University Notes

As the second attraction of this winter's faculty series of free public lectures will be a presentation of "Historical Lies," by Prof. George H. Allen, Ph. D., of the College of Liberal Arts. It will be given next Monday evening, November 20, in Waller chapel, at 8 o'clock.

Heals Skin Diseases

It is unnecessary for you to suffer with eczema, blotches, ringworm, rashes and similar skin troubles. A little zemo, obtained at any drug store for 25c, or $1.00 for extra large bottle, and promptly applied will usually give instant relief from itching torture. It cleanses and soothes the skin and heals quickly and effectively most skin diseases. Zemo is a wonderful, penetrating, disappearing liquid and is soothing to the most delicate skin. It is not greasy, is easily applied and costs little. Get it today and save all further distress. The E. W. Rose Co., Cleveland, O.

A most cordial invitation is extended to the general public to attend. The doctor has many interesting historical fallacies which he expects to disprove at that time.

The reaction at Monday's chapel hour on account of Willamette's defeat of the Pacific university huskies Saturday afternoon consisted of as live a display of Willamette spirit as has been present in the historic chapel this year. Interposed between yells and songs were speeches by Coach Mathews and Captain Flegel of the team, who presented the reasons why Willamette won. Arlie Walker, manager of athletics, added fuel to the spirit of the occasion by initiating the movement to invade Portland with a live rooting corps when Willamette meets Multnomah in the metropolis on November 25. Yell King Steeves explained the proposed excursion in detail and a written ballot was taken of those desiring to go. By the end of the week this census will be materially increased by personal canvases of the rooters. From interest already aroused in the invasion of the metropolis, about 175 to 200 students will leave for the scene of the football game Saturday morning, November 25.

Scheduled for Wednesday evening's program of the Websterian society is a thorough discussion of the silent drama which is now so popular with the American public. Beginning with the "Evolution of the Motion Picture" by Harold Dimmick, the successive stages in its wide field will receive adequate attention from the various new men now affiliated with the society. "Kinesam-color Photography" by Victor Taylor, "Slapstick Comedy" by Elbert Tasto, and "Movie Studios I Have Visited" by Fred Teall, promise to be interesting treatises on the subject. Walter Doughty will contribute a cornet solo. Following parliamentary practice with Earl Flegel in the chair will occur the regular quarterly election of officers.

Of golden interest to Managed Walker and the Willamette student body in general were the gate receipts accruing from Saturday's double header football game on Sweetland field. The net proceeds amounts to over $165 which is the best total receipts since the university of Montana-Willamette game in the fall of 1912.

According to the latest figures from the university office the total registration of freshmen for this semester is now 99 students and prospects are that there will be several additions in the course of the next week. Quiet and restful will be the joint Christian association vesper service and prayer meeting Wednesday evening in Waller chapel. Prof. James T. Mathews, one of Willamette's most popular faculty members, will lead. The service is being held in connection with "World Fellowship Week," which is being celebrated throughout the world in Christian associations this week. It will last from 7 to 7:45 p. m., that the regular men's literary program may not be interfered with for that evening.

Waller chapel was the scene of an enjoyable informal recital late Monday afternoon when Dr. Frank Wilbur Chace presented students of the conservatory in song, piano, violin and pipe organ offerings. Opening was a piano duet. Two movements from "The Spanish Dances" (Moscowski) by the Misses Carolyn Sterling and Vanita McKinney. A soprano solo, "At Dawning," by Calman, was given by Miss Lucile McCully, and an alto solo, Wood's "Ashes of Roses," was sung by Miss Ruth Winter. Following was a difficult but pleasing rendition of Morris' "Meditation," by little Miss Evangeline Nora Hall. "Waiting," by Harrison Millard was offered by Miss Evelyn Reigleman, Miss Alberta Goulder gave Dell Aqua's "Villanelle," and Dvorak's "Songs My Mother Taught Me," Miss Eddy followed with a piano solo, "Impromptu," by Rhanhold. Miss Schraeder presented a vocal solo, "Little Fidget," "Jesu, Jesu, Misereere," by Nevin, was sung by Miss Irene Eddy and "La Bien aimee," by Schutt, was played by Miss Genevieve Findley on the piano. Next came a vocal solo, Bragan's "Angel's Serenade," sung by Miss Allene Dunbar with Miss Lucile McCully on the piano and the violin and Dr. Frank W. Chace at the pipe organ. Miss Gail very pleasingly gave Goddard's "Flowers Song," and Miss Margaret Wible closed the excellent program with Tosti's famous vocal selection "Goodbye." The next recital will be given in two weeks in the same auditorium.

entended with a yellow ribbon bearing the cardinal inscription, "On to Multnomah--Saturday, November 25, '16--I Will Be There." Willamette has not played Multnomah Amateur Athletic club of Portland since October, 1911, at which time a score of 17 to 0 was chalked up against the local warriors. In 1910 a special excursion was chartered by the varsity and M. A. A. C. was smashed on its home gridiron by the decisive score of 29 to 0. The season's records show that the 1916 teams will be evenly matched both in season records and weight, though the Multnomah warriors have the edge in sheer football experience. Coach Mathews is setting the same stern pace on the gridiron again this week which assures a gritty fighting team win or lose for November 25.

Heralded as "extemporaneously extraordinary" is the Philodorian society's program for tonight which will hinge upon a discussion of the presidential electoral college. Whether it should be abolished and the president elected by popular vote or not is a question which bodes fair to be pregnant with interesting points for and against. Numerous other impromptu discussions on features of the day are on the evening's calendar and promise to be ripe with amusing features.

"THAT LITTLE GAME" --- --- A Slight Inconvenience

Much interest is being expressed in the initial program of the new Christophilian Literary society which will be given the charter members of that organization this evening in the Y. W. C. A. restroom. William Marsters, president-elect, will usher in the first evening with his inaugural address. Paul Doney is scheduled for a reading and Dr. John O. Hall of the faculty, will give an address. A mandolin duet by Kenneth Legge and William Holt is to follow and Beat' Follock, a freshman cartoonist of rising fame, will close with a few "Piquant Pictorial Punches."

With a preliminary registration of approximately 100 students signed up for the Portland excursion on November 25, there is no reason that the greater majority of the student body will fall in line this week, thereby insuring the unqualified success of the affair. Excursion tickets are now on sale by officers of the principal student organizations and every student as soon as he has purchased the ticket is pre-
