Evangelistic Meetings.
Since the coming of Rev. James M. Hendy to the Salem Unitarian church, one or more departures from the set form of services have been instituted. For the coming week Mr. Hendy announces a series of evangelistic meetings, the first one on Sunday morning and continuing throughout the week.

The primary purpose of this series of special services is to acquaint the people of Salem with the tenets, beliefs and opinions of the Unitarian church as well as to instigate a campaign for new members. A few of the subjects announced for the week are:
"What Shall I Do to Be Saved?"
"Is the Bible Infallible?"
"Chasing the Other Fellow's Hat."
"The Church Where You Feel at Home."
Tuesday evening of this week Rev. G. W. Elliot, pastor of the Unitarian church at Portland, formerly pastor in Salem, will be present and speak on the subject, "The Gospel of Jesus in a Free Church."
Services will begin at 7:45 each evening. A very attractive musical program is promised for each service.

SOCIETY

By ALINE THOMPSON

Mrs. E. Cooke Patton and daughter, Miss Luella Patton, who have been the guests of relative in Portland for a few days will return tomorrow.

Ray A. Forsching, traveling salesman for the Crescent Mfg. Co. of Seattle, Washington, spent Thanksgiving in Salem with his parents, Mr. and Mrs. B. D. Forsching, of 1990 Waller street.

Mrs. A. Marvin Catter will leave Sunday for California, where she will pass several months visiting relatives.

Miss Ida Simmons has returned from Portland, where she was the guest of her aunt for the Thanksgiving holiday.

At the Methodist church on Friday and Saturday of next week, a bazaar will be held by the ladies of the church.

The parlors will be circled with booths, filled with a pretty assortment of articles that will prove a boon to the busy matron and maid who is desirous of obtaining useful Christmas gifts. All the necessary dainties for the table in holiday season will be of forced for sale and a luncheon will also be served.

Miss Esther Mang a student of the Oregon Agricultural College, is passing the vacation period with her parents.

Miss Mang has as her guest, Miss Katherine Howells of Medford, Oregon.

Miss Gladys Rodgers of Los Angeles, California, is the guest of Miss Ruth Harbert, who is home from O. A. C. for the Thanksgiving holidays.

Mrs. W. Everett Anderson will go to Portland tomorrow for an over Sunday visit, and will be the guest of Mrs. D. E. Tate.

Sunday afternoon Mrs. Anderson will attend the Portland Symphony Orchestra of which Mr. Tate is manager.

Of cheering significance to the large number of Willamette students who were unable to leave Salem during the present holidays was the annual Thanksgiving frolic in university gymnasium Thursday evening. Old-fashioned games such as "Virginia Reel," "Tucker" and others of a lively nature greatly served to raise the spirits of the homesick lads and lasses—for even university students like to spend turkey day with the home folks. A rousing round of college songs paved the way for the "fireside" refreshments of yesteryear. New England day which speedily eliminated any lingering homesickness. Miss Junia Todd was chaperone for the affair.

Mr. and Mrs. C. Nered entertained as their guests for Thanksgiving, Mr. and

START THE BALL ROLLING FOR NORMAL IN 1918.
A committee has been appointed from the Ashland Commercial Club which will work in conjunction with the representatives from this county and educators of the state in securing a reopening of the Southern Oregon Normal school at Ashland.

Every effort will be centered upon placing upon the ballot and carrying of a bill reestablishing the normal at the election two years hence. Realization of the fact that no appropriation could be expected from the legislature this year was made plain by the representatives at a meeting held with the committee last Friday night. The fact that the Pendleton normal bill, with its vastly greater appropriation and with the opposition offered by West on, came very near to carrying, and that the Ashland normal proposition will have no opposition of the kind, lends to the belief that the voters of Oregon are beginning to understand the need of more normals and with two years of educational work it is believed that the Ashland normal bill will receive a substantial majority.

A meeting of a number of interested Ashlanders was held Friday night at the Commercial Club to lay out a plan and start the ball rolling.

W. H. Gore and Ben Sheldon, who will represent Jackson county at the next session of the legislature, were over from Medford to exchange views with workers for the Southern Oregon State Normal at Ashland. Representative C. M. Thomas was expected but was unable to be present.

Mr. Sheldon and Mr. Gore both addressed the meeting—Mr. Sheldon going into the situation quite exhaustively from every angle. He and Mr. Gore both expressed the belief that Ashland's ultimate chances for the reopening of the Southern Oregon normal are excellent and are growing better. Both, however, were agreed that the securing of an appropriation from the next legislature is out of the question since the tax limitation bill carried at the recent election.

DISTRICT ATTORNEY TO HELP INVESTIGATE

Ordered to Give All Aid Possible to Special Investigator Anderson

Washington, Dec. 2.—Every federal district attorney in the United States was today ordered to give all possible aid to George W. Anderson, in his investigation of alleged food price conspiracies.

So important does the department of justice consider the work Anderson has been named special assistant to the attorney general. This gives him jurisdiction to investigate and prosecute any resultant discoveries of conspiracy in any section of the country.

Department officials insisted today the appointment of Anderson is not the result of any "specific suspicions" as to food price conspiracies. It was merely said, by way of explanation, that "there has been a lot of smoke and it remains to be seen if there's any fire." They would not further discuss the matter.

Hold Civil Services Examinations Feb. 3

That the average young person may have a chance for first grade or clerical positions in the state of Oregon, the U. S. Civil Service commission announces that examinations will be held on Feb. 3, 1917, at Salem, Albany, Eugene and other cities in the state.

The examination is to secure eligible from which to make certification to fill vacancies as they occur in clerical positions in the custom service, such as clerk, storekeeper, gauger, and also positions in the internal revenue service.

The applicant for examination must be over 18 years of age, but no person under 21 years of age will be eligible for appointment to the positions of deputy collector, storekeeper, nor any one under 21 nor over 45 years of age will be eligible for the positions of day inspector or assistant weigher in the customs service.

Applicants must come to the examination with their photographs taken within two years of the examination. The photograph must be pasted in the space provided by the admission card sent to the applicant after application for examination has been filed. No tintypes or group photos will be accepted.

Should any one wish to take the examination, application must be made to Herbert W. Ward, 303 Postoffice building, Seattle, Wash. The examinations are not especially difficult and while an appointment hardly ever follows the examinations at once, yet there is a chance of receiving a sum from the government within two years after the day of examination.

Court House News

A suit in equity to establish a trust was filed yesterday by Florence Allison against George N. Doyle, et al, as an action to recover land on Grand Island, Yamhill county, which was deeded without consideration to F. O. Doyle who died November 15, 1916.

It is alleged in the complaint that F. O. Doyle as the father of the plaintiff lived with her and that he conducted his business in common and that he purchased forty acres next to the land she owned and it was considered that the forty acres of his should descend to her when he died.

It is further alleged that Guy O. Smith, administrator of the estate, is wrongfully and unlawfully claiming possession of the forty acre tract merely held by her but which she deeded to her father when she was compelled to leave Oregon for her health and which he was going to sell. In order to protect her right she has brought suit and asks a decree declaring she is the owner of the land, that the deceased took it as a trustee, and that G. O. Smith be required to surrender possession.

According to the report of the Wells Fargo Express company made to the county clerk they filled out 1047 affidavits for shipments of liquor in Marion county during the month of November. Drug stores and other express companies have until the tenth of each month for filing of affidavits with the county clerk.

Mary Gouly has brought suit against Nancy A. Richardson, et al, for the recovery of money alleged to be due on a promissory note for $3600 given in payment for certain lands in Marion county. It is alleged no payments have been made though demanded. Attorneys fees in the sum of $300 are asked.

In the action brought by the American Art Works against The Schnaff Mercantile House of Mt. Angel for art calendar and stationery sold and delivered, the defendant today filed an answer denying it owes the money and asking that the suit be dismissed. A motion is also filed asking that certain parts of the complaint be struck out.

In the matter of Margaret Barrett, an alleged dependent child, Judge Busby today committed her to the St. Agnes Baby Home of Oregon. It is stated in the petition of the child's mother that she is unable to take care of it and give it proper parental attention. The father has deserted both mother and child. The child will be taken to the baby home by Mrs. Hattie Jackson, county juvenile officer.
