Juarez, Mex., Nov. 27,-Although no inkling of the fate of General Jacinto Trevino and the Carranzista defenders of Chihuahua City had reached here early today, General Gonzales, commander of Mexican de facto garrison here, is harrying every available soldier in the entire state of Chihunhua northward by rail to send to the relief of the state capital.

From Santa Buena Ventura the gar-rison of 150 and Carranzistas is being. withdrawn, together with the garrisons at Nomiquips, Casas Grandes and Guzman, numbering about 100 each. These reinforcements are being rushed north on the Mexican Northwestern railway to Juarez, where they will be transferred to the Mexican Central and start-
