NO EXPERIMENTING

Your vision—the most important thing on earth. More precious than all the wealth of the world is your eyesight. Any optical service but the best obtainable would be a mighty poor buy for you.

At the most reasonable prices I place at your command an experience covering 34 years of eye examination and fitting of glasses—not only experience, but years of scientific study of the subject and every modern aid for proper fitting.

The prune situation is quiet now as practically all of this year's crop is out of the hands of the growers. Shipments are not up to expectations as where half a dozen cars are needed, a plant is lucky to get one car.

About 150 high school students, chaperones teachers, football players and rooters went to Albany this morning on the 10:30 special Southern Pacific train in three coaches.

Walter Tooze, Jr., was defeated in his race for prosecuting attorney of Polk county at the recent election and one consoling friend who had missed his guess three times, inscribed on a building the following: "No Hughes, No Tooze—no Booze."

The river now is just half a foot above low water mark. The precipitation yesterday was 40 of an inch and after eight days of eastern Oregon weather, the regulation Willamette valley climate is now with us.

Rev. James Elvin of the First Congregational church accompanied by Rev. H. C. Stover and Rev. George W. Hinman, of San Francisco, spoke yesterday at Sheridan of the plans of the church to add half a million members before the celebration of 1920, the landing of the Pilgrim fathers.

A marriage license was issued this afternoon to George Vernon Miller, a farmer of Hubbard, and Ethel Leota Adams, of Woodburn.

Farmers seem a trifle backward about bringing their turkeys in for the Thanksgiving trade, or of even contracting for them.

Efforts are being made to secure at least 50 young men in Salem who will attend the Older Boys' conference to be held this year at Corvallis.

The quarterly meeting of the Friends church of South Salem is now in session and will continue until Sunday evening.
