The annual tax payers' meeting to consider the city budget for 1917 will be held next Wednesday evening in the city hall at a special meeting of the city council. Tax payers are invited to attend and offer suggestions or speak for or against any item in the proposed budget. The action taken by the city council Wednesday will be final and it will be the last chance the good citizen will have to be heard in regard to the 1917 budget. Try our vapor gas heaters in your bath and other small rooms. C. S. Hamilton. Answers to letters sent to the farmers of Oregon by the labor commissioner reveal the fact that farm hands are trustworthy and endeavor to save a portion of their earnings. Wages range from $1.75 to $2.50 per day for farm help where board and lodging are not included. During the winter months $1 per day including board and lodging is the prevailing price. Wages rise and fall with the crops. Wages have advanced 50 cents a day in 10 years. Be sure and see the style show at the Episcopal rectory Thursday night.

Salem first and La Corona cigars next a good way to boost--Salem made. The Salem Rifle club will hold its regular Monday evening meeting tonight at the old armory over the city hall. The Cheriens is the name of a new cigar put out by the Little Salem Cigar factory. Sells for 10c and 15c. This conference is for the western Oregon district and is held under the auspices of the Oregon Idaho Young Men's Christian association. Lane county in 1916 had an estimated acreage of 10,000 in different varieties of fruit. The cost of labor, not including harvesting, was from $10 to $25 an acre, according to age. The cost of harvesting according to trees was from $7.50 to $25. It costs about $23 more per acre to grow fruit than grain. Prunes and pears were the most profitable this year. Fruit land ranges in price from $200 to $500 per acre according to age of trees, according to statistics compiled by Albert Tozier, of the labor commissioner's department. J. W. Palmer of the Portland Y. M. C. A. addressed the students of the high school this morning, taking for his subject, "The Requirements of the Man of Today." A suit in the circuit court for the annulment of the marriage contract was brought this morning by O. A. Steelhammer against K. M. Steelhammer on the grounds of desertion. An order confirming the sale of mortgaged premises to the plaintiff was made today by Judge Bushey in the case of Delia MacDonald against Everett Hanson, et al. The premises brought the sum of $948.20. The funeral of Richard H. Bone, who died from injuries received last Thursday, was held this afternoon from the chapel of Webb & Clough and was conducted by the Rev. P. T. Porter. Burial was in the City View cemetery. The brick work of the Cherry City bakery on Market and High streets will be completed today. The building will cost about $12,000 and with the two large baking ovens and other equipment, will represent an investment of $25,000. H. R. Humphrey, of Maclesay, while driving a horse and buggy on State street last evening, about 9:30 o'clock, was run into by a Ford car driven by Carl Engstrom. After a study of the situation a settlement was promoted by Engstrom. Word was received in the city today of the death of David Wiener from scarlet fever in Chicago, who attended the Capital Business college until about two months ago. He was a nephew of Mrs. Rosa Markovitch, of 730 North Front street. The Musicians' association of Salem will give a dance at the armory on the evening of Tuesday, December 5. This will be the second annual dance and the music will be furnished by an orchestra of 20 pieces. The committee in charge of the music is H. N. Stouffer, Miss Lillian Stege, Bert Russell and Miss Martha Swart. W. L. Davis, of R. F. D. No. 5, reported to the police that his Ford car, No. 19,997, was stolen from in front of the Bligh hotel at 9:30 o'clock last night. It was found this morning about 1 o'clock on the first road south of the city in the ditch where joyriders had abandoned it. It is believed a bunch of roughneck boys appropriated the machine for a joyride. Fire at 12:25 this afternoon at the Lawrence Ink company at 688 North Capital street, did small damage to the building before it was extinguished by the fire department which responded with both chemical and the automatic. The fire started between the ceiling and the roof from a defective flue. The firemen were compelled to chop their way through the ceiling to get at the blaze. Carl P. Schmiedekne, recently here from Nebraska, has purchased the 88-acre H. R. Smith farm on Howell Prairie for a cash consideration of $115,500. This is one of the finest farms on Howell prairie and is located on the Silverton road just this side of Pudding river. With his family, Mr. Schmiedekne will move on the farm within two weeks. The transfer was handled by W. H. Grubenhorst & Co. Let us talk about the weather. After the 47 days drought which the 12 days of more or less rainfall and now comes some pretty chilly weather with the thermometer registering 29 above for two nights and 27 above last night. Not since February 4 of this year when the record was 25 above has there been so cold a night. The range of temperature yesterday was from 48 to 29. The river fell half a foot yesterday and now the gauge reads 4.8 feet above zero. Barney Koshstein, supposed formerly to have resided in Salem at 157 South Front street, committed suicide in Seattle Sunday by shooting himself. The Salem police department received a telegram this afternoon from Seattle announcing the suicide. He is also supposed to have a brother living in the vicinity of this city. Investigation on the part of the police has failed to locate anyone who knew or had ever heard of a man by such a name. He was also known by the name of Cohn. Yamada, the Japanese billiard wizard, defeated Ora Morningside Saturday evening in the 18 ball billiard contest held in Adolph Brothers billiard room on State street. In the contest for 300 points when Yamada made his goal Morningside had only 239 points, and so did not finish the run. However, Morningside made the high run of the match with 92 points. His average was about 20. Yamada's average was higher because in the 13 innings he made one high run of 71, and another at 52. After the match, he gave an exhibition of difficult shots, including four cushion and masse shots, gather, and difficult draw.

MR. AND MRS. CHOATE CELEBRATE FIFTY-FIFTH WEDDING ANNIVERSARY

Fifty-five years ago Joseph H. Choate, famous lawyer and diplomat, married Miss Caroline Dutcher Sterling of Cleveland, O. Aside from a few congratulatory telegrams from relatives no special observance marked the anniversary, which was observed by Mr. and Mrs. Choate in their home at Stockbridge, Mass. Mr. and Mrs. Choate are in excellent health and are out every day in their automobile. They expect to remain in Stockbridge until about Nov. 10. Mr. Choate will be eighty-five years old on Jan. 24 next. He was admitted to the New York bar in 1855. The mutual devotion of Mr. and Mrs. Choate is noted among the friends of the aged couple. Years ago at a dinner Mr. Choate was asked, 'Who would you like to be, Mr. Choate, if you were not Joseph H. Choate?' He replied, 'Mrs. Choate's second husband.'
