LOWER HOUSE MAY BE REPUBLICAN

Indications Are Democrats Lose It—Montana May Elect Woman

New York, Nov. 9.—A divided congress was forecasted by incomplete returns gathered by the United Press up to noon today. These returns tended to support republican claims that the house will be republican, although democratic leaders insisted the final count will show them still in control of the lower body.

Retains on the senate fight are near-completes. They tend to show the democrats still in control there by probable majority of twelve compared to their present majority of sixteen.

The entire membership of the house was voted on. Estimates based on claims of state committees of both sides show anywhere from 210 to 220 democratic congressmen elected and from 218 to 210 republicans chosen.

One of the big features of the congressional fight is the seating election of a woman for the first time in the nation's history.

Miss Jeanette Rankin, who is an independent republican, against Harry Mitchell, republican, appears to have been accorded the honor by Montana.

All chances of socialists for representation in the house now center on whether the official count will return Meyer London from New York's east side.

One progressive, one democrat protectionist from the south and one prohibitionist appear to have won.

Of the thirty-five United States senators elected Tuesday seventeen are democrats and 18 republicans, which with 27 democratic and 24 republican holdovers, give the democrats a majority of 12 in the next senate.

The present senate consists of 55 democrats and 39 republicans.

A recapitulation of the senate situation shows the democrats lost four seats—one each in Maine, New York, New Jersey and Maryland—and that they gained one each in Rhode Island, Delaware and Utah.

Admiral Mayo to Head Naval Body

Washington, Nov. 9.—Nine ranking officers of the navy, headed by Admiral Henry T. Mayo, commander of the Atlantic fleet, were appointed by Secretary Daniels today as the board of inquiry authorized by the last naval bill directing that officers in the grades of commander, captain and rear-admiral of the line of the navy hereafter be promoted by selection and not by seniority. The board will hold its first meeting here December 2, next.

In addition to Admiral Mayo, members of the board are Vice-Admiral Coffman of the Atlantic fleet; Rear-Admiral Austin M. Knight, head of the navy war college; Rear-Admiral Nathaniel R. Usher, Rear-Admiral Frank P. Fletcher, Rear-Admiral Walker McLean, Rear-Admiral Augustus S. Seehaler, Rear-Admiral Albert Gleaves and Rear-Admiral Albert W. Grant.

On Wednesday evening, November 29, in the First Methodist church there will be a Thanksgiving service. This has been decided upon by the Salem Ministerial Union. And a feature of the service is to be the Salem high school choruses under the direction of Miss Minetta Magers. This is the first time such a program has been devised and it is believed it will prove highly interesting.

The two choruses will lead the singing of the hymns, give ensemble numbers, and special selections. Both choruses are working on special music under the direction of Miss Magers and she expects to have them up in appropriate numbers for this occasion, which is a new departure in church circles.

Soldiers Vote for Wilson. Brownsville, Texas, Nov. 9.—About as near as can be judged, about 1,800 votes were cast on the border by Minnesota troops. Colonel Luce commanding, told the United Press this afternoon.

Of this number about 1,200 were for Wilson, as near as can be judged, and 600 for Hughes. In talking with the men in the first Minnesota, I judge they figured voting for Wilson was 'voting to be sent home' men of the Second and Third, I understand, voted for the president for the same reason.

The soldier vote will not be canvassed and counted before next Tuesday.

JESSE LEE INDICTED FOR SHOOTING GABEL

Made Spectacular Attack On Man Found With Wife Last Winter

Jesse L. Lee, whose spectacular attack on Albert F. Gabel, whom he shot twice with a shotgun on September 14, was in retribution for the tragic death of his divorced wife at the hands of Gabel last January, was indicted for assault with intent to kill by the Multnomah county grand jury yesterday.

Mrs. Lee was killed by the alleged accidental discharge of a rifle in a boathouse on Willamette slough January 9, which Gabel testified he pointed at her and pulled the trigger under the impression that the safety catch was meshed and would not permit the firing of the gun. He was exonerated by the coroner's jury.

The shooting for which Lee was indicted occurred before the Queen Bakery, 625 Alberta street. Seated before the bakery, where he was employed as a delivery chauffeur by his brother, Gabel was reading a newspaper when Lee approached, carrying a sawed off shotgun.

"Do you know who I am?" witnesses say he asked. "I'm Mr. Lee. You are the man who killed my wife." Gabel tried to run and was shot twice. Lee fled, but was arrested at the point of the drawn revolver of Patrolman Endicott.

Goon Wu, driver of the automobile truck that killed Mrs. Wilhelmina Lorenz in an accident at Third and Morrison streets on August 28, was exonerated from an involuntary manslaughter charge by the grand jury yesterday.

CLAIM MISSOURI HAS GOT ON WAGON

If Claim Proves True One Half of All States Have Gone Dry

Chicago, Nov. 9.—Prohibition was an issue in eight state Tuesday. The drys won with state-wide amendments in four states—South Dakota, Nebraska, Montana and Michigan—and claim a fifth, Missouri. Maryland defeated state-wide prohibition and California is believed to have turned down both completely dry and liquor restriction amendments to the constitution.

If Missouri has voted prohibition, half the states in the Union are in the dry column, 19 having previously banished liquor.

Alaska, seceding returns indicated, joined the dry column. A "beer" proposition in Colorado, to partly lift the lid, was defeated. So was a similar bill in Oregon which also voted on a "home dry" amendment, whose fate is in doubt.

Arkansas voted to remain dry. A Kansas City dispatch says: "The result of voting on state-wide prohibition apparently was a toss-up as far as Jackson county was concerned. With 231 precincts heard from, the amendment polled 23,185 votes, as compared with 29,185 cast against it. Dry advocates declared that, with the situation in Kansas City a stand-off, the rural districts would be given an opportunity to vote.
