Mr. and Mrs. George F. Rodgers motored to Eugene Sunday, to pass the day with their daughter, Miss Margaret Rodgers, who is attending the university. They were accompanied by Mr. and Mrs. Fred Dawson and Miss Janet Dawson, who joined them in Albany. The Dawson's daughter, Miss Ann Dawson, is also at Oregon and she and Miss Rodgers are Kappa Alpha Theta sorority sisters.

Mr. and Mrs. W. Melvin Plimpton have had visiting them Mr. Plimpton's parents and cousin, Mr. and Mrs. W. W. Plimpton of Portland and Miss Alice Plimpton of Boston. The Plimptons and their guest motored to Salem Saturday, returning yesterday.

Mrs. Louis W. Josse returned Friday from Roseburg, where she has been visiting her parents, Mr. and Mrs. J. S. Barker for the past three months.

During her sojourn in that attractive city, Mrs. Josse was the inspiration for several charming affairs given by her old friends. Later Mrs. Josse will have as her guest her sister, Miss Yvonne Barker, who has visited here on several occasions.

Mr. and Mrs. L. S. Geer motored to Eugene Sunday, and were accompanied by Mr. and Mrs. D. I. Howard, who spent the day with their daughter, Miss Cary Howard, a student at the university.

Mr. and Mrs. W. G. Allen were among the Salem folks attending the Nebraska-O. A. C. game in Portland Saturday.

Mr. and Mrs. Frank Morrison entertained informally Friday evening at their home on 1511 South Liberty street. A guessing contest formed the evening's diversion and the prizes were won by Miss Florence Wiedmer and Miss Leona Wiedmer.

Those enjoying Mr. and Mrs. Morrison's hospitality were, Mrs. Eugene Rulifson, Mrs. Myrtle Henderson, Mrs. Everett Condit, Mrs. Dora DeLaaney, the Misses Clara Page, Florence and Leona Wiedmer, Fannie Morrison, Ruby Hack, Hazel DeLaaney, Bessie Goode, Grace Rawson, Katherine Morrison and Master Ralph DeLaaney and Frank Morrison.

Inasmuch as Mr. and Mrs. Harry Hawkins have many friends in Salem, and will make their home here an account of their wedding, which recently took place in Albany, will be interesting.

Attraction centers about the brilliant wedding of Miss Lora Jane Taylor, daughter of Mr. and Mrs. George Taylor, and Harry Hawkins of Salem, son of Mr. and Mrs. J. M. Hawkins of this city. Tuesday evening, October seventeen was the date chosen for this event which was the bright light in the social affairs of Albany. The marriage was solemnized in the First Presbyterian church, Rev. Franklin H. Geselbraent officiating. A fashionable gath-ring of Albany society and out of town guests thronged the church. Preceding the ceremony, strains of pipe organ music filled the church, beautifully rendered by Mrs. Fred Newton of Portland. Miss Blanche Hammel with her sweet soprano voice sang "Until" and "The Night has a Thousand Eyes." As the organ pealed forth strains of Mendelssohn's "Wedding March" the bridal party entered the church, which had been decorated for the occasion with vari-colored autumn leaves. The pulpit and organ were banked with the autumn leaves and arches of them were artistically arranged down the aisles, everywhere over the church a profusion of the gaily colored leaves were used in decoration. Long stemmed chrysanthemums on tall pedestals also formed part of the decorations and made an effective background for the bridal party. Fred Newton of Portland, Bob Roberts of Salem, Harry Morton of McMinnville and A. E. Benson of Portland ushered the guests. Robert McMurray of Portland, acting as best man and Miss Gertie Taylor as maid of honor. Miss Zona Haight and Miss Winnie Austin were bridesmaids.

The lovely bride was beautiful in charmeuse embellished with silver lace and with a court train lying in graceful folds. A full length veil artistically fastened in her pretty coiffure, a bouquet of Cecil Brunner roses with a shower of lilies of the valley were the completion of the attractive costume.

Miss Gertie Taylor was handsomely gowned in watermelon pink and white taffeta, trimmed with rare white lace and tulle, silver also formed part of the trimmings on her dress. A filmy hat white tulle, decorated with pink roses and black velvet streamers gave a charming effect to her costume. She carried pink and white chrysanthemums tied with tulle.

The charming bridesmaids were pretty in dainty taffeta dresses. Miss Zona Haight handsomely wore a green and pink striped taffeta with a green bodice and attractively trimmed with silver lace. Her hat was of green tulle with black velvet streamers and she carried a basket of pink carnations tied with tulle. A dress of pink and lavender striped taffeta with a silver choker bodice and trimmed with beaded goergette crepe made Miss Winnie Austin attractive. Completing her costume she wore a pink tulle hat with black velvet streamers and carried a basket of lavender cosmos and yellow chrysanthemums with a tulle bow. The bride's mother, Mrs. Taylor wore a blue silk gown with gold lace for the effective trimming. Mrs. Hawkins gown was a handsome model of blue charmeuse, beautifully embroidered across the front of the waist.

The bride is an unusually attractive and charming girl, popular among the social circle of Albany and other towns. She attended the University of Oregon and is a member of the Kappa Alpha Theta sorority. She was extremely popular while in school, being a girl of many good qualities and a lovable nature. For the past few years she has been living with her parents in Albany. Since the announcement of her engagement there has been many gay festivities for which the bride has been the central figure. Mr. Hawkins is a prominent young man formerly living in Albany now a financial agent in Salem.

Mr. and Mrs. Harry Hawkins left for a few weeks in Portland and will later return to Salem, making their future home in the Court apartments. They will be immediately received and popular in the social set in Salem.—Albany Daily Democrat.

Mr. O. C. Thompson, who has been visiting Mrs. Agnes Griffith of 491 Cottage street for the past few weeks, left Saturday for a sojourn in California. Later Mrs. Thompson will go to Idaho, where she will join Mr. Thompson, who formerly was coach at the Willamette university, and now is physical director of the Y. M. C. A. in Idaho.

New Coatings and Dress Goods Here Is the Reason

Why we have succeeded in building an enormous trade in Children's Footwear. Is it convincingly sufficient?
Just Arrived!—A delayed shipment of Fall Worsteds and Coatings, comprised of handsome Plaids, Stripes and Solid Shades. This lot was ordered months ago to be delivered in August. Because of the increased demand for these goods they were placed on back order. Since ordering them the prices of dress goods and coatings have advanced. This advance does not affect the price of this shipment. Therefore we offer them at a price lower than the present market value.

Coatings

To be found here are Plaid Coatings, Plush Coatings and Astrachan Coatings. A beautiful collection of the best goods in the newest shades of brown, black and green. Don't fail to inspect them.

Suitings

Worsted Suitings in pretty Plaids and Stripes. A much wanted variety. They represent the cream of this line of merchandise and are increasing in popularity. The assortment is unusually large.

Worsted Fabrics

A mammoth stock of popular Worsted Fabrics, such as San Toy Poplins, Serges, French Serges, Plaids, Shepard Checks, Broadcloths, Ottomans, Gabardines, Batistes, at prices lower than can be found elsewhere. A good many of these fabrics are still priced on the old basis.

Buster Brown Shaping Last Shoes Make Shapely Feet

At this age the child's foot is very fleshy and shapeless. As the child grows, a rule the foot mother uses good judgment and fits the shoe easy.

The heel has been slightly lifted, the ankle lines have been reduced, the arch is in evidence and the shapely toe lines now begin to appear.

The slender lines came naturally, with not a suggestion of pinch. The ankle lines are straight and slim, insuring a graceful taper as age adds flesh.

An ideal adult foot, dainty in its long lines, gracefully arched and without a blemish. At no stage was the child conscious of the shaping process.

The heel-hugging principle of Buster Brown Shaping Lasts continues through all sizes. They intelligently anticipate the needs of the growing feet and assure shapely, useful and graceful feet when the child is grown. Buster Brown Shoes are broad when the foot is broad, slim when the foot is long and thin, and neatly tapered as the arch develops. Put your child in BUSTER BROWN SHAPING LAST SHOES and stick to this last.

Blossoms and joyous messages of congratulation are being showered upon Mr. and Mrs. George William Gray, upon the arrival of a baby girl born this morning. She will be called Georgiana in honor of her father.

The members of the "Leisure Hour Club" were delightfully entertained Thursday afternoon by Mrs. E. C. Small and Mrs. George J. Pearce, at the residence of the latter, on North Winter street. The affair, which was a Kensington, marked the first gathering of the club this season. Besides the matrons of the club the hostesses asked as guests, Mrs. Joseph H. Albert, Mrs. John C. Griffith and Mrs. E. Lamb.

The members are: Mrs. George G. Bingham, Mrs. Perry H. Raymond, Mrs. Daniel J. Fry, Mrs. U. G. Shipley, Mrs. R. W. Wallace, Mrs. C. A. Parks, Mrs. G. W. Matthews, Mrs. M. M. Chapman, Mrs. George G. Brown, Mrs. Emma Davis, Mrs. George J. Pearce, Mrs. Alice H. Dadd, Mrs. H. Dayton, Mrs. H. J. Clemeats, Mrs. L. L. Pearce, Mrs. E. C. Small, Mrs. Lucy Stoughton and Mrs. William H. Stusloff.

Foremost among the week's attractions, is the Court-Bureau concert at the armory tonight. This attraction, which opens the musical season in Salem and is the premier of the lyceum course, bids fair to be one of the best of the season.

A delightful reception was given in the parlors of Leslie Methodist church, Wednesday night, to honor the new minister and his family, Rev. and Mrs. H. Aldrich and children, who have recently come to Salem from Cottage Grove. About 150 gathered to meet the newcomers. During the evening an enjoyable programme was given and later the evening was closed with refreshments.

The Pythian Sisters will celebrate their anniversary tomorrow evening with a homecoming at the McCorrack hall. A delightful programme has been prepared for the event and a general good time will be had by all participating.

Knights, Sisters and their families are cordially invited to attend the festivity.

Mr. and Mrs. E. Cooke Patton will have as their dinner guest tonight, Senator Chamberlain of Portland.

Miss Emma Duncean of Omaha, who has been the guest of Miss Minnie Downing of South Salem during the summer, left for home this morning going by way of the Canadian Pacific. She is much enthused over Oregon and will probably return to make her home.

Salem Sportsmen Want Fish Hatchery

Sportsmen of Salem and the immediate vicinity are working together to get a fish hatchery established in the neighborhood of Mehama and are gathering facts to bring it before the State Fish and Game commission in a manner that is conclusive. Such a hatchery would be at the service of sportsmen who contribute, it is said, from 50 to 60 per cent of the money for the maintenance of the commission. The licenses issued go to a large majority of Portland fishermen who are compelled to come up the valley for their fishing. A large number now go to the Mackenzie and in the neighborhood of Eugene, where the waters of the surrounding streams are supplied with fish. It is believed that if a hatchery could be secured for Mehama it would induce numbers of Portland sportsmen to stop off here as it would be a much closer source of sport than Eugene and the McKenzie.

According to John W. Harrison, who is interested in this matter along with other Salemites, a hatchery at Mehama could supply the following streams with millions of fish where now they get only a few hundred thousand from the government hatchery at Bonnaville: Santiam, North, South, Middle and Little Forks; Calipui, Breitenbush, Thomas creek, Crab Tree, Mary's river, Big Luckimute, Little Luckimute, Silver creek, Abiqua, Butte creek, Pudding river and its various tributaries which includes Mill creek. From the hatchery at Mehama fish could be taken to the above streams by trucks.

PRUNE CROP WAS GOOD

The harvest of the prune crop is finished in this locality for this year, the larger growers having completed their work of drying during the past few days. Among the growers who have their own dryers are Tom Hanson, Severin Nelson, O. K. Sebo, Ole Mor, Louis Anderson and B. F. Terry. There are a number of growers whose orchards are either smaller or have not come into full bearing that dry their fruit in dryers belonging to others. The price this year is six cents per pound and the yield has been above the average.—Silverton Appeal.

Prominent Men of Salem

FRANK G. MYERS

Frank Galey Myers was born at Oil City, Penn., 1880. The family came to Oregon settling in Lebanon where they resided until 1900 when they came to Salem. Mr. Myers became associated with Walter Stolz in conducting The Spa, Salem's leading confectionary store. In 1911 Mr. Stolz turned over the active management of the store to Mr. Myers, Mr. Stolz devoting his entire attention to the firm of Gideon Stolz & Co. Mr. Myers has kept The Spa one of the show places of Salem and in quality, service and management it is unsurpassed in the west. Many other refreshment resorts, scattered all over the northwest, have copied The Spa's original designs and ideas. Mr. Myers is particularly proud of the fact that he retains one of the best dispensers in the business to preside over the fountain. The service in this pioneer establishment, from the chef's quarters to the service counters is modern in the last date of the word and is an admirable asset to Salem's social life.
