POLITICS DISCUSSED BY SENATOR JONES

Claims Most of Measures Passed Were Voted For by Republicans

Although Senator Wesley Jones, of Washington, who spoke for republicanism at the Grand opera house last night, is a brilliant speaker, a forceful and virile orator, his eloquence did not draw as well as the ladies of the "Golden Special" or the talk of Senator Chamberlain Saturday night and the house was "not crowded." In his opening remarks, Senator Jones stated he would not abuse or question the sincere belief and views of those who held the democratic view-point. He paid tribute to the sincerity of President Wilson but charged that he made many mistakes in his domestic and international policies.

Regarding the credit being taken by democratic party leaders for what its termed constructive legislation, Senator Jones declared that if the republican representatives and senators had not concurred they would not have been passed. He was unable to see how the democrats could assume credit for that which belongs to both parties. He was of the opinion that the measures were not political but economical and that therefore not proper material for campaign issues.

Prices Move Higher in Million Share Day

New York, Oct. 25.—The New York Evening Sun financial review today says: In the greater part of today's session prices as a rule moved in the direction of higher levels, declines from the high points of profit taking liquidation finding a ready market to absorb all offerings. In many issues new high records were reported, notably in the sugar stocks and Chicago, Rock Island and Pacific, while throughout the active list of industrials and rails the buying both for Wall Street and for public account was in sufficient volume to maintain quotations at or near the next range of the preceding day. The paper shares were strong features; likewise Industrial Alcohol, which advanced eight points in the initial trading, Westinghouse and some of the so-called specialties.

Police Chief Thanked For Kindness to Girl

Chief of Police Welsh received a letter this morning from Mrs. Blanche Mason, superintendent of the women's department of the protective division of the Seattle police department, thanking him for his services and kindness in the case of Evelyn Anstead, who was connected with the case of Carl C. Ball, who was arrested in this city during fair week for stealing automobiles. At that time they claimed to be man and wife. Chief Welsh arrested him on request of Leonard S. Martin, deputy sheriff of Seattle, but the girl was not taken into custody.

BONES OF MAMMOTH MAN

San Leandro, Cal., Oct. 24.—The bones of a mammoth man, indicating a height of eight feet were unearthed on the Frank Williams ranch near here today. The find was made by a gang of workmen digging a trench. The thigh bones and most of the vertebrae are intact. The University of California has offered to purchase the relic and the bones are being shipped to Berkeley today. They are supposed to belong to some member of a prehistoric race.

McNamara Will Ask Board to Parole Him

San Francisco, Oct. 25.—John J. McNamara, serving a 15 year sentence in San Quentin prison for the Los Angeles Times dynamiting, will probably appear before the California state board of pardon direction Saturday and make a personal plea for release on parole. This news was confirmed today by Warden Johnston of the prison, following receipt by the San Francisco labor council of a request that the organization endorse McNamara's parole. The request was contained in a circular letter sent out by the International Iron Workers union and will be acted upon Friday night.

Little Girl's Pleadings Saved Brother's Dog

According to information received here by Sergeant Schumann, who is in charge of the Marine recruiting office located in the postoffice, the ponderous machinery of government in Washington stood still recently while a 13-year-old girl stood before a group of dignified generals and tearfully pleaded for the life of a little yellow dog. The sergeant says, the girl's name is Esther Smiley, and that her home is in Maryland. He says she is the sister of Private Peter Smiley, a recruit in the United States Marine corps, and that the dog had been Peter's playmate ever since he was a youth.

Six Killed When Auto Was Hit by Train

South Bend, Ind., Oct. 25.—Three women, one man and two children were instantly killed today when their automobile was hit by an interurban car about six miles north of here. The dead are: Frank Brown, Inwood, Ind.; Mrs. Carl Olsenburg, Inwood; Mrs. Florence Elliott, Kokomo; Mrs. Frank Elliott, Kokomo. Two children of Mrs. Frank Elliott, Brown was driving the car. The party was returning from Niles, Mich., when the accident occurred. There is a sharp turn in the road at the place where the accident occurred and the occupants of the automobile evidently did not see the danger until the interurban car was upon them.

Say Blackmail Gang Responsible for Bomb

San Francisco, Oct. 25.—That the same blackmail gang which operated recently in Oakland, San Jose, Martinez and Monterey was responsible for the explosion of a bomb last night under the home of Frank Palazotta was the belief of the police detectives today.

WHEAT SMASHES

(Continued from page one.) the high mark for the Pacific northwest today when actual sales of bluestem were made in the interior at $1.60 per bushel, Portland delivery. This is the stiffest price ever known here. An additional 40 cent increase in the cost of flour was considered today but one big mill held out and refused to concur. It will probably go into effect today, when flour is expected to sell at $8.40 a barrel. Broomhall of Liverpool, one of the biggest grain dealers in the world, notified local handlers today that the wheat crop in the northern part of Argentine had been destroyed. The cause was not given. Middle western potato buyers today wired Portland dealers bidding on unlimited quantities of spuds, offering to pay $1.30 per hundred pounds in advance on railway shipment and 70 cents additional per hundred upon delivery. The bids created a sensation on the market.

Flour Up 20 Cents

Portland, Ore., Oct. 25.—Flour jumped 20 cents today, reaching a record rate of $8 a barrel for patent, the highest ever known here. Further increases are imminent and the price of all bread-stuffs will probably go up.

A $200,000 Fortune From the Little "Rooms for Rent" Want Ads There's a woman in Cleveland, Ohio, who has amassed a fortune of more than $200,000 through the use of want ads. Beginning with a small house with but two extra rooms which she advertised for rent, the foundation of the total was made in less than five years. As income increased entire houses were leased and re-rented to roomers through the mighty little want ads. Eighteen years have elapsed since the humble beginning, but methods have not been changed—the little want ad costing but a few pennies a day is still renting rooms—still piling up profits. YOUR vacant room may likewise prove the beginning of a fortune. Advertise it in the "Rooms for Rent" columns of The Journal, and keep the revenue coming. Then get MORE rooms, and keep them in the live, producing class, by the SAME unflinching means. What one has done, others can do, and the little "want ad" will help you to success.

Captain and Sergeant Killed in Santo Domingo Washington, Oct. 25.—A navy report from Colonel Penleton, commanding American marines at Santo Domingo today stated that Captain W. W. Lowe and Sergeant Frank Atwood were killed and First Lieutenant John Marston, third, was slightly injured, when marines went to arrest Ramon Batisti, a Dominican bandit. Batisti, according to the report was killed. Theodore Kytka, handwriting expert, is said to have examined the written threats which preceded the explosion and to have told the police that the handwriting resembled that of previous threats. Arrests are predicted within 24 hours. The lives of four persons were endangered by the explosion. The front of the house was wrecked. FOUR OF A KIND Leaf, Mass., Oct. 25.—Mr. and Mrs. E. Fairchild are the parents of healthy quadruplets, born last night.

Children Cry FOR FLETCHER'S CASTORIA

"Lulling German-American Fears to Sleep"

The more German-American voters are getting to know about republican doings the more thoroughly they are becoming alarmed. Editors of German-language papers are receiving so many letters from their subscribers, all expressing grave doubts and a deepening distrust of Hughes and his party, that some papers, unable to handle that flood of inquiries and protestations, and not daring to ignore them, are devoting special editorials to the purpose of quieting down the misgivings German-Americans show about Hughes.

Children Cry FOR FLETCHER'S CASTORIA

praise of the glorious firm of Hughes, Roosevelt, Morgan & Co.—the German-American people have become apprehensive of being deceived and being about to commit a fatal mistake in following the lead of their anti-Wilson press. The German-American is no such fool as to form an exception from Lincoln's saying about people that cannot be fooled all the time. The fact is that the German-language press is realizing that the growing feeling of distrust and even contempt for Hughes and his clique in German-American circles is about to crystallize into a vote for Wilson. Very significant for the situation is an utterance of the "Milwaukee Germania," a paper which has outdone nearly all others in its Wilson-hatred, bordering on mono-mania. In a long editorial in one of its recent issues, under the caption, "Wilson or Hughes?" the "Germania" quotes from letters written by its readers to the editor, as follows: "We know Wilson; but we don't know what we will get in Hughes, so we had better vote for Wilson."
