VILLISTA BANDITS HUNTING TROUBLE

Body of 300 May Tackle Pershing—Americans at Parral

El Paso, Texas, Nov. 13.—About 300 mounted Villistas under Bandit Leader Quevedo today are proceeding from the vicinity of Gallego toward the outposts of General Pershing's American expedition at El Valle, about 50 miles distant, according to an announcement made by the Mexican de facto government authorities at Juarez. This is the same band that raided a Mexican Central railway passenger train and killed 29 guards while searching for Americans at Laguna recently. The Carranzistas, however, do not believe the bandits will hazard an attack unless they encounter a small reconnoitering force of Americans.

United States government officials reported today that a military train of Carranzistas has been captured at Fresno, just outside Chihuahua City, by Villistas. The bridge was burned behind the train, it was learned, and the de facto forces were forced to abandon it. Consul Soriano Bravo at Juarez, stated he had heard nothing of such an attack. Friends of Captain H. B. Scobell, British consul at Chihuahua City, declared today that orders have been received by the consul by special messenger from the British ambassador at Washington advising Scobell to abandon his post for the present. The consul's wife had intended leaving Chihuahua City this week.

The release of the two Americans held at Juarez was taken up by Consul General Garcia again today.

El Paso, Texas, Nov. 13.—The first definite information pointing to the safety of the 19 Americans at Parral was obtained today by United States government officials. A Chinese merchant who came overland from Parral to Chihuahua City, reached the American border during the night. He declared to federal agents that the Villistas never entered the town. On the day he left, November 8, he stated he saw two of the Americans alive and believed all the others were safe. The statement was made to United States Consul Edwards at Juarez, to be transmitted to the state department at Washington.

Springs Monday evening, Mrs. Olson remaining there to recover her health. Minnie Settlemier entertained at a dinner party Saturday evening in honor of the football boys. The guests arrived at six o'clock and sat down to a four course dinner. Everything served was on the menu in football terms. The referee, Mrs. J. H. Collins, blew the whistle for the "game" to start, and at the end of each "quarter" flash-light pictures were taken of the group at the table. After the dinner the guests were entertained with a few musical selections by Miss Nell Gibbons. The guests were Capt. Doyle Johnson, Floyd Rice, Harold Olson, Harlan Keller, Elvira Sims, Lloyd Demarest, Harold Miller, Raymond Lawrence, Joe Hoffinger, Dewey Bitney, Lee Sims, Ely Durant, Leslie Thompson, Ruth Austin, Ofa Broyles, Olive Haskell, Minnie Settlemier, Jessie Hicks, Ida Schram, Crescentia Glatt, Millie Groninger, Nell Gibbons, Ida Hendricks. Mr. and Mrs. Henry Palmateer and son Oral Palmateer, motored from Silverton Sunday and visited friends here.

Aunt "Vi" Johnson returned home from Cottage Grove Sunday to vote, but she leaves immediately for Pasco, Wash.

Mr. and Mrs. W. C. Davis and Jim Hendricks of Silverton motored to Woodburn Sunday.

EVERYBODY NEEDS PURE, RICH BLOOD

Pure blood enables the stomach, liver and other digestive organs to do their work properly. Without it they are sluggish, there is loss of appetite, sometimes faintness, a deranged state of the intestines, and, in general, all the symptoms of dyspepsia.

Pure blood is required by every organ of the body for the proper performance of its functions.

Hood's Sarsaparilla makes pure blood, and this is why it is so successful in the treatment of so many diseases and ailments. Its acts directly on the blood, ridding it of serofulous and other humors. It is a peculiar combination of blood-purifying, nerve-toning, strength-giving substances. Get it today.

Stock Market Irregular Prices Change But Little

New York, Nov. 13.—The New York Evening Sun financial review today said:

Much of the indecision of traders and public alike engendered last week through the lull in the election returns, was again manifested today. The stock market in general ebbed and flowed in the conflicting currents of buying and selling, some issues advancing sharply at times, others yielding materially.

In the first three hours the stock market was irregular, although there were numerous cases of sporadic strength scattered throughout the industrial list. The equipment, motor and specialty issues displayed a trend to weakness. There was fitful recovery in a few instances like United States Industrial Alcohol, which advanced over five points to 140 after selling fractionally below Saturday in the early transactions. United States Steel advanced above 122 at midday, but eased off fractionally later. Republic Steel established a new high record price, crossing 84, the first time in the company's history and giving over three points. Mexican Petroleum lost more than two points.

The market was generally heavy in the late session, the general list reacting one of three points or so from the high of the day and materially below Saturday's level.

Mt. Angel News

(Capital Journal Special Service) Mt. Angel, Nov. 13.—Smith brothers sold a number of ears this fall, one to August Grenzer, Fred Uphoff and Geo. Meyers of Mt. Angel and Joe Taylor of Scotts Mills.

Rev. Father Berchthold, who has been pastor of St. Joseph's parish of Portland for a number of years, has come to Mt. Angel to become Father Domini's assistant. Father Pravin has been appointed to take Father Berchthold's place.

The Willamette Valley Southern Railroad Co. has built a new electric tank to keep the supply of electricity in this end should the other end give out.

ASSASSINATION OF PRESIDENT LINCOLN IN THE "BIRTH OF A NATION"

Honest Abe did not turn a deaf ear to the "great heart" by a southern mother whose son is condemned to die as a spy. It is one of the touching features of the Birth of a Nation spectacle and characteristic, too, of Lincoln's experiences of those days. The Ford's theatre scene, including the assassination of the president, is of particular value since the reproduction of the interior of the old playhouse, including the scene setting which was on the stage at the fatal moment, is as near exact as art and money could make possible. The part covering the reconstruction period sets forth vividly Lincoln's characteristic policy toward the south, also the most difficult problems arising from the attempts of the white and black races to dwell together on politically equal terms. Here it has been said some of the features are overdrawn, but possibly no more than necessity demanded to convey accurately and quickly to the people the impending dangers with which the southern people were called upon to cope. The necessity of educating the negro, recently a slave, is potently evinced at the Grand today and tomorrow.

Oregon's Vegetables Valued at $26,450,542

The vegetable production of Oregon for the year 1916 exceeded that of 1914 by about six million dollars, according to figures received by the state labor commission after injuries sent to various parts of the state. The yield for 1915 is not as good as either 1914 or 1916. Beans yielded 210,000,000, which at five cents per pound, brought $5,250,000; cabbage yielded 30,000,000 pounds, which at 1.12 cents per pound brought $3,360,000; cauliflower, with 37,000 pounds at $1.35 a crate brought $49,950; carrots, with a yield of 21,000,000 pounds at 15 cents a pound brought $3,150,000; onions yielded 70,000 bushels and at $1.37 brought $959,742; peas turned out 2,900,000 bushels, which at $2.18 a bushel brought $6,321,000.

There were 7,125,000 bushels of pota-
