DON'T SUFFER WITH NEURALGIA

Musterole Gives Delicious Comfort

When those sharp pains go shooting through your head, when your skull seems as if it would split, just rub a little Musterole on the temples and neck. It draws out the inflammation, soothes away the pain, usually giving quick relief.

Musterole is a clean, white ointment, made with oil of mustard. Better than a mustard plaster and does not blister. Many doctors and nurses frankly recommend Musterole for sore throat, bronchitis, croup, stiff neck, asthma, neuralgia, congestion, pleurisy, rheumatism, lumbago, pains and aches of the back or joints, sprains, sore muscles, bruises, chilblains, frosted feet--colds of the chest (it often prevents pneumonia). It is always dependable. 25c and 50c jars, hospital size, $2.50.

proflically having made it habit for years to do 1,000 words a day--no more, no less.

Several years ago London became a "gentleman farmer." He purchased a large estate Glen Ellen and there presided over a wonderful ranch. He labeled the valley in which his place was located "the Valley of the Moon" and frequently wrote about it. Recently he spent a considerable time in Hawaii where he meant to live part of each year and write, but death interfered with his plans.

London was married twice. His first wife, who was the mother of his two daughters, Bess and Joan, was divorced ten years ago. She was greatly shocked today when informed of her former husband's death. Several years ago London married again, his wife being the "Charmion" of his books.

Was Becoming Rich
Santa Rosa, Cal., Nov. 23.—Jack London was rapidly becoming rich when he died. For several years his work had been in great demand and publishers were paying him as high as 10 cents a word. It is estimated that his income from his writings alone has been at least $40,000 a year for several years and this does not include moving picture and other rights.
London spent large sums on his Glen Ellen ranch and he often made the remark that he had to write stories to pay the expenses of his farm.

TO STORE POWDER

Washington, Nov. 22.—Additional storage facilities to the value of $1,300,000 to accommodate the $13,000,000 worth of powder recently ordered by the navy, will be provided at the following yards, Admiral Strauss, chief of ordnance announced today before the house naval committee: Fort Mifflin, Pa., $142,700; Iowa Island, near West Point, $50,000; Lake Denmark, N. J., $100,000; Keyport, Wash., $16,000; Mare Island, $16,000; Newport, $47,000; Charleston, S. C., $35,000; and Puget Sound, $49,600.

Livesley News

(Capital Journal Special Service)
Livesley, Nov. 23.—The G. T. club was entertained by Mrs. L. D. Johnston Tuesday afternoon. There was a good turnout of members and an enjoyable time was spent. Mrs. Johnston leaves soon for Fresno, Cal., and as a token of remembrance the ladies of the club presented her with two oil paintings, the work of Mrs. G. Coolidge. Those present were: Mrs. N. P. Kugle, Mrs. W. M. Meier, Mrs. G. W. Coolidge, Mrs. T. L. Halley, Mrs. G. S. Higgins, Mrs. J. P. Bressler, Mrs. B. D. Fidler, Mrs. J. Fidler, Mrs. D. Piller, Mrs. H. B. Carpenter, Mrs. F. Edwards, Mrs. S. Davenport, Mrs. G. Bressler, Mrs. C. D. Query, Mrs. R. Mayes, Mrs. J. Watson, Mrs. L. Johnston.

C. D. Query has bought that tract of land near the depot and will soon build an up-to-date home adjoining the store. This will enable Mr. Query to devote more time to his growing business.

Clarence Martin left for Portland last week and expects to be away all winter.

The logs are now being hauled for the club house about to be erected on the golf links.

A genuine surprise party was given Mr. and Mrs. L. D. Johnston recently when a number of friends gathered for a social time. The evening was devoted to music and dancing.

Claude Edwards is working on a farm near the reform school.

T. W. Jeffreys of Aberdeen, Wash., was a recent visitor of Mr. and Mrs. John Watson.

Louis Salehberg is working on a farm near Turner.

Mrs. S. Davenport will entertain the G. T. club on Thursday Dec. 7th.

Cottolene

"The Natural Shortening"

Cottolene Doughnuts

To one pint of risen bread dough, work in one cup of sugar beaten with two eggs and one teaspoon melted Cottolene. Mix a little nutmeg or cinnamon with one-fourth cup flour; add this and enough more flour to make a stiff dough. Roll and cut, and let them rise half an hour before frying in deep, hot Cottolene.

From "HOME HELPS." Mailed free if you write our General Offices, Chicago.

The best doughnuts you ever tasted

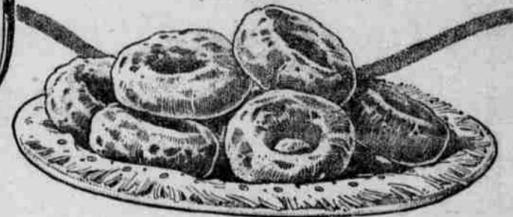

Doughnuts made by the Cottolene recipe look tempting, taste good, and can be eaten with thorough enjoyment by all.

Food prepared with Cottolene is not only appetizing, but wholesome and digestible as well. Use this pure food product for all your shortening and frying.

Arrange with your grocer for a regular supply. Pails of convenient sizes.
