaster.
The president of the Union, Mrs. Edgar Burton, of Corvallis, will preside at the sessions. This evening at 8 o'clock an address will be given by the Rev. A. M. Petty, foreign Missionary secretary.
Tomorrow morning the delegates will attend the regular church services while in the afternoon addresses will be made by delegates. Beginning at 4 o'clock, two-minute talks will be made by members, each taking for his subject, "The Best Thing My Society Has Done This Year."
The session will close Sunday evening with an address by the Rev. J. D. Springston of Portland.
TRIP THROUGH MIDDLE WEST BRINGS DOUBT OF HUGHES' ELECTION
New York, Oct. 21.—The increasing strength of President Wilson in the middle west is again admitted by the New York Tribune, the Gibraltar of republicanism.
This staunchest of republican newspapers prints the following from a subscriber, who has just completed a tour of several western states.
"Mr. Hughes injured his own candidacy on his first trip to the Pacific coast. One hears this everywhere, and republicans declare it as openly as democrats. The republicans from Kansas, who traveled on the train with me, declared they would vote for Wilson or stay away from the polls, after having heard Hughes; and they asserted that Kansas was strong for Wilson's kind of peace and prosperity.
"I left New York convinced that Hughes would be our next president. Now I am in doubt. My reasons may not seem very important, but no one can go into the middle west just now and not feel that everywhere the flow of the tide is toward Wilson.
"Commenting on the letter, the New York Evening Post, which until a few days ago was a strong Hughes supporter, today says:
"Prosperity insuring to the benefit of a democratic administration is naturally disgusting to republicans, but it is doing them a lot of good. The republican who writes so pessimistically about the outlook for Hughes in the Tribune, returns with a feeling very much like looking for the 'prosperity' which has 'engulfed' the middle westerners. If this process goes on, the party soon will be singing the praises of poverty, and saying that there is nothing like an empty stomach to stimulate true patriotism."
