One of the most delightful events scheduled in the calendar for this week is the bridge party for which Mrs. Edward E. Tillinghast and Mrs. Frank Brown will be hostesses at the residence of the former on Wednesday.

At the Y. W. C. A. an oriental tea will be given Saturday afternoon, by the Salem Woman's club.

The club had first planned to give the affair at a private residence, but at a meeting of the social committee, Saturday afternoon, it was decided that the function be given at the Y. W. C. A.

The reception is an annual event and is given in honor of the club's new president, Mrs. William Gallo-way president, Mrs. Willis C. Hawley and Mrs. James Withycombe will be the honor guests.

A group of young girls in oriental costumes will assist.

Of interest to Salem's younger set will be the wedding of Miss Ione Lambert of Portland, to George F. Engleby of La Grande, Oregon, which will be solemnized tonight at the residence of the bride-elect's parents, Mr. and Mrs. A. W. Lambert, Miss Clementine Lambert, a sister of the bride-to-be, will be her maid of honor.

The function will be followed by a small reception.

Miss Hazel Price entertained recently with a delightful informal afternoon, her guests being the members of the "Quince Jour" club. The rooms were prettily adorned with roses and brilliant autumnal foliage.

The afternoon was devoted to sewing and music. Miss Marie Bennett assisted the hostess in serving a dainty repast.

Mrs. M. P. Baldwin of Pendleton, formerly of Salem, who has been visiting friends here, returned home Saturday.

Miss Irene Curtis, who is attending the Oregon Agricultural College, came home for the week end.

Mr. and Mrs. Paul Hauser had as their guests Sunday, Mr. and Mrs. Lloyd Hauser of Eugene.

At the Commercial club on Monday evening, October 30, the Salem Floral society will celebrate its first birthday with a Hallowe'en party. A splendid programme has been arranged for the event and will include music and "jobbies" readings. A diversity of interesting things to do will make the evening a gala one.

The committee in charge of the celebration will appear in sheets and pillow cases with weird faces. John Alden and Priscilla will be there to greet the guests.

Refreshments will round out the gayeties, in which the public is cordially invited to participate.

Mrs. W. M. Persons of 1296 North Commercial street, entertained Saturday afternoon with a miscellaneous shower in honor of Miss Ruth Schultz, whose engagement was recently announced to John Robert Addison. The hostess was assisted by Mrs. Joseph Schultz. About 15 of the bride-elect's friends were present and she was the recipient of many beautiful and useful gifts.

The Misses Rhoda and Odillie Persons served the refreshments.

Mr. and Mrs. W. H. Cook motored to Sweet Home for the week end and were the guests of their son-in-law and daughter, Dr. and Mrs. Ivan Bellinger.

Friday evening, October the twenty-seventh, a basket social will be given at the Mountain View school house in Polk county, under the auspices of the parent-teachers association.

A feature of the evening will be an interesting programme. All friends and members are invited to attend.

Miss Bertha Duncan, whose marriage to Earl Waldo Baker, will take place Sunday, October the twenty-ninth, was the honoree for a delightful luncheon shower Thursday night. The affair which was given at the home of the bride-elect's parents, Mr. and Mrs. R. B. Duncan, was planned by a group of her girl friends.

Miss Duncan formerly was a teacher in the Grant school and has many friends in Salem, who are regretting the fact that after her marriage she will make her home in Detroit, Michigan.

The home of Mr. and Mrs. Henry Bartels, south of Maclay, was the scene of an enjoyable dinner Sunday when a number of friends gathered, to celebrate Mr. Bartels' birthday.

The guests numbered 30 and were for the most part neighbors, with a few Salem folk who motored out for the occasion. Among those going from here were: Mr. and Mrs. C. J. Spitzbart, Mr. and Mrs. August Carl, Mr. and Mrs. Kehrberger, Mr. and Mrs. Kruger, Miss Martha Corrodi and Mr. Corrodi.

Dr. Staples will be at the Y. M. C. A. tonight at 7:30 o'clock to see all those who have not had their physical examinations for the Y. W. C. A. gymnasium classes.

On Thursday the Woman's Relief Corps will meet at the home of Mrs. Jessie Pope in Locust avenue, for an afternoon of sewing. All members are asked to be present.

Mr. and Mrs. Grover Jones of Kaiser, are receiving congratulations upon the advent of a daughter, born Friday, October the thirteenth. She will be called Oleta Aae.

Saturday afternoon the Star Sunday school class of the Jason Lee church was entertained at the home of Miss Ruth Minton. Out door games were played and later the gayeties were closed with refreshments.

Gifford Pinchot Still a Progressive
Portland, Ore., Oct. 24.—Carrying an appeal to all progressives to vote for Charles E. Hughes, whom he styles a "true progressive," Gifford Pinchot, former chief of the United States forestry department, will leave for California at 3:50 p. m., making his first stop in San Francisco.
Pinchot spoke to a big crowd here last night. He assured his auditors that he was still a progressive saying: "I am not a republican, and heaven knows I am not a democrat. It is as a progressive that I appeal to you to vote for Charles E. Hughes. He stands for progressive principles, as his record as governor of New York shows."
"Every progressive and every true advocate of progressive principles should vote for Hughes."

Alleged Cement Trust Case Practically Ended
Portland, Or., Oct. 24.—November 20 will see the end of sensational litigation recently instituted here by Aman Moore, vice president of the Oregon Portland Cement company who sued certain other officers of that corporation and 14 big cement concerns in all parts of the west for heavy damages, alleging violation of the Sherman anti-trust law.

On petition of a majority of stockholders in Moore's company, the federal court dismissed his suit. His application for a temporary injunction, to prevent the defendant officials from performing their duties, was denied, but the court will hear arguments for a permanent injunction November 20.
Stockholders opposed to Moore filed a resolution with the federal court, demanding his resignation.
Chicago, quoting from a newspaper of August 3, 1881: "now has the enormous population of 38,800, an increase of 10,000 in the last year."

TEN DECISIONS BY THE SUPREME COURT

Indictment for Selling Liquor Must Show Sale Was Made in Dry Territory
Because the indictment against Alfred Alpin, charged with selling intoxicating liquor in Marion county, did not state that the sale was made in dry territory, and because the offense is not stated affirmatively to bring it within the provisions of the local option law, Judge McBride of the Oregon supreme court, affirmed the judgment of Judge Kelly of the circuit court for Marion county in sustaining the demurrer of Alpin to the complaint filed against him.

There were four indictments against Alpin and he demurred, alleging they did not state facts sufficient to constitute a crime and because they did not substantially comply with the law in that they failed to state the particular circumstances of the crime. Judge Kelly sustained the demurrer and the state appealed.
In the opinion written by Justice McBride, it is stated that there are three ingredients of the crime: First, the defendant must have sold intoxicating liquor; second, he must have sold it outside the limits of any incorporated city; third, he must have sold it without a license. It was also stated that the passage of the prohibition amendments did not have the effect to extend the statute to cities and towns not theretofore embraced in its terms. The court declared that the facts as stated in the complaint might be true and yet not comply with the law.
There were ten decisions handed down this morning. The others follow: William Greenberg, respondent, vs. German American Insurance company, appellant, appeal from Multnomah county Judge W. N. Gatens, an action for damages resulting from breach of an alleged oral contract; reversed and remanded; decision by Justice Burnett.
F. M. Tooney, respondent, vs. J. D. Casey and J. H. Hutchison, appellants, appeal from Multnomah county, Judge Robert Morrow, second appeal to the supreme court; judgment of circuit court reversed by opinion of Justice Bean in former case, which was an action for the recovery of $10,031.42. Reversed and remanded.

E. L. Giles, et al, respondents, vs. the City of Roseburg, et al, appellants, appeal from Douglas county, Judge G. F. Skipworth, from a decree enjoining the enforcement of a special assessment for the nursery stock amounts to $200,000 in all. The company asserts that by reason of the sale and delivery of stock Settlemier is estopped from setting up any claim for damages. They pray judgment as asked for in the complaint.

Court House News
The estate of John Guldau, who died August 24, 1916, was filed this morning with the county court. The value of the estate is given as $13,500, which is in real and personal property. The widow, Barbara Guldau, age 72, living at Mt. Angel, renounces her right to act as administrator and asks the court to appoint Joseph Keber as administrator.

Marriage licenses were issued to Ernest Vernon Patton, a farmer of Maclay, and Lillian Albertine Fries, also of Maclay, and Edward Domogella, of 569 N. Capital street, a fireman, and Lou Dovey, of 333 Leslie street, Salem.
County School Superintendent Smith is getting out a special report of the schools of Marion county to send to the answer of Settlemier asserting that part of the stock was not as represented as filed this morning. The reply states that on account of the charge that part of the Hazard cherries stock was inferior they demanded from Settlemier a statement as to the inferior stock, which he has neglected to do. The reply also states that Settlemier owes the company $622.77 on a note and that with the sum of $13,500 for the nursery stock amounts to $200,000 in all. The company asserts that by reason of the sale and delivery of stock Settlemier is estopped from setting up any claim for damages. They pray judgment as asked for in the complaint.
