Foreign Trade Well Maintained in October

October statistics of foreign trade an ounced today by the Bureau of Foreign and Domestie Commerce, Department of Commerce, indicate a continuation of the remarkable activity noted for earlier months, with imports slightly larger and exports slightly less than those of September, while exprts in October, 1916, are far in excess of those for any preceding October.

The month's exports totaled $490,000-000, a recession of $24,400,000 from the high record made in September. They are, however, 46 per cent more than the total of $336,200,000 for October, 1915, and 150 per cent in excess of the total for October, 1914, which was $194,700,000. The year which ended with October last gave an export total of $5,128,000,000, compared with $3,19,000,000, for 1914,15 and $2,14,000 (19,000,000 for 1914-15 and $2,141,000, 0 for 1913-1914.
