The grain market as well as the live stock market seems to have settled down for a few days, as no changes were noted today in either.

Farmers do not seem in much of a hurry to bring in their turkeys and few are being received at the local markets. The quotations are around 20 and 21 cents. Nothing is stirring in the flour and sugar market. Sweet notaflour and sugar market. Sweet pota-toes are pretty scarce on account of the car shortage. tant horizon two rapidly moving ob jects. In their rapid movement these objects drew nearer and nearer, until it could be observed that they were two elk,—the larger one in hot pursuit of the smaller. The smaller one was fleeing for his life and relying on strength of animal will for safety. I know that his animal will was getting had an end, and with its end would come his own destruction. Whereupon even that animal began to look beyond, outside himself for some higher, greater power on which to rely. Recognizing as by instinct a greater power in humanity, he rushed to the feet of those two men and stopped in their protection. The larger one, observing the situation, checked his pace, circled about twice and then loped away.

Thus it is with suffering humanity. Relying on the strength of human will for healing, it finally discovers that the human will gets wearied, run down and exhausted; that it has an end, and with its end, hope is swallowed up in despair. In that extreme situation, when the physician makes that solemn pronouncement, "There is no more hope because there is no more strength of will to sustain life or existence," then poor, suffering humanity begins to look life that transcends bran could never cease to be like itself, and could never cease to be like itself, and could never cease to express the consciousness of ilfe. An accident could never change the character of that spiritual thinking to unconsciousness. Jesus proved this fact while he was yet in the tomb, His spiritual thinking that transcends matter or brain was consciously at work, proving the facts of immortal life, which destroyed death and removed the stone from the mouth of the tomb, and we are enjoined to "Let this mind be in you, which was also in Christ Jesus."

With the result of that functional disorders are mental in their cause, due to erroneous thinking, investigation has continued that diabetes is entirely the result of tear or emotion. In fact it is more generally conceded today that consumption may be just a consuming fear. That may be the reason why no drug or medicine ever healed them. The Christian Science text-hook says: "The procuring cause and foundation of all sickness is fear, ignorance, or sin." It teaches, in other words, that all sickness is meral in the sense that it has no physical cause.

So long as one believes his malady that food is truth. Some fears seem more real than others. They seem more real than others. They seem more real when tissue disorganization is apparent. But when examination discloses no diseased organ or neve, those fears are regarded as intangible and superstitions. The patient is said to be descrived.
