THE MARKETS

The following prices for fruits and vegetables are those asked by the wholesaler of the retailer, and not what is paid to the producer. All other prices are those paid the producer. Corrections are made daily.

Butterfat is quoted at an advance of two cents this morning but creamery butter holds at the same price. This advance to 43 cents seems to be due to fierce competition and not so much to general market conditions.

Table listing market prices for various commodities: Wheat $1.25@1.28, Oats new $2@45c, Rolled barley $2@45c, Bran $27.50, etc.

Deputy Sheriff Needham was notified this morning that the store of Ditter, Bell and company of Sublimity had been entered last night and robbed. When the store was opened this morning it was found to have been ransacked for clothing apparently suited to wet weather.

Table listing market prices for various commodities: Tomatoes $1.25, Cabbage $1.25, String garlic 10@12 1/2c, Potatoes, sweet 3c, etc.

Because in entering a judgment in the suit brought by W. H. Robinson against E. O. Foff and Audrey Foffrich an attachment was overlooked, and because there was no intention on the part of the plaintiff to abandon the attachment, an order vacating the judgment is asked of the court.

Table listing market prices for various commodities: Eggs, per dozen, fresh ranch 50c, Sugar, cane $8.70, Creamery butter $2.45, etc.

Metropolitan Life Insurance company agents and deputy superintendents are in session today at the company's office in the Masonic Temple. It is what is called the quarterly meeting of the staff, when all the problems of the agents are freely discussed.

The Albany high school football team that ran away with the Salem high school players, is one more notch nearer the state championship, as the team recently defeated the Eugene high school players with a score of 27 to 0.

BONDING MEASURE TO BE ARGUED MONDAY

Argument in the mandamus proceedings to place the street paving bonding measure on the ballot for the city election December 4, will be heard by the supreme court Monday afternoon at 1:30 o'clock.

Washington, Nov. 25.—The swollen gold tide in circulation at the close of the fiscal year was such that theoretical—every man, woman and child in the United States had a $99.28 interest in it.

Under the auspices of the Salem commercial club, the third annual Marion county corn show will be held in this city from December 11 to 16 inclusive.

In order to determine just what the teachers of Marion county feel should be the code of ethics a list of thirty suggestions are being mailed to the teachers of the county by County School Superintendent Smith.

Charles Johnson, of Scotts Mills, renounced allegiance to the king of Sweden this afternoon in the county clerk's office. He arrived in the United States in 1903, sailing from Liverpool. He is a horsehooper by trade.

Deputy Sheriff Needham recorded a unusually large sheriff's sale this afternoon when he turned over the proceeds of the sale of 357 acres belonging to Emma G. Robinson on Mission Bottom. There were three mortgages on the land.

To Deliver Address at Jason Lee Church

The people of North Salem will be favored to hear an address by President Carl G. Doney, of Willamette university, Sunday evening, December 10.

The address will be given under the auspices of Jason Lee Service Circle, an organization which was formed this fall for the purpose suggested by the topic of Dr. Doney's discussion.

Charles Boergershausen of Gervais, a farmer, renounced his allegiance to William II of Germany this morning in taking out his second citizenship papers. He came to America when he was four years old from Duderstadt, and landed at the port of New Orleans, after his ship had been driven 1500 miles out of its way by severe storms.
