A. G. Beals, of Tillamook, representing the Tillamook county court, before the state highway commission yesterday afternoon for the purpose of securing an appropriation of $15,000 from the state to match a like sum to be put up by the Tillamook county court for building a road from Dolph by the route of the Little Nestucca to the coast. Mr. Beals, in his statement to the commission, said it was necessary for the Tillamook county court to know soon whether state aid could be expected as it was necessary to embody the appropriation in the year's budget. Mr. Beals said he had been appointed to Buren, first vice president; Mrs. A. N. Bush, second vice president; Joseph H. Albert, treasurer, and Ivan G. McDaniel, secretary.

Hartbridge Gardner Whipp, Portland's favorite baritone singer, who with Mrs. Whipp came to Salem yesterday to give a concert preceding the opening of Wallace McMurray's class room theatre at the Grand, returned home this afternoon. Mr. and Mrs. Whipp have many admirers among Salem folk, and are always flatteringly received.

The Parent-Teachers association of the Lincoln junior high school will hold its regular meeting on Friday evening November 24.

One of the interesting features of the evening will be the following Thanksgiving programme by the children:
America.
Recitation, Raymond Davis.
Song, room 3.
A Thanksgiving play, rooms 1 and 2.
Solo, Gertrude Aldrich.
The Magic Curtain, room 4.
Recitation, William Walsh.
Recitation, Helen Frey.

Mrs. Carrie E. Palmer of Stayton is visiting at the home of Mrs. F. A. McIntyre. She will remain in Salem until after the Thanksgiving holiday.

The women of the Relief Corps will hold their calendar party in the Derby building, corner Court and High streets on Saturday the 25th. An attractive array of useful and pretty articles have been made for the bazaar along with delicious home made. In addition to the sale there will be a delightful programme in the Moose hall in the evening.

Mrs. John D. Sutherland passed the day Monday in Portland.

Mrs. Charles K. Spaulding and daughter, Miss Ina Spaulding, have returned from Albany where they went to attend the funeral of Miss Inez Lenke. Miss Lenke was one of the most popular girls in Albany. She also had many friends among the younger girls in Salem and has visited Miss Spaulding on several occasions.

The regular monthly meeting of the Chemeketa chapter, Daughters of the American Revolution, will be held at the home of Mrs. Geo. M. Post, 1371 State street, on Saturday, Nov. 25th. It is hoped that every member will be present if possible as it is the first anniversary of the organization of the chapter and there are several items of business to be discussed.

"What the world is doing" was the interesting topic of yesterday's meeting of the North Salem Woman's club at the residence of Mrs. Gay O. Smith, on Church street.

Following an important business session Miss Ruth Jones gave two delightful readings, "Widow Malone" and "Her Sister's Beau."
During the afternoon Mrs. Shields head of the magazine committee gave a report of the number of books sent to the tuberculosis sanatorium this month.

COMMERCIAL CLUB HAS BUSY SESSION

Bonding for Paving Is Object- ed To Unanimously— Other Business

The proposed bonding of the city to pay for all the paving in the city, excepting that owned by the state, churches, county and schools; the appropriation of $80,000 for the Willamette river and the $187,000 for the Salem Indian school by the government through the efforts of Congressman Hawley; the Southern Pacific depot for Salem and the warehouse in the city where the farmers will be assured of a market for all their produce—all these vital problems were discussed at the monthly meeting of the Commercial club last night, at one of the largest meetings of the year.

The depot for Salem to be erected by the Southern Pacific is perhaps assured. Plans and specifications have finally been approved by the higher S. P. officials and requisition has been made for the funds.

A warehouse for the farmer seems a probability in the near future. Walter Denton, speaking for the mercantile department, said the farmers were willing but that if they brought produce to Salem, they would expect a cash price on a market basis. He said that a warehouse in charge of a competent manager was necessary and that the merchants of the city would be called upon to pay the overhead expenses. He thought that 75 cents each and that it would be a good investment for a.

"I think there is no question about getting an appropriation for $187,000 for the Salem Indian school," said Congressman Hawley. To bring the needs of the Indian school property before the Indian commissioner, Mr. Hawley suggested that a committee from Salem make a report on the school, along with the suggestions of Superintendent Hall.

The locks in the Willamette river at Oregon City, he felt, should have an appropriation of $800,000 in order that the mistakes in their construction could be repaired.

Attorney Richardson spoke in favor of the proposed bonding of the city to pay for all paving excepting that owned by the state, county, churches, schools and university, and T. B. against it.

He moved that it was the sense of the Salem Commercial club that the members were opposed to the proposed initiative measure and his motion was passed unanimously.

Charles R. Archer, director of the Tourist and Publicity department, referred to the formation of the Pacific Northwest association for advertising to the tourists of the east the advantages of the northwest, cooperating with Washington and British Columbia. The Commercial club will be asked to endorse a bill wherein $25,000 will be expended each year for two years in advertising this part of the world.

Theodore Roth, director of the Industrial department, had no report to make of his activities.
Superintendent Harwood Hall, of the Salem Indian school, said 5,000 pupils had passed through the school since 1883.

F. B. Wedel, who is establishing the Meunite hospital, thanked the people of Salem for their interest in his enterprise.

Next Monday the supreme court will pass on the mandamus to compel the city recorder to place on the ballot the initiative measure for bonding the city for over a million dollars to pay for the paving of the city. If the court so orders it will be on the ballot for the city election, December 4.

Some here as the result of a mass meeting of citizens of Tillamook county interested in the Little Nestucca route.
Because it was unable to determine just what condition the finances of the state would be in on account of the six per cent limitation, the commission refused the request, and stated it has refused all requests of a similar nature from various counties. Governor Venable said there might be changes made in the scheme of roadmaking in the state and he could not pledge the state to something it might not be able to perform.

In order to relieve the situation precipitated by the passage of the six per cent measure, by which the state cannot raise more money than it raised last year plus six per cent, it was suggested at the meeting yesterday afternoon that the legislature by repealing the one-fourth mill road levy passed four years ago and turning the $225,000 raised by it into the general fund could raise the amount available for appropriations.

According to compilations of the state labor commissioner's office the capacity of the brick and tile plants of Oregon for the 148 days in operation is 172,984,240 and the output in that time was 142,435,200 brick and tile. The manufacturing plants are valued at $86,400. The total wages paid to all help, clerks and workers, is $112,789.20.

The annual meeting of the state fair board is scheduled for December 4, and at that time a number of important matters will come up for decision and settlement. At that time A. H. Lea, the present secretary is either to be re-elected or a successor chosen, the matter of his salary for the past year fixed, and the advisability of asking the legislature for $225,000 for new buildings and improvements at the fair grounds determined. One of the aspirants for the place occupied by Mr. Lea is said to be Fred Currie, of La Grande. Regarding the salary question, although Secretary Frank Meredith received $2,000 a year, Mr. Lea is of the opinion that his remuneration is to be in excess of that amount. No board action on this question has been taken. When the board meets it will have a large list of business to come before it as the work of running the fair has been handled practically alone by Mr. Lea and no check has so far been made on his accounts.

Steps are being taken to organize a state-wide automobile association. A meeting was held in Portland Wednesday for the purpose of forming a preliminary organization.
Surveying has been completed at the site of the Pacific Chemical company's project at Summer and Abert lakes and the task of rebuilding the dam is about half completed.

The incorporators are P. M. Boyle, Alice Boyles and Guy and Ina Dibble. The principal office will be in Molalla.
Petitions from the cities of Ontario and Burns for additional passenger train service over the Oregon Short line were filed with the public service commission today.

According to statistics compiled by the labor commissioner's office, there are ten plants in Oregon manufacturing soda water. These plants have a value of $73,000. The output is about 35,000 bottles a day. There are also 10 plants manufacturing fruit juices for public use and five for private or neighborhood use. The total output of these plants is 7,420,000 each year.

MAKING IT PLAIN

The Pure Food and Drug Laws aim to protect the public by preventing mis-statements on the labels of preparations but some people continue to accept "extracts" of cod livers thinking they will get the benefits of an emulsion of cod liver oil.
The difference is very great. An "emulsion" contains real cod liver oil, which has had the hearty endorsement of the medical profession for many years, while an "extract" is a product which contains no oil and is highly alcoholic.
Scott's Emulsion guarantees the highest grade of real Norwegian cod liver oil, skillfully blended with glycerine and hypophosphites. Scott's is free from the false stimulation of alcohol and is endorsed by good physicians everywhere.

EXPORTS BREAKS RECORDED

Washington Nov. 23.—Exports during October were 'greatly in excess of any preceding Oct. ber,' the commerce department announced today.
During the month the United States sent abroad commodities to the value of $490,000,000 against $336,200,000 in October 1915—an increase of forty six per cent.
These figures, however show a recession of $24,400,000 from the record exports of September. Imports for the month totaled $176,400,000—an increase of $12,400,000 over September and $25,200,000 over October 1915.

SOCIETY

By ALINE THOMPSON

BRIDGE and "500" parties and a club.
A few informal gatherings are the only social functions scheduled in the calendar for today. One of these affairs was the bridge for which Mrs. E. E. Waters was hostess this afternoon.
The members of the Thursday club and a few additional matrons made up the bridge tables and the affair which was the premier of a series of parties to be given by the club, composed of a group of prominent matrons was one of the most delightful of the week.
An other affair is the "500" party for which Mr. and Mrs. Frank Durbin will be hosts tonight. Their guests will include about 24 of the married folk who are members of the Nemo Cart
