FIGURES COST FOR EACH PUPIL AT $56.12

Superintendent Smith Cuts Board's Figures $12,524.65

In the statement of W. M. Smith, county school superintendent, to school district No. 24 in the matter of the high school tuition fund, he eliminates $12,524.65 which was included in the total cost of education as set in by the school clerk's report. This sum includes $17,929.84 for repairs, $4,201.36 as depreciation of building and equipment at the rate of 4 per cent, and $6,790.45 as interest on the investment. These the county superintendent disallowed alleging they do not come under the cost of education. This cost the district figures, basing on daily attendance, as $71.13.

However, Superintendent Smith figures the annual cost of educating each pupil is $56.12. Divide this by 180, the number of days in the school year, and it brings the cost per day of the pupils to $317 cent, which equals the cost of non-resident Marion county pupils. On this basis the district will receive only $48,494.11 instead of the $55,018.76 asked for.

Multiplying $317 cent by 19,110, the total number of day's attendance, gives the sum due the Salem high school for non-resident Marion county pupils as $6,056.58. Seventy-five percent of the total sum, or $4,542.44, is the amount of the warrant drawn for the district, and 25 per cent is yet to be paid when sufficient taxes are turned over to the treasurer for this fund.

Two Steel Companies Make New Records

New York, Nov. 2.—United States Steel and Bethlehem Steel both sold at new high records on the stock exchange today.

United States Steel advanced 1 1/4 points to 122 1/4, in a rush of trading which made total sales for the morning more than 900,000 shares. Of this 193,000 shares was traded in steel.

Bethlehem Steel jumped 25 points to 67 1/2, a new high record. Marine preferred advanced 4 1/4 to 119 5/8 and the common 2 points to 42. Profit taking caused the recessions around noon.

STATE NEWS

The Elk entertainment tonight will include a bout between Lon Johnson, champion coast featherweight, and Danny Edwards, and other boxers. The entertainment committee is doing its best to make things interesting every other Thursday night.

Hallowe'en was observed at the Oregon State Tuberculosis hospital last evening in the way of a mock divorce proceedings in which all the attendants and inmates of the hospital and several from the city assisted in the way of material witnesses and audience. Attorney Guy Smith acted as judge. Attorney Roy Shields appearing for the plaintiff and Attorney Walter Winslow for the defendant.

With practically the entire $6,000 required for the budget of the Salem Y. M. C. A. for the ensuing year subscribed, the active financial campaign for the raising of this fund ceased yesterday at a meeting of the directors and the financial committee. The committee is much pleased with the reception given them by Salem people and says the campaign just closed is the most successful ever managed by the local institution. Additional expense has been incurred because of a new heating plant that cost $800 and the employment of a boys' secretary.

A Hallowe'en party at the Oregon State Training School for Boys was held last night at the school and was a decided success. Games, music, cookies, apples and other things dear to the heart of youth helped make the evening thoroughly enjoyable. The music was furnished by Miss Eunice Bicknell, a teacher at the school. Superintendent Hale is of the opinion that if entertainments of like nature were given for the boys in general in the cities there would be less mischief-making and bad practices committed.

Assurances were given the board of directors of the Old People's Home at a meeting held yesterday that $5,000 could be raised in the state for the Home before July of next year. Attending the meeting were Dr. Moore, district superintendent of the Methodist church; Dr. Parkinson, of Eugene, and Dr. McCulloch, of Portland. With the assurance that this amount will be raised in the state, there remains but the $5,000 to be subscribed in the city, to guarantee the Home the $10,000 offered by W. W. Brown, of eastern Oregon.

STYLE SHOW AHEAD OF ALL ATTRACTIONS

Great Crowds at Theater Waited An Hour for Doors to Open

Hundreds of Salem folks will bear witness to the fact that big outstanding feature of the opening night of Dress-Up Week was the Style Show that is being staged at the Oregon theatre for three days as the co-operative effort of the representative firms of Salem.

Lags before the whistles blew, ushering in the Dress-Up celebration, huge crowds waited before the theatre and literally tore away the lobby display in their rush to buy tickets and find a seat. Hundreds were turned away and hundreds were compelled to stand during the performance, which lasted close on to three hours.

Nine local girls supported Miss Mabel Vaughan, the professional New York model and every girl made a creditable impression. Many folks left the theatre with the impression that some of the Salem girls made a more favorable appearance than even Miss Vaughan. As each local girl entered there were bursts of applause, which was divided between all of the girls. No doubt the audience will continue to favor one or more of the local girls in an attempt to assist her in the contest for the suit or coat which will be given away tomorrow night to the most popular model.

The Misses Esch were very graceful and were well received. Priscilla Fleming was very dainty in her dancing frock. Verma Cooder wore a delightful afternoon dress with an exquisite hat. Charity Burleson received her share of the applause on each appearance. Mabel West quite captivated the audience with her work and was well received. Mrs. Grace Pilkington looked best in her coat and was popular with the crowd. Florence Powell was stunning in her first change and the crowd hummed with favorable comment. Florence Billings wore a pretty suit and was graceful. All of the girls did well.

The garments worn by the girls were from Gaile & Co., Fullerton's, Shipley's and Kafury Bros. The shoes were furnished by the Price Shoe company and the millinery was from the French Shop, Mrs. Locke and the Gibson Millinery. The men models were fitted by the Salem Woolen Mills store.

The Style Show opened with a dinner dance scene. It was clever and the audience showed their approval by a splendid response. The contest arose from their tables and danced to the front of the stage while the young ladies pivoted gracefully and displayed their garments. The second scene was given over to the display of suits and afternoon dresses while the third and last scene was an exhibition of coats. The men models appeared in each scene and made a splendid background for the girls.

The show was satisfactory. Everybody was pleased—immensely pleased. It was, by far, the best Style show ever staged in Salem. There were no long delays. The show was put on with a dash that showed the vast amount of work and time given to it.

Everybody was impressed with the merchandise shown. As each model appeared the audience immediately commenced to hum with comment on the garments worn and everybody left the theatre with a new idea of the comprehensive lines carried by Salem firms.

A. H. Allen, who staged the show for the local merchants, issued a credit for the show. It was cleverly planned and carried out without a hitch. Today Mr. Allen is busy perfecting the performance so that the show tonight and Friday will be even better.

SALEM WAS ALL OUT ON BIG GALA NIGHT

Beautiful Window Decorations Holds Crowds for Hours

Even the oldest inhabitant could not remember the time when there was such a crowd of people on the streets as last night, to witness the unveiling of the display windows and to enjoy the fun making of Willamette University and the Salem high school boys and girls.

Last night was the crowning event of "Dress Up Week" in Salem and when the streets were darkened for a few minutes preliminary to the unveiling of the windows, fully one third of the people in the city were crowded into the business district.

And the business men came to the front and amply rewarded those who came to see, as never has there been such artistic and elaborate window displays nor a finer quality of merchandise shown.

But when it comes to genuine appreciation and the desire to linger, the living models caught the crowds as well late in the evening the display of the latest in gowns and hats caught the fancy not only of the women, but the men as well.

At the Spa, the little daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Frank Myers placed in the window surrounded by all sorts of candy, caught the fancy of the sight seeing crowds. The central figure of the Frame Shop was a pretty little girl draped in silks to harmonize with the background.

Stockton's, the sidewalk on Court street was blocked for hours, as the living models displayed the latest in ladies fashionable wear. At the French Shop, two attractive models entertained the crowds in showing the latest in millinery and hats. The models in the Fullerton window showed hats and coats to admiring audiences.

The Meyers department store's display on Shipley's street, fact that the displays on both Liberty and Court streets were devoted to special showings of silk dress draperies and that the forms were draped in silks without cutting the goods or trimmings, yet having the effect of tailored goods.

The U. G. Shipley windows held the crowds especially those interested in the latest wear. Without being elaborated, the artistic arrangement caught the fancy of the crowds.

One of the most elaborate windows, one requiring time and study was that of the Imperial Furniture company, arranged by Paul Stego. This window received many compliments on account of the care with which each detail was worked out.

LASSEN 'CAMPAIGNING'

Redding, Cal., Nov. 2.—Mount Lassen, California's volcano, continued its activity early today following the largest eruption in a year yesterday afternoon.

The eruption, which assumed large proportions at 4 p. m. yesterday, at first appeared to be merely a "letting off of steam." Later a dense black smoke rose in enormous volume, spouting upward a short distance before mushrooming and drifting northward. The smoke came from the northern part of the crater.

Today observers declared the volcano appeared to be "puffing." Puffs, sending smoke hundreds of feet high, came at intervals of about 10 minutes.

HUGHES CONTINUE TO CRITICIZE WILSON
Blames Him Among Other Things for Not Reducing Living Expenses

By Perry Arnold (United Press staff correspondent)
Batavia, N. Y., Nov. 2.—Republican nominee Hughes today said he was entirely confident of victory in the debatable states of Ohio and Indiana. Speaking before an enthusiastic audience here he said:

"I have just returned from a trip through Ohio and Indiana with a profound sense of gratification and entire confidence with respect to the result in both states. In both Ohio and Indiana it is not exaggerating to say that I had receptions which perhaps exceeded those accorded to any presidential candidate."

"That was, of course, not a tribute to me personally, but it was an indication of the deep interest that the people are taking in the essential conditions of their prosperity and their satisfaction that there is a great united republican party ready for service at this critical time."

"We of course know well that so far as promises go, no party can exceed the promises made by our opponents. But we measure what they say by what they have done. They told us four years ago they would reduce the cost of living. They said they would do away with extravagance in government. They tell us now they are going to deal with economic problems that confront us at this time in a satisfactory manner."

"But if we endeavor to ascertain by what principle they are to be guided we look in vain. I propose to tell you by what principle we shall be guided. We are not guided by war prosperity."

THE MARKETS

The following prices for fruits and vegetables are those asked by the wholesaler of the retailer, and not what is paid to the producer. All other prices are those paid the producer. Corrections are made daily.

Now that the excitement or rapid changing prices has died down, there is no changes in the wholesale market today. Wheat is weakening but as there is no telling what will happen within a few days, there has been but very little local buying. Anyhow, the slight decline in wheat has prevented for the present any advance in flour. The Portland millers were getting ready to tack on 20 cents a barrel but the market was off several points and is still off and the advance did not materialize.
