SCROFULA AND ALL HUMORS GIVE WAY

There are many things learned from experience and observation that the older generation should impress upon the younger. Among them is the fact that scrofula and other humors, which produce eczema, boils, pimples and other eruptions, can be most successfully treated with Hood's Sarsaparilla.
This great medicine is a peculiar combination of remarkably effective blood-purifying and health-giving roots, barks and herbs, which are gathered especially for it.
Hood's Sarsaparilla has stood the test of forty years.

HUBBARD NEWS

The Hubbard high school football team played its first game last Saturday afternoon with the Jefferson high school eleven. It was the first game for the Hubbard boys and the first time they had had any experience of real play. The Jefferson boys did not get clear away from them speaks well for the home team as the visitors had played other games this year and several of them had been on the team at least two years previously. The visitors were a fine lot of fellows and won the game by a score of 18 to 0.

L. J. Umbile, of Gap, Pennsylvania, arrived Monday to spend a few days at the home of Peter Esch, east of Hubbard. Mr. Umbile was traveling around on one of those circle trips around the United States that sent him north through Chicago from his home town, up in to British Columbia, North Dakota, Saskatchewan, Seattle and to Portland by boat, then over the Southern Pacific south to the borders then east through New Orleans and home. A great trip.

Miss Agnes Jackson returned last Friday from a week spent with her brother, J. R. Jackson and was accompanied on the return trip by Mrs. M. Kidston, who spent several months at the Jackson home. Mrs. Kidston will spend the winter with Miss Jackson and Mrs. Coleman in Hubbard.

Albert Gower, a resident of Stanton, died on the 325 south bound train Wednesday afternoon, while the train was running from Aurora to Hubbard. The body was taken from the train at Woodburn and prepared for burial. Heart disease was the cause of death.

Jay Chittenden has worked his way through the Southern Pacific agents' school at San Francisco and at present is located at Central Point, a good little town with lots of paved streets, a few miles north of Medford. Jay likes his job.

Mrs. Henry Scholl went to Aurora Wednesday to confer with Miss Emma Snyder, grand chief of the Pythian Sisters, for Oregon, who has just returned from a trip in the eastern part of the state. Mrs. Scholl has charge of the altruistic work of the lodge for this section.—Hubbard Enterprise.
