For councilmen the vote is as follows:

Ward No. 1—L. S. Geer, 137; R. W. Simeral, 101.
Ward No. 2—Lloyd Rigdon, 306; Floyd Utter, 174.
Ward No. 3—W. Buchner, 147; Walter Spaulding, 19.
Ward No. 4—J. D. Hartwell, 177; A. R. Hudson, 181; Paul V. Johnson, 154.
Ward No. 5—Glen Unruh, 319; Jos. N. Smith, 81.
Ward No. 6—Roy Melson, 260; Paul Smith, 209.
Ward No. 7—E. W. Stubbs, 118; Elbert Thompson, 118; G. C. Millet, 121.

It is probable that the inclement weather of Monday had a great deal to do with the light vote cast in the city primary election. It is also probable that another and strong reason was confusion concerning the two elections—city and national—as a large number of people have confessed they thought both were on the same day, today. As it was, however, scarcely 40 per cent of the registered voters of the city turned out for the election. The highest vote was cast for Walter Keyes for mayor, 2241, while the total registration was between six and seven thousand.

Walter Keyes did not quite receive a unanimous vote for in Ward No. 3. Harley White received one vote, J. N. Long two, and Walter Spaulding two.

Outside of the contest between the seven candidates for the nomination for recorder and the race for the nomination for city marshal there was little interest taken in the election. There was no contest for mayor or treasurer. The contests for councilmen in the various wards developed closely in the Fourth and Seventh wards. In the Fourth the three candidates had narrow margins—Hudson leading Hartwell by four votes and Johnson leading Hudson by three votes. In the Seventh Stubbs and Thompson tied while Millet is still three votes in the lead.

publican majority? Michigan is normally republican by 100,000.

New England Solid.
Boston, Mass., Nov. 7.—All New England will go to Hughes. The Boston Globe (democrat) conceded Maine, New Hampshire, Rhode Island and Connecticut, as well as Massachusetts to-night. Vermont had been previously conceded by the democrats.

The Globe agrees with the republican leaders claims that Hughes' plurality will exceed 10,000 in Massachusetts. Governor McCall and Senator Lodge have apparently been re-elected.

New Jersey for Hughes.
Trenton, N. J., Nov. 7.—New Jersey, besides giving Hughes anywhere from 25,000 to 30,000 plurality, has elected Walter E. Edge, republican governor, eight republican and four democratic congressmen.

Illinois for Hughes.
Chicago, Nov. 7.—With Hughes holding Wilson slightly better than even in Chicago and down-state returns showing varying pluralities for the republican candidate, indications at 7:30 p. m. were that Hughes had carried Illinois.

The Springfield State Journal claims that Hughes' plurality in Illinois will exceed 150,000.

A. J. Sabath, democratic congressman from a Chicago district, conceded at the democratic state headquarters, Hughes had carried Illinois.

"Hughes has carried the state," Sabath's statement read. "Wilson should have carried Cook county by 50,000 to 75,000 to win and returns do not indicate any such majority. Normal republican majorities down state also would have to be materially reduced for Wilson to win. I think Hughes has carried the state."

Democratic State committee refused to comment on Sabath's statement.

Hughes Claims Kansas.
Topeka, Kan., Nov. 7.—As Kansas polls closed tonight indications were that Hughes had carried the state by over 30,000 plurality. Cities which were expected to hit Hughes hard turned out small votes for Wilson, while Topeka polled a tremendous vote. Capper, republican for governor, is leading everywhere, indicating 25,000 larger plurality for Capper than Hughes.

Reports to state headquarters for county chairman indicated between 600,000 and 625,000, about forty per cent women.

Incomplete returns on 127 precincts give Hughes 9,489; Wilson 9,103; Capper 11,258; Landon 7,984.

Massachusetts is Close.

Boston, Nov. 7.—Hughes is running behind the republican state ticket in Massachusetts, but on the face of the early returns seems certain to carry the state. The Boston Globe at 8 o'clock conceded election to McCall, republican for governor; Lodge, republican for senator, and asserted that Hughes was running strong.

At the same hour statistics from 100 towns showed Hughes six hundred behind McCall.

Scattering Returns.

Baton Rouge, La.—Wilson's gain over majority was more than 15 per cent, according to earliest available information received.

St. Louis, Mo.—Ten minutes after the polls closed in Missouri both the democratic and republican state chairmen claimed the state for president, United States senator and governor. The "wets" claimed the defeat of the prohibition amendment.

Memphis, Tenn.—Tennessee will go overwhelmingly for Wilson for president; but there is a close race between John W. Overhill republican, and Thomas C. Rye democrat for governor.

Hubert E. Fisher will be elected to congress for the Tenth district and K. D. McKellar is leading Ben W. Hooper, republican for United States senator.

Atlanta, Ga., Nov. 7.—Incomplete returns indicate that of 135,000 votes cast throughout the state, 100,000 were democratic.

Hugh Dorsey, who participated in the Leo Frank case has been elected governor and the entire democratic congressional delegation has been swept in as usual.

Journal Says Its Hughes.
Portland, Or.—The tower light of the Oregon Journal, strong Wilson supporter, at 7 p. m., flashed the signal "Hughes elected."

Pennsylvania 300,000.

Philadelphia, Pa., Nov. 7.—The Public Ledger, republican, tonight claims the republican ticket has carried Pennsylvania by 300,000 majority.

Arizona Republican.

Phoenix, Ariz., Nov. 7.—Early returns show republican landslide in Arizona. Tom Campbell, republican candidate for governor, leads Hunt, democrat, by two to one. Six precincts Maricopa county: Hughes 347; Wilson 274.

Returns from the South.

Mobile, Ala., Nov. 7.—Early returns indicate Wilson majority in Alabama to be sixty thousand. In 1912 it was 50,000.

Raleigh, N. C., Nov. 7.—Democratic majorities apparently maintained in all districts, party leaders claiming 45,000 to 50,000.

New York—The New York Times, which supported Wilson, at 8 o'clock conceded Connecticut to Hughes.

Philadelphia, Pa.—The Inquirer at 8 o'clock estimated Hughes has carried Pennsylvania by 200,000. The Inquirer also claims the entire republican state ticket was elected.

Jacksonville, Fla., Nov. 7.—Partial returns indicate Wilson's majority of four years ago, 27,000 may be cut to 15,000.

Atlanta, Ga., Nov. 7.—With a vote slightly heavier than in 1912, Georgia party managers, republican and democrat, estimate Wilson's majority at 50,000.

Mobile, Ala., Nov. 7.—Early returns indicate Alabama has returned the usual democratic majority for all candidates. Republican offered opposition in seven of ten districts. In the seventh district cutting the democratic majority is indicated.

El Paso, Texas, Nov. 7.—First returns on the presidential election from the border were from staff officers of the Seventh division; Hughes 31, Wilson 1.

Dallas, Texas, Nov. 7.—It is believed Texas has cast 400,000 votes. The vote in 1912 was only 204,000.

Oklahoma City, Okla., Nov. 7.—State democratic headquarters claim Wilson carried the state by between 30,000 and 40,000.

Little Rock, Ark., Nov. 7.—Early returns indicate a Wilson majority bigger than four years ago by 20 per cent. W. F. Kirby, United States senator; C. H. Brough, governor, elected by a great majority.

Jackson, Miss., Nov. 7.—Mississippi majority for Wilson probably will reach 75,000. The count is slow owing to the referendum election on the game law. All members of the present delegation in congress re-elected without opposition.

New Orleans, La., Nov. 7.—At 7:30 o'clock indications were Wilson carried Louisiana by 60,000 votes. Democrats elected 7 of 8 congressmen. In the other district democrat is leading.

St. Louis, Mo., Nov. 7.—At 7:45 the committee estimated Governor Lamm—Wilson majority here at 15,000. This is slightly below the normal majority.

Hughes Leads in Wisconsin.
Milwaukee, Wis., Nov. 7.—With 158 out of 2,250 precincts heard from, indications are that Hughes will carry Wisconsin by a comfortable margin. The vote stands Wilson 11,466; Hughes

HUGHES SEEMS

"Since midnight," Chairman Willcox said, "I have been assured that Delaware was carried by a safe plurality for the president and the entire democratic state ticket, including a United States senator has been elected."

New York, Nov. 8.—(Wednesday)—At 1:05 this morning Robert W. Woolley, democratic publicity head, issued a statement claiming Wilson's election by 326 votes, including in this list for the first time the states of Kansas and Oregon.

The list follows:
Alabama, Arizona, Arkansas, California, Colorado, Delaware, Florida, Georgia, Tennessee, Texas, Utah, Virginia, Indiana, Kansas, Kentucky, Louisiana, Maryland, Minnesota, Mississippi, Missouri, Montana, Nebraska, Nevada, New Mexico, North Carolina, North Dakota, Ohio, Oklahoma, Oregon, South Carolina, South Dakota, Washington, West Virginia and Wisconsin.

Congress Is in Doubt.
New York, Nov. 8.—(Wednesday)—The balance of power in the next senate and house of representatives was swinging at 1 o'clock this morning with the uncertain course of the presidential result.

Preliminary indications were that the republicans had won one of their biggest fights in electing the two republican senators to replace the two democratic ones in Indiana. Another gain was certain in New York, where William Calder, republican, won in the Hughes sweep of the Empire state from William F. McCombs, former democratic national chairman, in the senatorial fight. Apparent victory for the republican forces in New Jersey, indicated in returns to night, insures retirement of another democrat in favor of a republican—Joseph S. Frelinghuysen replacing James E. Martin.

Ohio conceded democratic as to the national and general state ticket, seemed likely to have scratched enough democratic ballots to send Myron Herrick, republican, to the senate, in place of the present democratic incumbent, Atlee Pomerene. H. A. DuPont of Delaware, apparently has gone to defeat at the hands of a democrat.

Senator Saulsbury of Delaware, chairman of the democratic senatorial committee ridiculed claims of the republicans that they gained control of the upper house.

"Our reports," he said, "indicate a loss of two and a gain of four democratic senators—not including Indiana, where the result still is in doubt."

Because of the tremendous interests in the presidential race, counting of ballot in the congressional race was general sidetracked, but among the interesting features established in the count so far is the fact that there will be at least two socialist congressmen in the next house—Meyer London of New York, having been re-elected, and Victor Berger of Milwaukee, former representative, having staged a successful come back after defeat two years ago.

Wilson and Hughes Retire.

Shadow Lawn, N. J., Nov. 8.—Still in doubt as to his re-election, President Wilson retired shortly before 1:30 o'clock this morning.

New York, Nov. 8.—Charles E. Hughes retired for the night at 1:30 a. m. It was the intention of his managers to have him stay in his hotel at least 7 o'clock. He was confident of his election as he said "Good night."

Willcox Still Confident.

New York, Nov. 8.—Although Republican National Chairman Willcox refused to issue a formal statement at 12:30 this morning, he said in an informal interview that he is satisfied from returns at hand that "Hughes will control 310 electoral votes." He said he has been told over long distance telephone by Chairman Hatfield that the Buckeye state had gone for Hughes, but Ohio up to 1 o'clock had not been put back on the republican chart in Willcox's room.

Hughes Carries Cincinnati.

Columbus, Ohio, Nov. 8.—Democratic State Chairman Finley at 12:15 a. m. conceded Hamilton county (Cincinnati) to Hughes by 10,000 and to Willis by 5,000.

Republican Chairman Hatfield up to that time had no statement to make on Ohio returns.

Ohio Sure for Wilson.

Columbus, Ohio, Nov. 8.—With returns from practically one fourth of the election precincts in Ohio, scattered through 72 of the 88 counties in the state, President Wilson appears certain to carry Ohio by 50,000. State Chairman Finley still clings to his first estimate of 100,000.

1394 precincts give Wilson 121,579; Hughes 113,942. This vote however, contains returns from 350 precincts in Hamilton county, republican stronghold and from only fifty precincts in Cleveland and 15 in Toledo, where Wilson's heaviest majorities will be rolled up.

Returns from rural counties are showing slight gains for Wilson, but the bulk of his majority will be rolled up in Cuyahoga, Franklin and Lucas counties.

Iowa's 50,000 for Hughes.
Des Moines, Iowa, Nov. 7.—Fragmentary returns from all sections of Iowa indicate that Hughes will carry the state by upwards of 50,000.

W. L. Harding, republican, was running ahead of E. T. Meredith, democrat, for governor, with an estimated plurality of 20,000.

14,633. Hughes is polling, according to indications thus far, the 1912 progressive republican combined vote.

In twenty up-state precincts Philipp and LaFollette are leading their democratic opponents for the governorship and senatorship.

In the voting in Milwaukee Wilson and Hughes are running neck and neck, with Wilson leading slightly. Six precincts give Wilson 2,021; Hughes 1,696.

California Is Claimed By Republicans But Returns Are Scattering

San Francisco, Nov. 7.—That Governor Charles E. Hughes has carried California by a plurality of 100,000 was claimed at 9 o'clock tonight by Secretary McAttee of the republican state central committee. He declared that scattering returns from precincts in all parts of the state, and comparisons with the vote cast for the various parties four years ago indicated this result.

McAttee had declared earlier that Wilson would probably carry San Francisco by about 10,000 and that this would be more than overcome by returns from Alameda and other counties in this section. At 9 o'clock McAttee revised the estimate and declared his belief that Hughes would carry San Francisco county.

Simultaneously returns to the United Press from scattered precincts in all sections of northern California indicated that Governor Johnson is running far ahead for United States senator. Mr. McAttee claimed the election of Johnson by at least 200,000 and added that his majority would probably reach 250,000.

Presidential returns at this hour are so scattering and so incomplete that it is impossible to base a forecast of the state result on them.

Returns on the prohibition amendment were slow in coming in and there was nothing to indicate its fate.

Goes Dry and For Hughes.

Los Angeles, Cal., Nov. 7.—Hughes, Governor Johnson and the dry amendments appeared to have carried southern California.

This section went dry by 30,000, according to incomplete figures from all sections. Hughes was leading Wilson by 8,000 at 10:30 p. m., with 369 scattered county precincts heard from.

Both dry amendments carried in Ventura, Riverside, Orange, Imperial and Los Angeles counties.

Governor Johnson was leading Patton by nearly 2 to 1 in the senatorial race.

California Stays Wet.

San Francisco, Nov. 7, 11 p. m.—Amendments numbers 1 and 2—the prohibition amendments—have both been defeated, according to claims made at this hour by leaders of the United California Industries, the organization which has made the fight in this state against the two propositions.

Returns from all sections of the state the wet leaders declared that the plurality against the amendments would be overwhelming. They gave no estimate of the probable plurality, however.

San Francisco, Nov. 7.—Returns at this hour to the United Press from 746 precincts in 28 counties in all parts of the state showed Hughes leading Wilson for president by 4,736.

The totals are: Hughes 20,239; Wilson 15,503. This is about 33 per cent of the vote of these counties.

Johnson's Majority 200,000.

San Francisco, Nov. 7.—Governor Johnson's headquarters issued a statement at 8:30 p. m. tonight claiming the election of Johnson as United States senator by 200,000 plurality.

San Francisco, Nov. 7.—Republican committee returns: twenty-four city precincts, partial, give Hughes 355; Wilson 305. For senator: Johnson 402; Patton 126.

San Francisco, Nov. 7.—Sylvester McAttee, secretary of the republican state committee, at 8:15 declared that Wilson's plurality in San Francisco county would not exceed 10,000 and that he did not believe it would reach that figure.

Santa Cruz, Cal., Nov. 7.—Partial returns from 15 precincts give Hughes 80; Wilson 70; Johnson 90; Patton 60.

San Francisco, Nov. 7.—Precinct 15, district 31, complete gave Hughes 106; Wilson 75; Johnson 128; Patton 40.

New York For Hughes.

New York, Nov. 7.—Charles E. Hughes and practically the republican state ticket won in New York, according to indications at 7 o'clock. At the same time most of New York's newspapers were conceding the 45 electoral votes for the Empire State to the republicans, the democratic state committee announced its claim that New York City would give Wilson 60,000 over Hughes.

This figure, it is pointed out, is below that which republican managers had figured it was necessary to beat, by upstate majorities, to carry the state for Hughes.

If later returns establish that New York is in the republican column, the election apparently hinges on the big states of the middle west—Illinois, Indiana and Ohio.

This trio of commonwealths, with New York, had been adjudged the "pivotal" states in the election.

Apparently William Calder, republican senator over William McCombs, former national democratic chairman and Governor Whitman (rep.) re-elected over Justice Seabury.

The estimate of the Times is that Hughes' majority in the state will be from 125,000 to 175,000.

The New York Times concedes the state of New York to Hughes by 175,000.

Papers Say Its Hughes.

The Herald, World, Tribune and Times agree that Hughes has carried New York state.

The World concedes the re-election of Governor Whitman.

The Eagle concedes the election of Whitman and Calder. The Standard Union (rep.) claims New York state for Hughes by 100,000.

New York—The New York Times, strong Wilson paper, declares indications are that Hughes' plurality outside New York City would total 198,000 and that his plurality for the whole state would be between 135,000 and 150,000. The Times announced returns at this time showed Seabury leading Whitman in Manhattan by 20,000.

Buffalo, N. Y.—Buffalo complete:

Returns From Oregon Give Little Indication

showed that the Wilson strength did not extend to George Turner, his democratic opponent.

If Wilson maintains the same lead over Hughes in all precincts he showed in the first 75 to report he will carry King county by 5,500.

Seventy-five precincts gave McBride, republican, for governor, 7,911; Lister, democrat, 7,520.

Tacoma, Wash., Nov. 7.—87 precincts in Pierce county give Wilson 7,244; Hughes, 6,440.

Sixty-five precincts give for governor, Lister, democrat, 4,815; McBride, republican, 4,509.

Hughes 40,652; Wilson 36,915. For governor: Whitman, republican, 40,626; Seabury, democrat, 34,687.

New York.—Reports to democratic headquarters say that 1,080 districts in New York City give Wilson 174,306; Hughes 148,544.

New York state democratic headquarters at 6:50 announced New York City probably would give Wilson 60,000 over Hughes.

Greater New York 1360 out of 2127 precincts: Wilson 221,723; Hughes 193,497.

Boston.—Returns from 130 precincts give Wilson 32,434; Hughes 19,694.

Maryland Democratic.

Baltimore, Md., Nov. 7.—Maryland returns from few precincts received indicate Wilson has carried Maryland by 5,000. The prohibition amendment in Maryland has been defeated by 30,000. Five democratic congressmen have been re-elected.

Iowa Returns.

Des Moines, Iowa, Nov. 7.—One hundred and forty three scattered precincts out of 2,297 in Iowa give Hughes 19,450; Wilson 17,304.

For governor, 150 precincts: Harding, republican, 19,418; Meredith, democrat, 18,325. If this ratio of gain continues Harding will win by 100,000.

New Mexico Slow.

Albuquerque, N. M., Nov. 7.—Owing to the length of the ballot and the great number of scratches, the count on returns from New Mexico is very slow. It will be early morning before the results can be even guessed.

Incomplete returns from three out of four precincts in this city give Hughes 383; Wilson 373.

Wilson Leads in Montana.

Missoula, Mont., Nov. 7.—The first ten precincts counted in western Montana gave Wilson 2073; Hughes 925.

Scattering Returns.

Charlestown, W. Va., Nov. 7.—Republicans claim West Virginia by 15,000 majority; democrats claim it by a smaller majority.

Louisville, Ky., Nov. 7.—Returns from the state indicate 20,000 majority for Wilson. The democrats elect congressmen in the First nine districts and the republicans in the Tenth and Eleventh.

Indianapolis, Ind., Nov. 7.—Returns from 441 precincts out of 3,143 in Indiana, including 130 in Marion county, give Wilson 70,808; Hughes 76,949.

For governor, from 353 precincts: Adair 63,577; Goodrich 66,003.

Three hundred and thirty-eight precincts, Kern 58,757; West 66,800; Taggart 60,503; Watson 65,468.

Boise, Idaho.—Two precincts in Boundary county gives Wilson 308; Hughes 302.

Seattle, Wash., Nov. 7.—The first three King county precincts gave Hughes 127; Wilson 123. Pointeater, republican, for senator, 142; Turner, democrat, 114.

Oakland, Cal.—Returns from 32 incomplete precincts out of 410 in Alameda county give Wilson 389; Hughes 780. For senator: Johnson 203; Patton 72.

Washington Junior to End Game Series

The Washington junior high school is bringing to a successful close its series of inter-group football games. About 60 boys have been enrolled on five teams and all have had a chance to play in several games. Eight games have been played with at least two remaining.

The teams are divided into light and heavy weight groups so that the boys are all playing against boys of about their same weight. Before any games were played all boys were taught the rudiments of the game; they have learned how to take a hard fall without a hurt. The championship of the heavy section now lies between teams captained by A. Gill and R. Moffett. Lebold's team leads in the light section.

After
