SALEM TONG WAR ENDS BEFORE IT BEGINS

Wrong Chink Robbed, Money Returned, No Evidence Obtainable

Scared until they could only talk in whispers and fearful that at any moment a tong war might break out in the city and be the cause of sending some one on a premature journey to the realms of celestial bliss, the Chinese mixed up in the robbery of Wong Leong, an aged Chinaman of this city, Wednesday night when he was bound and gagged and a sum said to be about $500 taken from him, today settled the case and it was dismissed by District Attorney Ringo.

The money found on the two men, Ching Bing and Wong Sing, amounting to about $145, was turned over to Wong Leong on the insistence of Chief of Police Welsh, who took a receipt for it. In addition the two men were to leave Salem and not return, on penalty of having the case reopened and a charge of assault and robbery being pressed against them.

Chief Welsh is of the opinion that the two Chinese were the perpetrators of the deed. However, in the uncertain testimony elicited from the reluctant Orientals, it was learned that the deed was committed on the wrong man, and that the two men were after a man belonging to another tong. Because Wong Leong belongs to the same tong as Ching Bing and Wong Sing, it was feared a war might develop in the tong itself.

The Chinamen, accordingly, besieged Chief Welsh and District Attorney Ringo to dismiss the case and promised settlement. Yesterday evening the president of the Sui Sing tong, the high bidder society of San Francisco, and the secretary, who happened to be in Portland, were in Salem and conferred with the local Chinese on the case.

It was an extremely difficult matter for the officers to elicit any information concerning the Chinese as they were very reticent and close mouthed. It is practically certain that a plan had been made to rob a Chinese in the city but a mistake was made. It is the opinion of the chief that only about $150 or possibly $200 was taken from Wong Leong, as the Oriental is wont to exaggerate.

THE MARKETS

The following prices for fruits and vegetables are those asked by the wholesaler of the retailer, and not what is paid to the producer. All other prices are those paid the producer. Corrections are made daily.

The cold weather seems to have discouraged the farmyard poultry as eggs are scarce and today the cash price is 42 cents and the trading price two or three cents higher. $9.10 is the top for pork on foot. In the fruit market Japanese oranges are now offered at $2.

For some reason, probably because the farmer has more money than any one else this fall, offerings of the Thanksgiving turkey are not very generous. In fact, the farmer seems just a trifle backward about selling at the present price. Portland has established a 26 cent price for dressed turkeys and from 21 to 23 cents on those on foot. Of course the Salem market is a couple of cents lower. Just at present the farmers have the turkeys.

LITTLE TALKS ON THRIFT

By S. W. STRAUS President American Society for Thrift

What use did the boys and girls of the country make of their 15 day vacation? In Spokane, Washington, no time was lost in earning money, as far as the pupils of the North Central High School were concerned, and the results were truly amazing.

The statistical report of Miss Ida May Wilson, head of the vocational department at one of the Spokane high schools, shows that 65 per cent of the boys attending the high school worked during the summer. They earned a total of $4,247.45. Boys and girls together earned a total of $33,083.35. It was found that girls had a lesser earning power than the boys. The senior girls earned on an average of only $50.50, in comparison with $102.66 by the boys of the same class.

PERSONALS

George Lewis was a passenger this morning on the Oregon Electric for Portland. Bert Dennis and daughter, Lolita, are visitors over Sunday in Dallas with relatives. F. E. McAllister, a banker of Silverton, was transacting business in Salem yesterday. Rev. and Mrs. T. J. Joles, of Brownsville, returned home today after a short visit in the city. B. C. Miles, secretary of the Spaulding Logging company, and Walter L. Spaulding went to Newberg yesterday. T. G. Albert, of the Barnes store, will spend Sunday in Eugene with his son, E. T.
