CORPORATIONS WORTH A MILLION DOLLARS

One of New Incorporations Is Shipbuilding Company of Portland

Articles of incorporation filed with Corporation Commissioner today aggregate the sum of one million dollars of the California Paper and Board Company, which has a capital stock of $250,000.

In Dayville, Grant county, The Stewart Livestock company has been formed to deal in real estate and livestock. Their incorporators are Sarah Stewart, R. E. Stewart, and Edna Stewart. Their capital stock is given as $250,000.

The Burnt River Dredging Company announces an increase in its capital stock from $50,000 to $250,000. The Fashion Stables of Portland were given a certificate of dissolution as was the firm of Henneman and Johnson, also of Portland.

For the purpose of building, owning, and operating sailing vessels and steamers, the Oregon Shipping Company, with headquarters in Portland, has been organized with a capital of $200,000. The incorporators are Carlton E. Spencer, George E. Holston and C. A. Sheppard.

With Louis Reno, William Ballis, and Alane Satterlee, as the incorporators the "B and B Realty Company," of Portland, has been formed with a capital stock of $40,000.

Former Salem residents figure in the forming of the Ball Manufacturing company of Portland. They are William J. Ball, who formerly lived on the Slough road and who is well known in Salem; Palmyra Ball, and Myrtle Card, who was also a former resident of Salem. The company is formed for the purpose of manufacturing wearing apparel and goods manufactured from fabrics. The office is in Portland and a certificate of decrease in capital stock was given to the Clackamas Farming Company of Portland through its secretary Lee Fung. The decrease was from $30,000 to $24,000.

WILLIAM MORSE-RUMMEL--ARTIST

William Morse Rummel, who appeared at the Armory last night with the Sord-Rummel Lyceum company in the first concert of the season under the management of Glenn J. McCaddam.

By Perry Reigleman

An artist who is an artist to his finger tips yet who does not look like the conventional picture of a man who has stirred audiences from the Atlantic to the Pacific ocean, is William Morse Rummel, violinist, who appeared here in the armory last night in concert with the Sord-Rummel Lyceum company.

Modest, unassuming and somewhat reluctant to talk about himself, Mr. Rummel was found in his rooms in the Marion hotel yesterday afternoon. Yet, once the strangeness is worn away, he is a delightful conversationalist.

Naturally, he was full of his subject and talked music and the way the audiences in the different parts of the United States "took" his playing. He was frank to say that he liked the western people best because they were not so blasé, because they were not afraid of showing enthusiasm for anything they liked. In the east, he said it was proper not to be too demonstrative even over the finest artistry in the world.

Both Mr. and Mrs. Rummel like the west because of the genial bonhomie they have found and the appreciation with which they have been met. In his opinion the northwest feels freer to express itself, is more generous in its appreciation of his art, than any other part of the coast, not excepting Los Angeles, which is reputed to be a center for art, music, and drama.

Mr. Rummel is an interesting personality and the more one knows him the better he is liked. But he is a man without a country; he has no flag he can really call his own. His case may be likened to the kittens that were born in a barge on the river—where are they?

He was born in Berlin, Germany, yet he is an Englishman. His grandfather was William Morse, the inventor of the telephone. When he was here before he took out his first citizenship papers, which means he renounced allegiance to England. He is not a full fledged American yet.

He had numerous dates made in Canada from Montreal to British Columbia but on account of this war he had to cancel them. His name is very German, so if he stepped across the line into Canada he would probably be seized and sent to a detention camp. If he proved he was an Englishman, he would be sent to the front to fight and even if he went into Canada he would lose all his first papers and have to start all over again to be an American. So he stays this side of the Canadian border.

Among the artists of the musical world Mr. Rummel ranks high. He counts among his personal friends artists like Ysaye, whose favorite pupil he was, Kreisler, Zimbalist, Thibaud, Maud Powell, Godowsky, Bauer, and Paderewski. At the end of his lyceum season, which will take him over a large portion of the United States, he will appear as soloist with the Rochester Symphony Orchestra. He is also a joint commission on common prayer and probably will be acted on late today. It was thought the "Catholic" faction would not ask any changes following the lack of interest in a proposition earlier in the conference sessions to change the name of the church to the "Catholic church of America."

It was also learned today that no change in the Ten Commandments would be made at this conference. Last week it was rumored the house of bishops, the upper house of the church, favored the shortening of the commandments. Today it definitely said the joint commission on revising and enacting the liturgy of the church would not present the matter at the present conference. Whether the commission would continue its work and report to the next Detroit conference in 1919 could not be learned.

engaged for recital with the famous "All American Stars" concert series in Lockport, New York.

Mr. Rummel takes his art very seriously. He feels that it is the mission of the artist to go into the hearts of the people and then bring it back to the people, give them what they want yet do not satisfy them fully, leading them on and upward into new and keener appreciation. He feels it his duty to instruct, to educate, without apparently doing so, and that is why the true artist succeeds and holds his audiences. The artist who only tries to amuse for the time being will pass like the leaves of summer and after a few years is forgotten. He believes in giving the best in him all the time, whether in the Metropolitan opera house in New York city to an audience of critics or to a tank town on a far western circuit. That's Rummel's principles.

It was a keen pleasure to meet Mr. and Mrs. Rummel for they were both jolly and pleasant.

Senator Chamberlain Meets Old Friends Here

It was like a real home coming for Senator Chamberlain to visit Salem yesterday for during his six years in the governor's chair he got to know nearly everyone in Salem, and everyone knows George. It was for this reason it seemed to him as he said last night, that he was coming home.

Arriving yesterday afternoon he was the dinner guest of Mr. and Mrs. E. Cooke Patton, who after taking him for an auto drive through the city dropped him off at the Marion Hotel shortly after 7 o'clock and there innumerable friends flocked in to say "hello George" and shake hands. The Stoumenmeyer band played several numbers in front of the hotel and at 8 o'clock led the crowd to the Grand Opera House which was packed to its utmost capacity long before he arrived. Chairman Attorney John Bayne called upon Mrs. Hines who in splendid voice sang "Go Right Along Mr. Wilson," which brought a storm of applause.

CONSTANT PAIN IN BACK FROM KIDNEY TROUBLE

I wish to tell you of my condition of about four years ago. I was afflicted with kidney and bladder troubles and a constant pain in my back all the time for about two or three months. I did not have any appetite and could not rest at night and I was hardly able to do my house work. I saw Dr. Kilmer's advertisement and decided to give Swamp-Root a trial; after taking four bottles of Swamp-Root I was restored to health and have not been afflicted since. I will cheerfully recommend Dr. Kilmer's Swamp-Root to others afflicted with kidney and bladder troubles.

Yours truly,
SARAH FRAYER,
803 E. 6th St. Coffeyville, Kan., State of Kansas, Montgomery county.

Be it remembered, that on this 17 day of April, 1915, before me, W. G. Bowman, a notary public, in and for said county and state, came Sarah Frayer, who is known to me to be the same person who executed the within statement, and such person duly acknowledged the execution of the same to be free and voluntary act and deed.

In testimony whereof, I have hereunto set my hand and year first above written.
W. G. Bowman,
Notary Public.

PUT CREAM IN NOSE AND STOP CATARRH

Tells How To Open Clogged Nostrils and End Head-Colds.

You feel fine in a few moments. Your cold in head or catarrh will be gone. Your clogged nostrils will open. The air passages of your head will clear and you can breathe freely. No more dullness, headache; no hawking, snuffling, mucous discharges or dryness; no struggling for breath at night.

Tell your friends you want a small bottle of Ely's Cream Balm. Apply a little of this fragrant, antiseptic cream in your nostrils, let it penetrate through every air passage of the head; soothe and heal the swollen, inflamed mucous membrane, and relief comes instantly.

It is just what every cold and catarrh sufferer needs. Don't stuff up and miserably.

applause, and the response to the encore was "When the Boys Come Home."

Senator Chamberlain was then introduced and for two hours held the audience spell-bound as they listened to his description of the president's achievements, a resume of which is given elsewhere. The fact that many stood for two hours heedless of time or discomfort, shows the appealing force of the senator's address.

San Felice Standard to Be Maintained, Says Makers

All Dealers Now Sell Famous Cigars at 5c Straight. In Effect Today

Owing to the greatly increased cost of quality tobacco, in fact everything pertaining to high grade cigars, the makers of the San Felice cigar, The J. J. Wemmer Company, have advanced the selling price to the jobbers and dealers, and henceforth this cigar will positively be sold to the consumer at 5 cents straight instead of six for a quarter as previously.

The SAN FELICE is national in its scope and character, having just attained this eminence through its unexcelled excellence. To maintain this unequalled standard of quality, the advance in question is absolutely unavoidable. The generous support of all men using quality cigars is earnestly desired.
